

Zebulon Vance, The Papers of Zebulon Baird Vance. Edited by Frontis W. Johnston and Joe A. Mobley. 2 vols. .Raleigh: North Carolina Division of Archives and History, 1963-1995.
Vol. 1

Crittenden, compromise, gain time, North Carolina convention, 71-73
Clingman speech, secession, John W. Ellis, 74
Vance on secession, weakness of Buchanan administration, Crittenden, committee, African slave trade, 75-78
W. W. Lenoir, unionism, convention, see need to change nature of federal government, should not join with cotton states schemes, slavery, filibustering in Latin America, need for delay 79-81, 97-98
Vance on North Carolina in secession crisis, convention, 81-83
Vance buys pistol, 83
David Caldwell on Union sentiment in North Carolina, 83-85
Democrats and the Union, 85-86
South Carolina, secession, coercion, Crittenden plan, 87-88
Local meeting endorsing Crittenden proposals, Vance, secession, coercion, 90-91
Secession and Madison County, hanging Vance in effigy, 91-93
Secession and Democrats, 94-95
Convention elections, Vance, Crittenden measures, 95-96
Convention election, Yancey county, 96
W. W. Lenoir, not join seceding, Buchanan should withdraw troops from the forts, 98
Vance, secession, Democrats get offices, uniform, war, 100-102
Soldiers' wives, food, 103
AWOL soldiers, disease, 104-5
Merrimon, North Carolina forts and coastal defenses, 105-7
Women in army camps, 107-8
Suffolk, 110
Typhoid, 112
Vance declines to run for Congress, Unionism, service 115-17
Battle of New Bern, 120-30, 140-41
Vance reports regiment in destitute condition, 127
Remains of one man's son, 132
Raising a legion for the war, Conscription, Vance, 132-38, 144-45, 149-51
McClellan on the Peninsula, 139
Vance agrees to be a candidate for governor, 145-46, 148-49
Vance, gubernatorial election, 151
David Swain, anti-party views, 154
Vance inaugural address, 155-56, 179, 181
Surgeon General, Medical Department, 157-59
Advice on Vance to strong support war effort and cooperation with Confederate government, oppose reconstruction, 161-62, 173-75
Officer vacancies in regiments, 168-71
Soldiers without clothing, food, pay, 172-73
Conscription, need to end exemptions, 173-74
Militia, enforcement of conscription law, 175-76, 178

Vance, George W. Randolph, enlistment of troops in North Carolina, 177
 Election of officers, 180-81
 Jonathan Worth, conscription, freedom to join companies, 184-85
 Nitre contract, 186-89
 Small pox, Confederate medical department, 190, 224-25
 A. C. Myers, army clothing made in North Carolina, 189-90
 Vance on resistance to conscription, 191
 Vance asserts right to fill vacancies in regiments, 195
 Need for convention, extortion, speculation, clothing prices, poor women and children, 195-97
 John Pool, defenses of Bertie County, conscription, danger to slaves and slaveholders, slave impressment, 198-201
 Salt production, 206-209
 State supported slave patrols, 210-12
 Education, teacher, women in the war, battle deeds of North Carolina soldiers, wants to work for North Carolina in this revolution, 212-16
 Raising a company, conscription, 216-18
 Salt production, 218-220
 Roads and appointments, 220-21
 Conscription, health, militia, 221-22
 Surrounded by Yankees, Hyde County, and asks for relief, 223-24
 Railroad, 225-26
 Soldiers without shoes of clothing, 227
 Militia colonel, conscription, harsh treatment of citizens, 227-28
 Speculation extortioners, prices, 231
 Calvin Wiley, state education meeting, 231-34
 Conscription, prices, 235-36
 Supplies for soldiers in hospitals, 237-38
 Conscription, AWOL troops, 238-39
 Government contract, wagons, charge of disloyalty, 239-40
 Iron forge workers, detail, conscription law, 242-43
 Vance, Jonathan Worth, salt, 243-44, 255
 Whiskey for sick and wounded soldiers, 244
 Conscripts and state bounty, need for food and clothing, 245
 Regimental problems with lost supplies, blames colonel, 247-49
 Mallett, men selecting regiments, 250-53
 Conscription and Quakers, 254
 Soldiers, selling clothing and provisions to state at high prices, manufacturing, extortion, 255-57
 Destitute regiment, shoes, blankets, medicines, clothing, food, failure of Confederate government, 258-61
 Furnishing state with goods, profit, regulating prices, mill, 262-64
 Destitute and defenseless families in eastern North Carolina, women suffering, 264-65
 Salt, 265
 Vance asks for donations of food, clothing, and blankets for soldiers, 265-67
 John H. Reagan, postmasters and conscription, 267-68
 Jefferson Davis, Vance, conditions in eastern North Carolina, 268-69
 Confederate publishing, 269-70

