

Putnam, George Haven. A Prisoner of War in Virginia, 1864-5. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons, 1912.

176th New York Infantry
Captured at Cedar Creek, 4-9
Shoes, 11-12
Food for prisoners, hardtack, 16
Libby Prison, 19ff
Toothbrush, 20-21
Food, rations, 22-25
Sleeping, bricks, 25-26
Dog, 28-29
Election of 1864, 29-32
Mortality, 31
Danville, 32ff
Escapes, 33-34
Sleeping, 35-36, 40-41
Mayor, artist, social distance, 37-38
Vermin, rats, 40-43
Water, wood, 43
Chess, 44
Language classes, 45-47
Enlisted men, officers in prison, escape attempt, 48-66
Guards. 66-67, 84-85
Exchange and parole, 67-91
Boxes, 75-76
Money exchanges with prisoners, 81-84
Stanton, 89
New Bern, Sanitary Commission, Christian Commission, slaves, 94-97
North Carolina Confederate soldiers, 97-99
Confederate food supplies, 100-2
Lincoln assassination, 103-4