

Fisher, Sidney George. A Philadelphia Perspective: The Civil War Diary of Sidney George Fisher. Edited by Jonathan W. White. New York: Fordham University Press, 2007.

Slavery, 17-18
Miscegenation, 18-19
George William Curtis lecture, threatened violence, 19
Henry D. Gilpin, 20-23
Slave power 20, 24
Seward speech on slavery, 27
Democratic division, Charleston convention, 33
Constitutional Union Party, Bell, 34-35
Lincoln and Seward, 35
People of taste, 37
Presidential candidates, Democrats, Douglas, 37-38
Breckinridge and slavery, 39
Bell and Everett, 46
Pennsylvania election, 46-47
Prince of Wales, 47-48
Agricultural improvements, 50-52
Possibility of war, 52-53
Slavery and white supremacy, 53-54
Condemning abolition, 54-55
Demagogues, 56
Election day, slavery and abolition, 56-57
Republican party, 56-57
Economic panic, 58
Banks, suspension of specie payments, 58
Sewing machine, 59
Secession or war, 59-61
Southerners, 61-62
Alexander H. Stephens, 62
Revolution, 63
Compromise, peaceful disunion, 64-65
Slavery and emancipation, 65-66
Henry Ward Beecher, 66-67
*War and liberty, revolution, division, possible slave revolt, 66-67
South Carolina secession, 67
Christmas, 68
Southern bluster and northern power, 68-69
Forts and secession, 69, 71-72
Fragility of government, 73
Attempted assassination, 73-76
Montgomery convention, 74
Woman on the crisis, 75-76
Lincoln inauguration, 77-78
Confederate commissioners, 79

Future, death, 80
Business, 81
Pierce Butler, Owen Wister, 82
Chase and secession, 82-83
Governor Curtin, 83
Fort Sumter, 83-84
Unity and excitement, 84-85, 86
Troops to Washington, 86,88
Drilling, 86
Home guard, 87
Runaway slaves, Maryland, 87
Traitors in Washington, 87-88
Camp Curtin, 91
Financial troubles in Philadelphia, 93
Alexandria, Ellsworth, 93-94
Wife and wedding anniversary, 94
Writ of habeas corpus, Merryman, 94-95, 109-10, 111
Phony war, 96
Troops and gentlemen, 96-97
Winfield Scott, 98
Charles Biddle, general, 99
Congressional election in Philadelphia, 100
Strong pro-war opinions, 101
Charles Biddle elected, 101
Lincoln message, 102-3
Bull Run, 103-5
Chaplain, 104
Hostility of Virginia women, 105-6
Virginia civilians, concealed arms, 106
Emancipation, 107
General Patterson, 107
Disloyalty in Washington, 107-8
Arrest of Pierce Butler, 108-9, 116
Pressure on dissent, 109-10
Dissent against the war, 110-11
Possible congressional candidacy, 113
George M. Dallas speech, 114-16
Pennsylvania election, 116-17
Flag ceremony, 118-19
His affairs prospering during the war, 120
Charles Ingersoll and Democratic meeting, 120-21
Trent, Mason, Slidell, Seward, Wilkes, 122-23, 125-28
Confiscation and emancipation, Lincoln, 124-25
*McClellan and finance, 130-31, 134-35
Cameron, 131-32
Stanton and Tucker, 132-33

Battle rumors, 137
Death of his brother, 139-40, 142-44, 146, 148
Death, 141
Alcohol, 144
Charles Ingersoll, pamphlet, Democrats, habeas corpus, 145
Democrats and union, 145
Evacuation of Yorktown, 145
Charles Ingersoll funeral, 149-50
McClellan, 151, 153-54
Lincoln and Scott, 152
Richmond and war, Fair Oaks, 152-53
Morale, 156
Legal tender, money, 156-58
Lincoln, McClellan and Washington meeting, 157-58
Democrats and war, 159-60
Habeas corpus, 161-64
Habeas corpus, 161ff, 204-5
Raising a regiment, Peninsula, 164
Harry Ingersoll, Constitution, Lincoln, habeas corpus, 165-66
McClellan, 165-66
Virginia and John Pope, 166
Antietam, 167-68
Blacks, 168-69
Rumors of Confederate raid, 169
Parties and war, 169
John Hickman, member of Congress, 170
Democratic meeting, John Van Buren, 172
Trial of the Constitution, 174-75
Lincoln, 175-76
Western Virginia, 176
Fredericksburg, 176-77
Union League, 179, 185
Benjamin F. Butler, 179-80
Democrats and slavery, 180
Buckalew and Cameron, 180-81
William H. Emory, 181-82
Charles J. Stillé pamphlet
Lincoln, McDowell court of inquiry, 182-83
Senator Saulsbury arrested, 183
Newspaper suppressed, 183-84
Charles Ingersoll, habeas corpus, 184-85
Union League, 185-86
Charles Ingersoll speech, Democratic club, 186
Northern finances, 186-87
Democrats forced to moderate, 187
Union League, 187

Copperheads, 187
Hooker, Chancellorsville, 189
*war and democracy, 189
Soldiers indignant about disloyal newspaper, 189
Anti-Copperhead, Vollandigham, 189-90, 192-93
Speculators, inflation, 191
Gettysburg campaign, 193ff
Hooker and Meade, 196
Threatening street crowds, 196
Fanny Kemble's book, 197
Abolitionists and black soldiers, 198
French in Mexico, 198
Draft riot, 199-200
Vicksburg, 200
Pamphlet, black troops, 200
Loyal southern woman, 201
1863 Pennsylvania election, Curtin, Woodward, 201, 205-6
Reality of the cruelty of slavery, 201-2
Pennsylvania secessionist, 202
Prices, 203
Lincoln and habeas corpus, judge, 204-5
Miller McKim, abolitionist, 206
Slavery and Bible, 206-7
Conscription declared unconstitutional, 207-8
Gettysburg cemetery consecration, Everett, Lincoln, 208-9
Bishop Hopkins pamphlet on slavery, 209
Democracy and reconstruction, Lincoln, 211-12
Money, legal tender, Constitution, 213
Southern planters, 214-15
Banking power, 215
Criticism of the war and Lincoln, 215-16
Slavery, 220
Women's role in the war, 220-21
Sanitary Commission, Fair, 221, 224-26
James Wadsworth death, Wilderness, 222-23
Overland campaign, 222ff
Description of Lincoln, Mary Lincoln, 226-27
Resignation of Chase, Lincoln, 228
July 4, 229
Alabama and Kearsarge, 230
House fire, 231-33
House of prostitutes, 234
Burning of Chambersburg, 234
Pro-Confederate pamphlet, 235
John Meigs killed by guerrillas, 242
Election of 1864, Lincoln, McClellan, 244-46

Sherman, 248

Godwin Smith, British opinion, 247

Death of Edward Everett, 249

Reconstruction and black suffrage, 250-51

Lincoln assassination, 251-52

Charles and Edward Ingersoll speech, mob attack, 254-57, 259

Plot to burn Philadelphia, 258