

Sheeran, James B. The Civil War Diary of Father James Sheeran, Confederate Chaplain and Redemptorist. Edited by Patrick J. Hayes. Washington: Catholic University Press, 2016.

Catholic priest, chaplain, 14th Louisiana Infantry

Railroad travel, alcohol, 13

General Richard Ewell, Catholic chaplain, 13-14

Mass, confession, 14-15

Yankee depredations, 15

Cedar Mountain, 15-19

Stonewall Jackson, 15

Treating wounded, Catholics, 19-20

AWOL soldiers, 21

Deserters, cowardice, 21

Mass, communion, preparing soldiers, 21-22

Sleeping outdoors, stars, 22

Execution of deserters, Protestant chaplains, 22-23

Second Bull Run, Manassas, campaign, 23-46

Lightning, rain, 27-28

Food, 28-29

Confederate sacking of Bristoe Station, 33-39

Under fire, 44

Yankee prisoners, 44 46-47

Dead bodies, burials, 49

Wounded, 49-50

Yankee prisoners, race, Union, 50-51

Stragglers, cowards, 52

Bad performance of some regiments, 52

Food, 53

Marching, 54

Antietam campaign, 55ff

Maryland and Confederacy, 55-56

Civilians and food, 58

Abolitionists and disorder, 59

Frederick, Maryland, 59-61

Unionist woman, 59

Sister of Charity, 60

Nuns and soldiers, 63-64

Marching, 65-66

Stonewall Jackson, 70

Martinsburg, 71-72

Yankee prisoners, shoes, 72

Harpers Ferry, 72ff

Harpers' Ferry, cemetery, Yankee prisoners, Catholics, 76-77

Antietam, 80ff

Stragglers, 80-81

Hospital, 82

Surgeons, 83

McClellan, 84 et passim
 Stragglers, 88
 Women and wounded soldiers, 89-90
 Women and discussion of religion, confession, 92-93
 Skirmish with Federals, 94-95
 Pass, 97
 General Trimble, 98
 Food prices, Unionists, 99
 Jeb Stuart, 101-2
 William Nelson Pendleton, 103
 Jackson's men tearing up railroad, 104
 Unionists, 104
 Women hostility, to Catholicism, 105
 Unionists, arguments of duty to state, 106-8
 Rumors, 109-10
 Gambling, 112
 Shoemaker, boots, 113-14
 Winchester, Catholics, war weariness, 114
 Horse, 115
 Yankee prisoners, offensive songs, music, 116
 McClellan, 118
 Departure of soldier, young man and his mother, 119
 Kernstown, 119-21
 Milroy, 121
 Harrisonburg, 122
 Conversation with a Methodist, misconceptions about Catholic priests, 124-25
 Alcohol, 128
 Baptist women, hatred of Catholics, 129-30
 Fredericksburg, 131
 Attended to spiritual needs of Union and Confederate soldiers on the battlefield, 132-33
 Hospitals, 133
 Cowardice, officer, 135-36
 Whiskey, drunkenness, man frozen to death, 137-38
 Christmas, foraging, charity, 138-39
 Holding mass, 140-41
 Alcohol, 141
 Swearing, confession, 142-43
 Catholic schools, dispute with bishop, 143-44
 Easter, snow, mass, 146
 Sermon on duties of the soldier, 147
 Fredericksburg battlefield, 149-50
 Fraternalization, boats, 150-51
 Mass in bad weather, 151
 Sermon, Protestants, blasphemy, swearing, 152
 Religious revivals, Protestants, Catholics, 153
 Chancellorsville campaign, Robert E. Lee, 154-56

