

Kimball, Charles Bill. History of Battery "A," First Illinois Light Artillery Volunteers. Chicago: Cushing Printing Company, 1899.

Militia companies in Chicago, 9-10
Muster and Lincoln's call for troops, 13
Officers, roster, 14-16
Departure, 16
Cairo, 19
Missouri, efforts to supply the battery, 20
Mustering in for three years, 20-23
Flag presentation, woman, 23
Muster into United States service, enlistments, roster, 23-34
Paducah, 35-37
Burning railroad bridge, 35
Stragglers, marching, 35-36
First death in regiment, brain congestion, 36
Fort Donelson, 38-39
Belmont and Donelson, note of thanks, 39-40
Shiloh, casualties, 40-47
Wounded men, 48
Flag, colors from home, 48-49
Corinth, 49-50
Memphis, Lew Wallace, 50-51
Arrested for taking horses from a civilian, 51-55
Chickasaw Bayou, Haines Bluff, 55-59
Arkansas Post, 59-62
Vicksburg, siege, 62-64
Prisoner, Jackson, Mississippi, 64-65
Belle Isle, food, 66-67
Andersonville, 67-70
Siege of Jackson, Mississippi, 70-71
Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, 71-72
Camp theater, 76-80
Battery mascot, mongrel dog, 80-81
Young women in Larkensville, 82
Atlanta campaign, Resaca hospital, 82ff
Battery captured, Atlanta, 87-88
Biographical sketches of battery members, 90-256
Veterans Association, 257-58
Reunions, 259-314