

Worth, Jonathan. The Correspondence of Jonathan Worth. 2 vols. Edited by J. G. de Roulhac Hamilton. Raleigh: Edwards and Broughton, 1909.

Vol. 1

Campaigning in Alamance county, Democrats, abuse, 122-23
Rumors, election of U.S. senator, secession, Clingman 124-25.
Unionists, opinion in legislature, Holden, Democrats, 125-26
North Carolina legislature, war preparations, secession, slavery, 126-27
Worth on secession convention, forts, 128-33
Secession, and compromise plans, peace congress, Crittenden, Buchanan, Sumter, 133-35
Discontinues subscription to Presbyterian paper because of its secession views, 135
Worth on secession, military force, war, Lincoln, 135
Preserve Union, criticizes South Carolina, 138-40
Will encourage people to volunteer for the war, 140-41
Anxiety, secession, slave insurrection, 141-42
Criticism of Lincoln, necessity of war, coercion, 143
State of country, gloomy about future, democracy, 144-45
Union, secession, Democrats, proscription of Union men, 146-48
Abolitionists, secessionists, war excitement, women and children, 149
Fire-eaters, Unionists, desertion by North, Lincoln, 150-51
Settlement possibility, war feeling in South, both secession and abolitionism of the devil, 151-52
Volunteers, 152, 154-55
Lincoln responsible for war, North Carolina united, 153
Convention to assume legislative powers, 153-54, 159
Lincoln's purpose, unity, 155
Northern and southern extremists, Edward J. Hale, Yancey, Lincoln, 157-58
Congressional election, 158
Confederate direct tax, 158-59
North Carolina united including union men, 10,000 troops in field, 159
Stay law, 159
Compulsory service of a boy in camp, maybe a slave, 160-61
Salt commissioner, 161-62
Invites officers to dinner, 162-63
Conscription, resistance, 163
Peace movement in Randolph county, 163-64
Salt for poor families, 165
Relief of Quakers, conscription, salt, 165-66
Salt commissioner, 166-67
Criticism of both sides—south is suicidal; volunteers for home defense, 167
Conscription, salt works, morale, 167-69
Candidate for assembly, Jacobinism, demagogism, Wilmington, Richmond, salt, 170
Confederate money, 171
Little hope for war, subjugation, 171
Union, abolitionists, politicians, secessionists, destruction, morale, 171-73
Candidacy for legislature, opposition, against coercing people to enlist, 173-75
Seven Days, 175

Advises against entering army, 176-77
 Asks for support from soldier as candidate for legislature, 177-87
 Vance, enrollment of conscripts, selecting companies, 187-88
 Possible election as treasurer, 188-90
 Soldiers charged for supplies, 189-90
 Management of daughter's plantation, slaves, 191-92
 Sequestration Act, Wade Keyes, 193-94
 Salt, 194-95, 197-98
 Josiah Turner, Worth accepts position as state treasurer, 195-96
 Public printing, 196
 Plantation business, 198-201
 Conscription, exemption, 200
 Supplies for soldiers, contributions, 201-2, 205-5
 Salt works, General Whiting, 202-3
 Teacher, 204
 Conscription, detail, miller, 204-5
 Conscription, exemption, Quakers, 207
 Secession has ruined the country, 208-9
 Salt, 210
 Food prices in Chatham county, 211
 Volunteering, age, term of service; detail, 212-13
 Conscription, exemption, hatter, 213-15
 Salt works, 215-17
 Distilling whiskey, 223
 Food shortages, high prices, 225
 Conscription, exemption, substitute, 226-27
 Whiting seizing stores in Wilmington, starving, 227
 Salt works, 228
 Worth reports to Vance about conscription and hardship, Quakers, 229-30
 Worth to Vance, Col. Stead rounding up deserters and conscripts, needs payment, 230-31
 North Carolina notes, stolen barrel of whiskey, 232
 Confederate finances, 233-34
 County expenditures, 234
 State bonds, 235
 Salt works, 236
 State finances, 236-37
 Calling out militia, conscripts, 238-39
 Doctor, conscription, 239-40
 Lost barrel of whiskey, 242-43
 Edward J. Hale, calling council into session, good relations with Vance, 243-45
 Josiah Turner asked to run for Congress, 245
 Peace movement, Raleigh Standard, military despotism, 245-46
 Salt commissioner, militia, 246-47
 Holden, conscription, peace, Ashe for Congress, 247-48
 End of war, masses north and south against war, Holden, 249
 Holden, peace movement, Democrats, secessionists, Vance. 253-55

