

DeLeon, Thomas Cooper. Four Years in Rebel Capitals. Mobile, Ala.: Gossip Printing Company, 1890.

Washington social circle, lobbyists, corruption, diplomats, 12-14
Secession, 15ff
Buchanan, peace Congress, 17-18
Winfield Scott, 18
Lincoln inauguration, 19-20
Reaction to secession among the common people from Virginia southward, 21-23
Montgomery, Alabama, 23-24
Jefferson Davis, 24-26
Creating a new nation, 26-27
A mess, 28
Congress, 28
Confederate revolution, 30-31
Confederate Congress, 30-32
Vice President and cabinet, 33-35
Fort Sumter, Confederate commissioners, 36-37
Growing public unity, women, 37-38
Jefferson Davis, 39-40
Montgomery society, 40-41
Virginia secession, 41
Steamboat race, 42ff
Earl Van Dorn, 43
Calliope, 44-45
Life on steamboat, 49
Raphael Semmes, 52
Mobile, 54-58
Raising troops, 54-55
John Forsyth speech, 54-55
Society, gambling, 56-58
New Orleans, cotton brokerage, 59-
Yellow Fever, 62-63
Hotels, women, 63-65
Morals, 64-65
Slaves, free blacks, 65-66
Raising troops, General Wheat, 66
Hotels, wines, 66-67
Pensacola, Bragg, 69
Soldiers, zouaves, camp life, railroad, riot, 70-74
New York Tribune article on Davis and the Confederacy, 75-76
Moving the capital to Richmond, 76-77
Charleston Mercury, 79
Mail agent, swearing, 82
Petersburg, Confederate sentiments, 84-85
Richmond, 85-92

Tredegar Ironworks, 92
 Military preparations, volunteers, gentlemen, men of various classes, 93-95
 Maryland Zouaves, 96
 Military situation in Virginia, Huger, Magruder, 98-99
 Missouri, Sterling Price, 100-1
 Robert E. Lee, 102
 Jefferson Davis, 102-3
 Atmosphere in Richmond, 103-7
 Panic in Richmond, Pawnee, 103-4
 Henry A. Wise, 107-8
 Women of Richmond, 109
 Big Bethel 111-13
 Women and providence, 111
 Ordnance department, 113
 Medical department, 113-14
 Quartermaster A. C. Myers, 114
 Rich Mountain, 114-16
 Morale, 115
 Carthage, Missouri, 117-18
 Bull Run, Manassas, 120-21
 Rumors after Manassas, reaction in Richmond to victory, 122-27
 Jefferson Davis, 125
 People want an offensive, 128
 Impatience with inaction after Manassas, 129-30
 Johnston, Beauregard, and Jefferson Davis, 129-32
 Bad effects of inaction on the army, 133-34
 Ball's Bluff, 136
 Huger at Norfolk, 136
 Western Virginia, Robert E. Lee. John B. Floyd, 137-38
 Winter of 1861-62, 139-40
 Discipline, soldiers, nostalgia, 140-41
 Morality of camps, alcohol, gambling, 141
 Mobile cadet, 142
 Maryland troops, 142-43
 Quality of the army, 145
 Society at Richmond, young people, 147-48
 Parties, charades, tableaux, 148-49
 Importance of the unmarried in Richmond society, 149-51
 Men and women, social customs, 151
 Parties, 152-53
 Jefferson Davis, uncomfortable in society, 153-55
 Congress, 156
 Depressing news, Mill Springs, Zollicoffer death, 158-59
 Judah P. Benjamin, 159-60
 Roanoke Island, Henry A. Wise, 159
 Weldon railroad, 160

