

Shelton, Amanda. Turn Backward O Time: The Civil War Diary of Amanda Shelton.
Roseville, Minn.: Edinborough Press, 2006.

Nurse

Religion and victory with the right, 39

Sanitary Commission, 40ff

Nashville, 40-43

Christian Commission, 42

Chickamauga, 44-45

Baptism of soldiers, 45-46

Chattanooga, 43ff

Christian Commission rooms, 44-47

Chattanooga, diet kitchen, 48ff

Dead bodies in tent, 49

Dirty beds, 50

Discussion of religious faith, 52

Picket massacre, Ringgold, 54

Surgeons' social call, 57-58

Headache, 60

Black soldiers, 61-62

Sanitary Commission women, 65

Lemons, 65

Swearing, 67-68

Food, 68

Man injured by stone Confederates threw at him, 69

Men pretending to be sick for good, 69-70

Men respect northern women, 71

Man too intimate with a married woman, 71

Dying soldier, 73

Amputation, 73

Wounded men, smell, 74

Lookout Mountain, 74-75

Conflict among the nurses, 76-77

Railroad accident, amputation, death, accompanying body north, 78-79

Dead house, 82

July 4, 83

Annie Winternmyer, passim, many brief mentions

Sounds of Confederate patient in hospital, 85-86

Mixed group of women working hospital, 86

Soldiers, surgeon, women in hospital, 87

Surgeon preferences on women working in hospital, 88

Black cemetery, 92

Women working in hospital, Christian Commission, surgeon, dancing, 115-20

Reminiscences of hospital life, diet kitchen, 121ff

Use of handkerchiefs and cologne to deal with smell of the wounded, 127

Dead tent, dissection, 128

Woman spy, 129
Hostility of surgeon to women, 129-30
Wives of soldier patients, 133-34
Dying soldiers, 134
Christian, Dorothea Dix, and nurses, 135