

Murray, Elizabeth Dunbar. My Mother Used to Say: Memories of Mary Conway Shields Dunbar. Boston: Christopher Publishing House, 1959.

Jeff Davis Legion, Mississippi Cavalry
Plantation Christmas, 70-75
Slavery, 76
Enlistment of brother Dunbar, 77
Troops poorly treated in Memphis, 77-78
Slavery generosity, 78
Discipline, 86, 88
Cooking, 87
Flies, 90
Drill, 90
Manassas, 91
Drill, 92
Uniform, 93-94
Cooking, 95
Water, 95
Sudden soldier death, 97
Withdrawal of Confederate forces from around Washington, 98
Visit of Jefferson Davis, 99
Picket duty, 99-100, 107
Tableaux, 101-3, 109
Soldier pay, Christmas, 107
Food prices, 108
Brigade drill, Beaugard, Johnston, 109-110
Flag, 110
Centreville, 112
Artillery vs. cavalry, 113
Snow, 114
Christmas, 115
Furlough, 118-19
Jefferson Davis, Joseph Johnston, 121
Experience of battle, 126
Food, cooking, 128
Fair Oaks, Seven Pines, 128-29
Cavalry ride around McClellan's army, 130-
Sutler, 132
Soldier death, burial, 133
Gunboat Arkansas, 136-39
Bombardment of Natchez by the Steamer Essex, 140-51
Second Bull Run, Manassas, 152-53
Antietam campaign, 153-59
Rounding up stragglers, 160
Stuart raid into Pennsylvania, 181-82
Horses, greasy heel disease, 165

Capture a squadron of Union pickets, 166
Splitting rails, 168
Cooking, 168
Federal occupation and banishment from Natchez, 170-73
Brandy Station, 174
Gettysburg campaign, Stuart's cavalry, 175-76
Soldier death, grave, 178
Soldier death, 179ff
Destruction of Plantations around Natchez, 182-85
Plantation stories, black baptism, 196-98
Black funeral, 198-200