Holden, Vance, Vance hates secession, 256
 Holden, Standard, Vance, division in state, 256-57
 Peace movement, Holden, Vance, 257-58
 Conscription, escaping military service, 259
 Destruction of Raleigh Standard offices, 260-62
 Holden and opinion in Raleigh, 263
 Raleigh Standard, peace meetings, 263-64
 Randolph County, deserters, militia atrocities, enemies of Holden, Vance, 265-66
 Blockade, cotton 266-67
 Keg of brandy, 267
 North Carolina finance, 274-75
 North Carolina finances and blockade running, military supplies, 275-80
 Shoes for slaves, 280
 Length of war, 280
 Confederate finances, 280
 Worth to Vance on appointment of Confederate Senator, Graham or Swain, 281
 Praises Vance, 281
 Rumor of Davis arresting Holden; people want end of the war, 282
 Public desire for peace, 282-83
 Favors a state convention, peace terms, restoration, 283-85
 Peace movement, Holden, deserters, convention, 285-88
 Worth, favors old Union, Confederate officials denounce this as treason, no free expression, 288-89
 Peace movement, 292-93
 Convention, habeas corpus, 293
 Confederate money, legislation, 294-96
 Call for a convention, habeas corpus, conscription, peace, disloyalty, 296-98
 Conscription, exemption, 298-99
 Holden, Standard, military despotism, 300
 Opposes setting up a new paper, habeas corpus, 300-1
 Salt, Confederate bonds, 301
 Confederate money, weak judiciary, Vance, Holden, 302-3
 Instructions for farm, 305-6
 Yankee raid on salt works, 308
 Vance, Holden, habeas corpus, 309
 Salt workers, Whiting, Graham, 309-21
 Holden, disgust with war, hates war, Vance, secessionists, 317-18
 Breach between Vance and Holden, 321
 Worth asks for political information on Randolph County, Vance, Holden, general assembly elections, habeas corpus, 322-24
 Keg of whiskey, 325
 Holden strength, 326
 Worth and Vance, 326
 Conscription act, 327
 Seats in legislature, 329
 Predicts capture of Wilmington, 329

Military situation, 330
Salt works, 331
Reelection as state treasurer, 332-33
Impressment, boat, salt, 333-34
State finances and debt, 334-36
Bonds, prices, economic conditions, 338
Crime in Randolph county, 338
Peace movement, 342
Deserters, detailed home, 343-44
Slave sale, 345
Hampton Roads conference, 346-47
Randolph County, deserters, robberies, Home Guard, 248-49
Sherman in Columbia, humiliating terms by Lincoln, emancipation, confiscation, 351-52
General Lee on army slaves, 353
Wilmington, prisoners, danger of collapse, 253
Randolph County, robbers, deserters, home guard, salt works, 354-64, 368-69
Sherman in North Carolina, Lee, Petersburg, 360-61
Chatham County, corn, wheat, deserters, people hiding provisions, 365
Sherman's troops, evacuation of Raleigh, 366-67
Cumberland County, Yankees, food, slaves, 367-70
Time for war to end, peace, 369
Ayersboro battle, 371
Sherman in North Carolina, 372-73
Call state convention, Graham opinion, 372-73
Sherman in North Carolina, Johnston, 373-75
Evacuation of Richmond, 376-77
Retreat from Raleigh, meetings of commissioners with Sherman, 380-82