

Moran, Benjamin. The Journal of Benjamin Moran, 1857-1865. 2 vols. Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1948.

Volume I

When court is in mourning single women presented to diplomatic circle go in white; married women black, 660

William C. Rives, 660

Queen's ball, 668-69

Lincoln, low opinion of candidate, Seward, 675

Slave ship, 676

James H. Thornwell, 686-87

Howell Cobb, 687

July 4, 689-90

Augustus Baldwin Longstreet, 693

Prince of Wales in United States, 734, 737

Elias Howe, 740-41

Election of Lincoln, 745

Royal dinners, 746

Dismisses secession talk, 748, 751

Secession, 753

Buchanan message, 754

Christmas, 757-58

Expects secession to be averted, 763

George Augustus Sala, 764

South Carolina secession, 764

Buchanan, 765

Charleston forts, 765-66

South Carolina, Jackson should have hanged Calhoun, 768-69

George M. Dallas, minister to England, passim, many references, despairs of county, 770

Civil war inevitable, 771

Star of the West, 772

Sumter, officer, 774

Wrote to Seward about his position, 775

Murder, 783-84

Lincoln inauguration, 784. 792

John L. O'Sullivan, John C. Frémont, 787-88

Washington peace conference, 788

George Francis Train, 793

Thomas Butler King, A. Dudley, Mann, 794

Seward, Dallas, Confederate recognition, 795

A. Dudley Mann, 799

After Fort Sumter, favors war to the knife, slavery, 801-2

Blockade, 804

Attack on Massachusetts soldiers in Baltimore, 804

Arousal of northern opinion, 805

Anxious for news, excitement in the legation, 805-6

John Russell, recognize Confederates as belligerents, 806-7
Visit of Unionists, 807
Dayton at heart a secessionist but lacks courage to take a stand, 808
Charles Francis Adams, new minister, Adams inclined to swear at uncivil servants, 809-10
Dallas takes his leave, critique of Dallas as a weak and vain man, 811-12

Volume II

Copy Adams' first dispatch, 815
Murder at sea, 815
Adams and John Russell, 816
Confederates have reportedly stolen Washington's bones from Mount Vernon, 818
Confederates frightened by northern determination, 819
Criticism of preachers, 822-23
John Russell, Privateers, 825
Social rights, 826-27
Dispatch bags, 827
Accusation that Harvey, minister to Portugal is a traitor, 834
Dallas as a Union man, 837
McDowell and McClellan, 838
July 4, 839
Palmerston, 840
Confederates and passports, 840
Louisiana Unionists, oath, 847
Doubts about McDowell, 850
William L. Dayton, 850
Parliamentary debates, 851
Bull Run, 857-58
Paris Declaration, 864-65
Oath, 866
Anson Burlingame, 867-68
John Lothrop Motley, Seward, 872
Confederate, treasonable letters, 872-73
Dispatch bag, 873
John Bigelow, 875
Tribune reports Adams saying government would soon recognize Confederates, 876
Butler, Hatteras Inlet, 878
Passport requirement, 879
Oath requirement, 880
Adams said Lincoln had no idea about diplomacy or diplomatic appointments, 880
Abuse in press about offer of a command to Garibaldi, 881-82
Murder on American ship, 887
American consults unfit, 887
Confederate blockade runner, 887-88
Blockade running, 893
Spying from Minister Sanford in Brussels, 899
Ball's Bluff, 903