Albert Sidney Johnston, Forts Henry and Donelson, 161-63
Jefferson Davis and Gideon Pillow, 163
Inauguration of Jefferson Davis, 163-64
George W. Randolph, Benjamin, cabinet changes, 165
John H. Reagan, Post office, 165
Pea Ridge, 166
Island No. 10, 166-67
Shiloh, death of Albert Sidney Johnston, Beauregard, 167-70
Loss of New Orleans, 170-73
Women of New Orleans, oath, 173
Conscription, 174ff
Selection of generals, 176
Exemptions, 178
Reorganization of the army, 178
Opposition of Joseph E. Brown, Jefferson Davis, 179-81
North Carolina Zebulon Vance, 181
Kentucky and Maryland, 181-82
Tennessee, 182-83
Shenandoah Valley, 183
Little real disloyalty in the Confederacy, 184
Conscripts, uniforms, alcohol, 185
Effect of conscription on food supply, 186
Age of conscription extended, 187
Substitutes, speculators, 187-88
Johnston and withdrawal from Centreville, 189
Stonewall Jackson in the Valley, 189
Peninsula campaign, 190-97
Food and soldier morale, 191-92
Women in Richmond, 192
Williamsburg, 193
Demoralization, 194
Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, wounded in the churches, women, 198-200
Valley campaign, death Ashby, 201-2
Seven Days, 202-6
Hospitals, 205
Aftermath of the Seven Days, McClellan, 207-8
John Pope, Cedar Mountain, Second Manassas, 208-10
Braxton Bragg and Jefferson Davis, Kentucky, 211-14
Vicksburg, 215
Baton Rouge, 215-16
Iuka, Corinth, 216
Bragg and Stones River, 216-18
Jefferson Davis, 218
Joseph E. Johnston, 218-19
Emancipation Proclamation, 219
Magruder, Galveston, 219-20

Coastal defense, 221
Financial failure, 223ff
Memminger, 224 et passim
Cotton, 225-27
Northern economic weakness, 227-29
Business cooperation, 230
Inflation, 231ff
Blockade, 232
Sinking credit, 233
Weak civilian and soldier pay, 233
Last winter of suffering, 233-34
Davis, Memminger views on finance, 234-35
Speculators, 236-37
Gambling, 238-39
Trenholm, 240
Second Manassas, 241-43
Antietam campaign, 244-47
Burnside, Fredericksburg, 247-48
Chancellorsville, death of Jackson, 249-52
Gettysburg, 252-58
Confederate navy, 259-71
Stephen Mallory, 260ff
Raphael Semmes arrest, 261
Privateers, 262
Merrimac (Virginia), 264-67
Union blockade, Confederate diplomacy, 272-
Edwin DeLeon, 274-75
Judah Benjamin, 277 et passim
Ports closed women spies, 286
Press, literature, art, 288ff
Newspapers, 288-90
Periodicals, 290-91
Literature, 291-98
Music, 298-99
Art, 299-301
Humor, 302-16
Confederate Mother Goose, 302-3
Humor about food shortages, 307-8
Humor in Richmond, 308-11
Humorous songs, 311
Vicksburg and Gettysburg, 316
Jefferson Davis and Henry Foote, 317
Conscription, 317-18
Supply problems, 318
Union cavalry grew stronger, 319-20
John Hunt Morgan, 320-21

Chickamauga, 321-22
Jefferson Davis and Braxton Bragg, 322
General Grant, 323
Longstreet and Knoxville, 323-24
Missionary Ridge, 324
Jefferson Davis visit to army, 325
Grant's strategy, 327
Praise for Forrest, Polk and Stephen D. Lee, 328-29
Kilpatrick, Dahlgren raid, 330
Grant and Overland campaign, 330-335
Northern people given incomplete information, 331fff
Critique of Grant as a strategist, 336-37
Sheridan and death of Jeb Stuart, 337-38
Butler and Beauregard, 338-39
Petersburg, 339ff
Atlanta campaign, 340ff
Removal of Joseph Johnston, 343
John Bell Hood, 344-45
Siege of Petersburg, 347
Jefferson Davis and Robert E. Lee in the final days of the war, 348-49
Hampton Roads conference, 349
Hood's Tennessee campaign, 350
Richmond society at the end of the war, 352-53
Fall of Richmond, 355-56
Richmond under occupation, 360-67
Lincoln assassination, 367
Northern visitors to Richmond, 369