Pass to visit army, Lee, 155
 Chancellorsville, 156-64
 Hooker, 158-59
 Yankee atrocities, 162
 Protestant chaplains, 163
 Hospital nurses, 164
 Wounded Yankees, Catholics, surgeons, 164
 Yankee hospital, conversation, 165
 Dead Yankees described, 166
 Death of Stonewall Jackson, 168
 Greeted by Robert E. Lee, 169
 Chancellorsville battlefield, decomposing bodies, 171
 Alcohol, 172-73
 Gettysburg campaign, 174ff
 Winchester, Milroy, 176-80
 Richard Ewell, 177, 182-83
 Purchasing food, 184
 Chambersburg, 185-86
 Yankee destruction, morale, 187
 Foraging, well behaved Confederates, 187
 Purchasing food from a Pennsylvania woman, 189
 Women, war, opinions on the war, food, 189-91
 Rumors, 192
 Battle of Gettysburg, 193-201
 Wounded Confederates, 198, 200
 Retreat from Gettysburg, field hospitals, 201-4
 Shaking hands with Catholic soldiers from A. P. Hill's corps, 208
 Lee on Gettysburg, 210
 Alcohol, whiskey, 214
 Visit with a family in Maryland, 214-15
 Picket duty, lectures officers on morality, 220-21
 Protestant officers, alcohol, 222
 Protestant chaplain, 224
 General Posey, fasting, humiliation, and prayer, Ewell, 224-25.
 Officer insulted Sheeran, Ewell B. Tucker Lacy, 225
 Chaplain meetings, 225-27
 Vice of sexual impurity, sermon, soldier angry at his remarks, 227-28
 Cold indifference of Catholics, 228
 Religious controversies in conversation, 230
 General Edward Johnson, profane, 230-31
 Review of troops, Ewell, Johnson, 231
 Ewell, Protestant chaplains, parties, sin, young women, 231-32
 Yankee deserter, 232
 Mass, Protestants, joke, 233-34
 Skeptical soldiers, 234-36
 Ewell, criticism of officers, Mrs. Ewell, 237

Sutlers, plundering, revival, 237-38
Protestant tracts on soldier courage, insulted by colonel, 239
Instructing Catholic soldiers on confession, 239-40
Military Sabbath, 241, 245-46
Worship service at night, Contemplated men of peace adoring God and drilling in war, 244
Ewell, lost coat, 247
Senator Semmes family, women, cooking, kissed Generals Lee and Ewell, welcome the priest, 247-48
Bristoe Station, 249-50, 254
Argument with Yankee prisoner, conscription, 251-53
Snoring, singing slave, 257
Catholic priest, German infidel, 258-60
Montgomery, Alabama, 263
Selma, Alabama, 264-65
Pointing guns at slaves and watching them run, 266
Priest for Bragg's army, 269-70
Protestants, Masons, 270-71
Montgomery, Governor Thomas H. Watts, 272-73
Atlanta, women, clothing workers, young women in cars, poor whites, snuff, 273-74
Howell Cobb, 275-76
Catholic chaplain, 277-79
Prisoner, Protestant, death sentence, 280
Difficulty in holding mass, 282
Christmas, 283
Father Whelan, chaplain, 286
Sermon critiqued, 289
Visiting forts along Savannah River, 289-90
Charleston, 292-99
Mass, shelling, during, 296-97
Wilmington, North Carolina, 299ff
Georgia slaveholders, mostly interested in money slaves, 301
Parties, sin of dancing, 303
Richmond, 306ff
Hospital, wounded men, 309
Picket duty, humorous false alarm, 310-11
Food, 312
Cold, 316
Richard Ewell and wife, 315-18
Short rations, cold food, guard house, 318
Protestants at Catholic services, 319-20
Chapel, 320
Mass, 321
Mass, rough soldiers, desertion, 322-23
Women in camp, 323-24
Wine, alcohol, 324
Mine Run, 325-27

Officer, Catholic mass, 328
 Episcopal sermon, prayer, anti-Catholic, 328-330
 Snowball fight, 330
 Union prisoners, 331
 Soldier execution, worthless Protestant chaplains, 331-34
 Mass on St. Patrick's Day, 334
 Protestant sermon, had Protestants and Catholics at priest's service, 335-36
 Urges Catholic soldiers to be models of their religion, 337
 Easter Sunday, 339
 Catholic bishops and war, 340
 Protestant lecture on Jackson, Ewell, 342
 Rain, 343
 Gambling, Masons, Protestants, log chapel, mass, blasphemy, 344-35
 Services in Maryland, 345-46
 Talks with Episcopal soldier on religion, 348-49
 Richard Ewell, 350-52
 Soldier, war death, 352-53
 Overland campaign, 355ff
 Battle of Wilderness, 356-59
 Hearing many confessions, 359
 Spotsylvania Courthouse, 360-63
 Woods burning, 361
 Sights and smells of dead men and horses, 357-58, 365-66
 Cowardice, 363-64
 Yankee wounded, 364, 366
   Neglectful surgeons, 366-68
 Slave woman and religion, 371-72
 Confederate victories, death, 372-73
 Cold Harbor, 373-75
 Dead because of fanatics and demagogues, 376
 Battle of the Wilderness, Spotsylvania Courthouse, 379-413
 1864 Valley campaign, 415ff
 David Hunter, 416-17
 Food, 417
 Destruction, Yankee brutality, 418
 Early and Hunter, 419
 Complaints about Confederate depredations, lack of patriotism, 419-20
 Lexington, grave of Stonewall Jackson, 422
 Military Sabbath, 423
 Women, music, Christian values, 423
 Jubal Early, 424
 Early raid on Washington, 414ff
 Capturing Yankee supplies, 426
 Paying for food, 427-28
 Under artillery fire, 429
 Stragglings, horse, 430