A. Dudley Mann, 903
Yancey and Mann, 903-4
London newspaper editors, 908
Photographs of McClellan, 908
Confederate ship Nashville, Captain Nelson and the Harvey Birch, 909-10
English, negotiations with Confederates, John Russell, 911-14
Trent affair, possible war, 913-41, 948
Mass, 914
Great excitement in England, 916-17
Lincoln appointed ignorant consuls in the islands, 918
Thurlow Weed, 918-19
English policy permanent disruption of the Union, 919
Charleston, Dupont, Sherman, 920
Arrest of Mason and Slidell, 922
Illness and death of Prince Albert, 925-29
Review of 1861, 934-35
Rumor of destruction of Charleston, 936
Nashville and the Tuscarora, 942-43, 947-49
Stone fleet, Charleston, 944-45
J. Sella Martin, 946
Mill Springs, death of Zollicoffer, 949
Black Haitian representative, 950
Cobden, Mason, 950-51
Yancey and Mann dispatch, John Russell, 951
Thurlow Weed, a London editor, 951
Alcohol, loose women, 952
British electoral violence, 954
English selfishness, 960
Fort Donelson, 961-62
Mason, Yancey, blockade runners, 961
Parliamentary debate on the war, 962-64
Capture of Nashville, 965
Declarations of Parish, 967-68
Social event at Lady Palmerston's 968-70
Hampton Roads, Monitor and Merrimac, 970-72, 975
Large American donation to poor of London, 972
Henry Adams and society, 973
Charles Nordhoff, 974
African slave trade treaty, Seward, 976
Ironclads, 976
Dayton and Napoleon III, 979
Shiloh, 982
Blockade runners, Liverpool, 984
London Exhibition, 989-91
Walking in Kent, Oxford, 992-996
Evening reception, Mrs. Adams, 996-97

Lord Russell reply to Charles Francis Adams, 998-1000
Social affair at Lady Palmerston's, 1000-1003
Norman Judd, minister to Berlin, 1004
Poor quality of consuls, 1004
Fall of New Orleans, 1005
Confederate evacuation of Yorktown, 1007
Lord Russell, British neutrality, 1007
Simon Cameron, 1008, 1010
John Russell, Mexico, 1010
Social affair at Lord Granville's, 1013-14
Great London Carnival, Derby Day, 1014-17
South Kensington Museum soiree, 1017-18
Ephraim Cutter, 1018
Banks and Jackson, Valley campaign, Seward, 1018-19
Consuls, 1019-20
English press and mediation, 1020
McClellan on the Peninsula, 1021
Visit from an American Indian, 1021
Rumor of Confederate defeat near Richmond, 1021-22
Adams, Russell, Seward dispatch, 1024, 1055
Capture of Memphis, 1024-25
Hastings, 1025-27
Correspondence between Adams and Palmerston, 1027-29
Croquet, minister, 1030
Reception at Russian embassy, 1031-32
London exhibition, 1034-35
Black man preaching against English intervention, 1035-36
Confederate circulated false report that McClellan had surrendered at Harrison's Landing, 1037
Parliamentary motion to recognize Confederacy, 1038, 1040-44
Concert and ball, 1038-39
Seven Days, 1045
Nassau, Adams and Russell, 1047-48
Visit to Chiltern Hills, 1048-53
Seward dispatch, 1057
Palmerston, 1058
Tuscarora, 1059
McClellan retreat from Peninsula, 1060
Confederate pirate ship, Bulloch, 1063-64
Trip to Godstone, 1066-70
John Pope, Second Bull Run, 1071
George P. Marsh, McClellan, 1071-72
Maryland, Antietam campaign, 1072-76
Theater, 1072-73
Blockade runner, 1074
William Cornell Jewett. 1076
Woman charged with poisoning, 1077

