

Baumgartner, Richard A., ed. Yankee Tigers II: Civil War Field Correspondence from the Tiger Regiment of Ohio. Huntington, West Va.: Blue Acorn Press, 2004.

125th Ohio

Confidence in colonel, various officers, 40
Stones River, 41
Fort Donelson, 41-47
Dead Confederates, 41-42
Marching, 50
Camp newspaper, 51-52
Railroad bridges, 52
Soldiers struck by lightning, 54
Shooting accident, 54
Soldiers and Copperhead newspapers, 56-57
Generals not every aggressive, too many West Point men, 59
Rosecrans, 59
Buell, 61
Fort Granger, 61ff
Confiscated slaves, 61-62
Soldier pay, 63
Furlough, 63-64
Women's patriotism at home, 64
Tullahoma campaign, 75ff
Confiscate Confederates' land, 76
Fighting for principle, 76
Sorry condition of country and people, salt, 78
Tennessee lost to the Confederacy, 81
John Hunt Morgan, 81-82
Conscription, 82-83
Jefferson Davis, Tennessee deserters, 82
Ohio and Kentucky elections, Vallandigham, 83
Food, greenbacks, prices, 84
Marching on Sabbath, 88
Chickamauga, 89-104
Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, Lookout Mountain, 106-117
Knoxville, 117ff
Food, prices, 119
Winter quarters and clothing, 126
East Tennessee Unionists, 126
Reenlistment, 127
Winter quarters, 127-28
Longstreet and conscription, 133
Reduction of baggage trains and impedimenta, 142
Signal Corps, 143
Rocky Face Ridge, 144-49

Resaca, 150
Abandonment of Confederate property, Unionists, 155
Kennesaw Mountain, 161-75
Soldier death, 162-65
Hood, Sherman, Peachtree Creek, 176-77
Discusses their position a year ago, 185
Colonel Opdyke, 186
Hood and Tennessee campaign, Battle of Franklin, 187-97, 203
Flag presentation, General Opdycke, 203-7
Furloughs, 208
Soldier pay, 208-9