Maryland Unionists, 430-31
Monocacy, 432ff
Sight of battlefield, dead bodies, 435
Blair mansion, 436
Men seizing horses, 438
Officers, Party with women of Leesburg, 438-39
Under artillery fire, men cool, 439-40
Wounded men, surgeon, 440
Officers, swearing, profanity, 445
Destruction on B&O railroad, 446
Quartermaster refused him forage, gambling man, 447
Bed bugs, 449
James Mulligan, 450
Drunken rider and horse, officers, 453
1864 Valley campaign, 453ff
General Rodes, 454-55
Yankee burning and destruction, 456-57
Death of Catholic officer, had neglected religion, funeral, Mason, 457, 459
Battle of Winchester, 461-64
Captured by Yankees, 465-66
Sheridan, 467
Visiting Federal and Confederate wounded in hospitals, 467ff
Catholic soldiers, Union, 470
Accosted by drunken Irish soldier, 471
Conversation with Yankee sergeant about stealing horses, 473
Character of Yankee soldiers, 474-76
Milroy, vandalism of church, Winchester 476
Cedar Creek, 477
Federal occupation of Winchester, 478-79
Provost Marshal, Sutlers, 478-79
Federals complained that the Confederates fired into their camp without warning, plundering, 479-80
Cedar Creek, 481-85
Hospital wounded men, 485
Christian Commission, 486
Philip Sheridan, 489-90
Winchester, Imprisoned, 490ff
Vile prisoners, 491-93
Food, 493
Pregnant women with six children near prison seeking husband's release, 494
Sent to Baltimore, Fort McHenry, 499ff
Vulgar and uncouth prisoners, gambling, 501
Lice, filth, 502-3
In former slave pen, oath, 503
Catholic, behavior, 503-4
Arrest of Democratic voters, 504

Poor women near Fort McHenry, 505
 Imprisoned in a stable, 505
 Provost, religious discussion, Catholic priest, 506-7
 Prison food, 508
 Bounty jumpers, 508
 Robert Y. Conrad, 508
 Vulgar and blaspheming prisoners, 509
 Letter to James McMaster on imprisonment of Catholic chaplain, 510-15
 Letter to Philip Sheridan, 512-13
 Protestants asked him to hold a service, Methodist sermon, 515-16
 Provost, mistreatment, 517
 Oath, 518
 Federal prisoners, hard cases, 518
 Profanity, blasphemy, swearing, 518
 No sutler, prison food, 518
 Liberty, 518-19
 Preaching to prisoners about immorality, 519-20
 Deals with two tough prisoners, 520-22
 Contemptible creature distributing food to prisoners, 523
 Food, sutler, 523-25
 Religious service, Methodist sermon, 524
 Wrote to Stanton complaining about prison conditions, 525-26
 Oath, 527-28
 Food, 629
 Parole, release from prison, Sheridan answer to complaints, 530-31
 Release from prison duties as a priest, preaching against vice and immorality in prison 531-32
 Acceptance of evil Federal officer into the church, 534-35
 Provost, Mosby, 539
 Train ride, Yankee passengers, 540
 Christmas, 543
 Conversation with Philip Sheridan, 545-550
 Sheridan, still within Yankee lines, 550
 Sheridan and Yankee robbers, 551
 Jefferson Davis, last Confederate Congress, 553-54
 Vocational autobiography, 1856, 556-567