Edward Stanly, Vance, Reconstruction in North Carolina, peace, political prisoners, 272-73, 284-85, 317-19, 391-93
 Vance, Jefferson Davis, conscripts selecting regiments, Unionists, West Point generals, 275-78
 Manufacturing, cloth, shoes, state contracts, 278-280
 Cotton harness and shoes, Vance, Davis, 281-82
 Drunken officer, vacancy in regiment, 282-83
 Salt, 283-84
 Gunboat fund, 285-86
 Army supplies and prices, 286-87
 Europe, cotton bonds, 288-90
 People refusing to take Confederate money, 291
 Salt works, need to use free black labor, 293-95
 Jefferson Davis, conscription, troops selecting regiments, North Carolina defenses, 295-96
 Conscription, 298-300
 Request furlough for sick sons, 299
 Calvin H. Wiley, need for conscription exemptions for those who care for the insane, 301
 Conscription and volunteering, helpless women and children, black equality, 301-3
 Letter from Methodist minister, Speculation and extortion, food prices, tannery, leather prices, 304-5
 Leather and salt, 305-6
 Deserter, 307
 Wants husband to come home, poor women, 308
 Vance appeal for helping destitute soldiers, gathering individual items, 309-10
 Iron workers, conscription, exemptions, 310-11
 Conscripted cooper, desires release, 311-12
 Conscripted shoemaker, seeks release, 312-13
 Clothe and leather, prices, 313
 Nitre making, 314-15
 Blankets for soldiers, hoarding by Quaker unionists, 315-16
 Vance on conscription and militia officers, 320-21
 Leather, tanning, 321
 Conscription, regiment enlistment, substitute, 322
 Militia, conscription, medical discharge, 323
 Need for stronger slave patrols, 324-25
 Powder, Nitre Bureau, 326-27
 Vance, purchasing in Europe, 327-28
 Confederate officers and confiscation of Liquor, 328-29
 Iron works, shoes manufacturing, conscription law, 330-32
 Clothing for soldiers, 333-34
 Railroads and defense of eastern North Carolina, slaves, 334-35, 379
 Vance, Jefferson Davis, arrests of disloyal person, rights, 336
 Protection of transportation lines, resources, and slaves, 337-40
 Medical discharge, exemption, 340
 Armory employees, clothing manufacturing, 341-44
 Defense of Roanoke Valley, 344-46
 Suggests Vance order militia into the field, 347

Salt production and shipment, 347-49
Confederate money refused, 351-52
Vance, Bonds to purchase shoes, 352-53
Salt, railroad, 354-55
Duncan McRae resigns colonelcy because he has not been promoted, 355-58
When will war end, denounces Democrats, 358
North Carolina and foreign loans, 361-63
Federal depredations around Petersburg, 364-65
Fort Fisher, 365-66
Exemption, conscription, justice of the peace, 366
Smuggling through Yankee lines, 366-67
Leather, shoes, blankets, prices, 367-68
Condition of North Carolina troops in Virginia, clothes, dirty, 368-71
Women, sacrifices, prices, 371
Tanners and shoemakers, soldiers and their families, 371-72
Shift regiment from Virginia to North Carolina, brigade of North Carolinians commanded by a Virginian, 373-74
White farmers, slaveholders, need for exemption of husband, woman's plea, 374-75
George W. Randolph, detailing soldiers, 375
Leather contract, 376
Rice plantation, needs for discharge of son, 376-77
Newspaper business, distress of war, 377-79
Husband physically unfit for service, poor children, 380-81
Shoe manufacturing, exemption, 381-82
Alcohol shortages and state restrictions, 383-84
Slave labor and work on railroads, 385-86
Defense of Roanoke Valley, farming, food, Federal threats, 386-88
Salt speculation, 389
Detail of overseer, conscription, 389-90
Need for bodies of men, fighting for homes, 390-91
Yankee outrages, 392
Conscription, deserters, 393
Vance, Jefferson Davis, state authorities enrolling conscripts, 394-95
Corn contracts and supplies, 395-96
Conscription law question, 396
Railroad problems, 397-98
Troubles, shooting in N.C. mountains, need for company of troops, 398-99
Jefferson Davis, need to enroll conscripts, bring back AWOL troops, impressment of slaves, 400-2
Donations for troops, 403
Embargo on food, leather, clothe shipped out of North Carolina by Vance, 404-5
Cotton storage, 406-7
Railroad meeting, 407-10
Federal oath, 410
Mother seek exemption of son, poverty, 410-11
Railroad, bonds, slave labor, 412-13

Wants discharge to go home and preach, 414
Conscription law, 415-16
Burning of cotton, state ownership, 417-18
Beef hides, leather, contract, 418-19
Running the blockade, 420-21
Railroad, shipments of flour, 422
John Letcher, Vance, transportation of salt, 422-23
Discharge of man for protection of families, 424-25
Asks for men to go after deserters, 425
Tanning and leather contract, 425-26
Government clothing contracts, 426-27
Salt for families, prices, 427-28
Blockade running, 432-33
Wife of deserter, poor children, pleads with Vance, 433-36
Railroad, transportation of corn, 436-37
Speculation, cloth, blankets, 437
Divisions in 57th North Carolina, 163-71, 440-41
Conscription, dodging, occupations, medical, 441-43
Wants to transfer from Confederate army to state militia, 443
R. J. Graves case, 444-45, 449-52, 454-55
Mountains, deserters and Tories, 445-46
Permission to raise regiment to avoid conscription, Either Confederate or state, 446-47
Need for salt from Saltville, Virginia, 447-48
Election of company officers, 456-59