Southern Unionists, 1077
 Emancipation Proclamation, 1077
 Consul to Sweden, 1080
 Jeb Stuart riding around McClellan's army, 1082-83
 Visit to Malvern, 1084
 Complaints about consular agents, oaths, 1085
 Guy Fawkes Day, effigy of Ben Butler, 1087
 Escaped slave, Jefferson Davis servant, 1088-90
 Russia, France, possible intervention, John Russell, 1088-90
 Election of Horatio Seymour, Fernando Wood, 1091
 Adams, Lincoln mismanagement and recent elections, poor cabinet, 1092
 Compensation for ships destroyed by British pirate, 1092
 Russell, Adams, charges of recruiting for northern army in England, 1092
 Francis Lawley, 1095-96
 Christy Minstrels, 1096
 Confederate bonds in England, 1096-97
 Trouble with the consults, 1098
 Burnside, Fredericksburg, 1098, 1100-1101
 Adams, Seward dispatches published, 1099
 John Russell note to Adams, 1100
 Times of London and English people, opinion, 1101-1102
 Seward cabinet crisis, 1102-1103
 Tory speeches on American affairs, 1104
 Antietam wounded, surgeon, 1105
 Lincoln, Emancipation Proclamation, British newspapers, 1106
 Emancipation meeting in England, dissenting clergy, Emancipation Society of London, 1107-1108
 Stones River, 1109
 Emancipation Proclamation and English opinion, 1110
 John Russell and Pirate No. 290, 1112-13, 1115
 Emancipation Proclamation meeting, 1115
 British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, Adams, Sella Martin, 1116-17
 George N. Sanders, intercepted Confederate dispatches, 1117
 Parliamentary debate, Palmerton, American affairs, 1117-18
 Escape of ship Sumter, unfriendly act of English government, 1118
 Manchester, Lincoln reply to workingmen, 1119-20
 Henry Adams, working addresses to Lincoln on Emancipation Proclamation, 1120
 James M. Mason, 1120
 Criticism of Adams for not inviting secretaries to his dinners, 1121
 Charleston, blockade, 1121, 1123
 Washington's birthday, 1123
 Lady Palmerston, Adams, party, 1125-26
 Chinese ships in England, 1126-27
 Blockade runner, 290, Adams, 1127
 French intervention, 1127
 Criticism of Adams, 1128

Princess Alexandra reception, 1129
Ramble along the Thames, Chertsy, 1130-33
Royal wedding, 1134
John Russell dispatches to Adams, 1135
Queen Victoria, 1135
Exclusiveness of English society, 1136
Loan for Confederates, 1136-37
Mexican arms, 1137
John Russell and Adams, 1138
Laird rams, 1138-42, 1144
Blockade runners, 1042-43
Thomas Dudley, Liverpool consul, 1145 et passim
Liverpool ship building, 1144-46
Robert J. Walker, 1148-1149
John A. Kasson, 1150
Adams letter, DuPont, rumor of his recall, 1150
Lord Russell, Adams, British sailors in Confederate service, 1151
Cobden, English neutrality, 1152
Charleston ironclads, 1153
Seizure of blockade runners, 1154
Prince de Joinville, 1155
William M. Evarts, 1155
Country ramble, 1156-1159
Adams and DuPont letter, 1161
Moncure Conway, 1161
Adams manners, unpopularity, 1163
Princess of Wales levee, 1163-64
Chancellorsville, 1165, 1167
Complaints against Adams and Henry Adams, 1166-67
Adams, Howell and Zerman and Mexican arms, 1167 (earlier references and later references too)
Blockade runner, 1170
Henry Adams, 1171
Blockade runner, 1171-72
Cornell Jewett, 1172
Memorial to Prince Albert, 1172-73
Case of blockade runner Alexandra, 1176
Roebuck, Confederate recognition, Gladstone, 1179
Henry Ward Beecher, 1180
Laird rams, 1181-82
Roebuck, Lindsay, Napoleon III, French recognition, 1183
Paris, 1183-86
Robert J. Walker, lost book from British Museum, 1186-87
New York draft riots, 1188
No. 290 and destruction of American commerce, 1188
Trip to Henley, 1189-1195
Confederate loan, 1195

