

Carter, W. R. History of the First Regiment Tennessee Volunteer Cavalry in the Great War of the Rebellion. Knoxville, Tenn.: Gaut-Ogden Co., 1902. Overmountain Press, 1992.
Co. C

CHAPTER I.

East Tennessee Unionist — Organization of the Regiment — The First Camp — Drills and Parades — Ordered to the Front — Night Marches — First Alarm — Organization of THE Seventh Division 11

CHAPTER II

Cumberland Gap — Morgan's Campaign — The Stronghold Falls — Operations Around the Gap — Hard Service and Short Rations 29

CHAPTER III.

Morgan's Famous Retreat — Fatiguing March — Harassed by THE Enemy — Marching Under Difficulties — Camp Lee on the Ohio — Camp Dennison in 1862 46

CHAPTER IV.

The Fourth Tennessee Mounted — Muskets to Carbines — Incidents at Camp Dennison — Ordered to Murfreesboro — First Saber Charge — Half in Hospitals — Colonel Johnson Resigns — Re-Organization of the Cavalry — Brownlow Wears the Eagle 59

CHAPTER V.

TULLAHOMA Campaign — The Advance — Guy's Gap — Ten Thousand Cavalry on a Wild Charge — Wheeler Forced to Swim Duck River — Bragg Leaves Tennessee — Historic Camp — Movements of the Cavalry — Concentration at Stevenson — Preparing for an Advance 74

CHAPTER VI.

Advance of the Army — Climbing Mountains — Scenery Above the Clouds — Daring Move of the First Tennessee — Lost in a Mountain — Bloody Chickamauga — Two Days on THE Field — Crawfish Spring — On the Move — Watching Wheeler 85

CHAPTER VII.

Wheeler's Great Raid— Large Wagon Train Burned — The Pursuit — Winchester — Ordered to East Tennessee Fighting Bushwhackers — Lieut Bowman Attacked near Sparta--His Soldiers Killed after Surrendering — Take no Prisoners — Brownlow Quiets the guerrillas 100

CHAPTER VIII

East Tennessee Campaign — Climbing. the Cumberland — The First Tennessee at Home— A Lively Set-to at Dandridge . A Brilliant Charge — The Saber Freely Used — Christmas Eve in Camp. 112

CHAPTER IX.

How Christmas Was Spent — Battle of Mossy Creek — Death of Captain Cannon and Lieutenant Cox — A Gallant Charge — Indian Fighting in the Mountains— Capturing

A Wagon Train 126

Chapter X.

Battle of Fair Garden— Capture of Colonel Brownlow — He Bribes the Guard and Makes His Escape — Back to the Army of the Cumberland — Camp Life at Cleveland — Wheeler Attempts to capture the regiment, 138

CHAPTER XI.

The Atlanta Campaign — From Cleveland to Pine Mountain. — Dug Gap and Tilton— Across the Coosawattee and Etowah —Soldering under Difficulties — Burnt Hickory — Brownlow's Hill, 150

CHAPTER XII

Atlanta Campaign Continued — Operations Around Pine Mountain — Advance on the Kennesaw Line — Assault AND Flank Movement— Daring Feat of the First Tennessee Chattahoochee — Brownlow's Naked Charge 164

CHAPTER X

Raid below Atlanta — Great Destruction of Property — Death of Lieut. Roberts— Brownlow. Refuses to Surrender- Cuts the Lines— A Race for Life— Swimming the Chattahoochee — Hardships of the Men 176

CHAPTER XIV.

Ordered to Nashville — Wheeler's Raid — Sharp fighting — Colonel Brownlow Wounded — Wheeler Driven Across THE Tennessee — Forrest Returns hut Meets the Same Fate — The Daring Raider Forced to Fight — Fighting Bushwhackers — Life along the Tennessee i8B

CHAPTER XV.

Hood Crosses the Tennessee — Race with Schofield — Hatch Flogs Forrest at Campbellsville— Wilson at Duck River — Night March to Franklin — Preparation for Battle 201

CHAPTER XVI.

Battle of Franklin — Hood Assaults the Union Lines — Repulsed Great Slaughter —His Loss in Officers Unequaled in the War — Desperate Fighting — General Stanley Wounded — Schofield Withdraws in the Night. Safe in Nashville 213

CHAPTER XVII.

Battle of Nashville — A Great Union Victory — The Great Cavalry Battle of the West — Wilson's Cavalry Capturing Forts — Hood's Army Wrecked — The Defeat and Rout — Capturing Prisoners and Guns — The Pursuit.... 225

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Pursuit Continued — Engagement at Lynnville — Christmas Eve — Pursuit Ended — Ordered to Waterloo — Winter Quarters — The Move into Mississippi — Return to the Old Camp 239

CHAPTER XIX.

Relieved at the Front — Ordered to Nashville — The Surrender of Lee — Great Rejoicing in Camp — The War Ended. — Preparing for Muster-Out — Relieved of Duty 253

CHAPTER XX.

Closing Scenes — Under the Tattered Flag — Mustered Out. Farewell Greeting — Return Home — Reception by the Loyal People 264

Roster, Record and Post office Address 269

Roll of Honor 332

Recapitulation 333