

Dinkins, James. 1861 to 1865 by an Old Johnie: Personal Recollections and Experiences in the Confederate Army. Dayton, Oh.: Morningside Bookshop, 1975.

18th Mississippi Infantry
1860 election, 21
Bull Run, Manassas, 24-26
Ball's Bluff, 27
Peninsula campaign, 29ff
Williamsburg, 32-36
Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, 37-39
Washing, 39-40
Slave, 40-41
Savage Station, 42-46
Books, 45-46
White Oak Swamp, 47-52
Wounded men, 47
Jefferson Davis, 48
Malvern Hill, 48-50
Camp slaves, 53
Harpers Ferry, 54-55
Antietam, D. H. Hill, 56-63
General Sims, 61-62
Foraging, 65-66
Fredericksburg, 67-71
Church service, dog, 73-73
Fraternization, 75-76
James Seddon, 80
Slaves, 90-91
General Chalmers, 94-97
Cavalry horses, 98
Coldwater River, 99-104
Dinner, 104-5
Food, curing beef, 106-7
Slaves, 107-8
Skirmish, 112-15
Forrest, Moscow, 116-21
Death of slave, 121-23
Crossing a river, 123-24
Forrest, 125-37
Deserters, execution, pardon, 129f
Okolona, 132-36
Women, 139-44
Fort Pillow, 150-56
Hospitable woman, 158
Tournament, 159-60
Brice's Crossroads, 160-65

Oxford burning, 166ff
Tupelo, 168
Harrisburg, 168-69
Jacob Thompson house burned, 172-74
Memphis, 180ff
Prisoners, food, 190-92
Black soldiers and Forrest, 193
Memphis, Forrest, 194ff
Tax in kind, 197
Gunboat battle, 200-15
Crossing Tennessee River, 221-243
Prisoners, 224-25
Spring Hill, 229-34
Franklin, 234-39
Dead and wounded, 238-39
Nashville, 241-52
General Harding, 243-44
Forrest, 253-60
Carpetbaggers, 270-72
Federal arrests, 274-76
Faithful slaves, 276-80