Arming a Confederate ship, 1196
 Laird rams, 1197-98, 1200, 1202, 1209-11, 1214, 1218-19, 1230
 French and Mexican arms, 1198
 William Whiting, 1198-99
 Complains of Adams being in Scotland for long periods, 1199
 Bombardment of Charleston, 1203
 Visit to Walton-on-Thames, 1203-1208
 Robert J. Walker, Buchanan, 1209, 1231
 Charleston, Henry Ward Beecher, 1211
 Recall of James M. Mason, 1212
 Messenger, swindler, liar, mistresses, forger, 1213
Alabama, 1213 et passim, often referred as the 290, 1231, 1233
 Theater, 1217
 Chickamauga, Rosecrans, 1218
 Anonymous note damning everyone, 1220
 John Russell, a rare civil note, 1220
 Incompetence in War and Navy departments, 1221-22
 Robert J. Walker, balloon, 1222
 Leonards-on-Sea, Battle Abbey, 1223-27
 Henry Ward Beecher speech, Cobden, 1227-28
 Pro-Confederate members of Parliament, 1229-30
 Charles Augustus Sala, 1234
 Thanksgiving, Lincoln proclamation, 1239
 George Peabody, Mason, Slidell, 1242
 Adams and John Russell discuss Confederate war operations in England, 1244
 Westminster School, 1247
 Trying year of 1863, 1250
 Fulham for New Year's, 1251-52
 Shakespeare committee, 1253-54
 Adams and William M. Evarts, 1255
 Washington's birthday, 1266-67
 Sella Martin, 1267
 Robert J. Walker, 1267
 Confederate ship Tuscaloosa, 1268
 Henry Adams, status at Court, 1269-70
 Fleet to suppress slave trade, 1272
 Blockade runners, 1275
Kearsarge, 1279-81
 Queen Victoria's reception for diplomatic corps, 1282
 Garibaldi, 1283, 1285-87
 Crowhurst, 1291-94
 "Georgia" or the "Japan" Liverpool, 1296, 1311-12 et passim
 Defeat of Sigel and Butler, 1302
 Semmes, Alabama, 1307-8
 Capture of Atlanta, 1307-8
 Visit to Warwickshire, 1311

Henry Adams, 1314, 1317
 Promoted to Secretary of the Legation, 1314
 Rumors that Lincoln will not be reelected, Copperheads, 1315-16
 Marriage of Belle Boyd, 1317
 Semmes, 1320, 1338
 James M. Mason, cotton, 1321
 Spiritualism, medium, 1325
 Deserters from a United States ship, 1326
 Passports, 1326-27
 McClellan, acceptance of Democratic nomination, 1328
 Peace address to United States, 1329
 Charge against a Federal official of receiving Yancey and Rost, 1330-31
 John Russel, the Alabama, 1332
 Dinner with mayor of London, members of Parliament, 1332-34
 Frederick Seward, 1337
 Poor people begging at ministry, frequent occurrence, 1340 et passim
 Sheridan victory, 1344
 Cobden, home, 1345-46
 Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thumb, 1349, 1352
 Recruiting British citizens for Federal army, 1351
 Peace negotiations, Jefferson Davis, 1353
 William L. Dayton death, 1354
 Sherman will reach the coast, 1358
 Sherman and Savannah, defeat of Hood, 1361
 London newspaper always lie about the United States, 1363
 Lincoln's reelection, 1370
 Wilmington, 1370, 1390
 Tories worried about Federal success and possible turn against England, 1372
 Adams did provide government enough information about fitting out Confederate ships in England, 1375
 McClellan in England, 1374-75
 Fitting out Confederate ships and recruiting soldiers, 1378
Kearsarge and Alabama, 1379
 Charleston, Fort Sumter, 1386-87
 Charles Francis Adams often indifferent to his duties, 1391
 Parliamentary debate, United States-English relations, 1392-93
 Lincoln second inaugural address, 1395
 Confederate dispatches, 1399, 1401
 Rumor of Jefferson Davis resignation, 1402
 Cobden's death, Disraeli, 1403-7
 Fernando Wood, 1410, 1416-18
 Capture of Richmond and Petersburg, 1410
 Seward's carriage accident, 1413
 Lee's surrender, 1414
 Lincoln assassination, 1415-22
 Anonymous note on Lincoln's descent into Hell, 1418

Hollaway City Prison, prisoner supposedly implicated in Lincoln's assassination, 1423-24
John Wilkes Booth, 1424-25
Andrew Johnson proclamation, Jefferson Davis, 1429
Virginia visitors, rebellion at an end, 1432
Capture of Jefferson Davis, 1434

