

Kearny, Philip. Letters from the Peninsula: The Civil War Letters of General Philip Kearny. Edited by William B. Styple. Kearny, N.J.: Belle Grove Publishing, 1988. P. 30

Very critical of McClellan, Stone, Ball's Bluff, 30
Kearny claim credit for getting the rebels to retire from Manassas, 31
Death of Kearny's son, 32
Thinks Franklin envious of him, 31
Complains about promotion, 33
Critical of McClellan, 34
Criticism of McClellan, 36, 41-42
Officials opening our mail and he blames McClellan, 44
Another broadside against McClellan, 45.
Notes how he was respected in Mexico but is now slighted, 47
Rails against politicians and abolitionists, 47
Disparages McClellan's Peninsula campaign, 50
Disparages his company officers, 50
Wounded men, Magruder, blames politicians for the war, 51
Officer appointments, 51
Disparages generals and corps commanders, 52
Sumner, Banks, Keyes, Heintzelman, McDowell, McClellan, Franklin, 52
Franklin, 53-54
Has seen Hooker, French, blasts McClellan, 54
Division command Heintzelman, 55
Division command,, 56
War run by men of small caliber including Stanton, 56
Critical of McClellan and siege, 56-57
Williamsburg, Franklin, 58-59
Bungling at Williamsburg, Hooker, Hancock, 60-63
Kearny report on Williamsburg [in OR], 66-69
Still complaining about not getting proper credit for Williamsburg and about McClellan. 72-88
Fair Oaks (Seven Pines), Heintzelman, 89-90
Silas Casey, Heintzelman, Kearny rescuing blunderers against, 91-92
Claims to have saved McClellan from disgrace again, 92
Report on Fair Oaks [in OR], 94-97
Confederate prisoner, 100
Kearny, Fair Oaks, McClellan, 101-2
Advice to a young officer, 107
Accuses McClellan of treason or political manipulation, 108-110.
Complains about Congress, McClellan, and Williamsburg, 116
McClellan, Heintzelman, Hooker, Kearny claims he has saved the army several times, 118
Battle of Glendale, Kearny report, [in OR], 120-23
Malvern Hill, Kearny report [in OR], 124
Still blasting McClellan and resent various army cliques, 125
Complaining again about McClellan and not being promoted, 133
Many friends in southern army, 137
Castigates Pope and Fitz John Porter, 137

Critical of Heintzelman, 137-38
Complains again to his wife about serving with brutes who do not appreciate him, 140
Franklin and McClellan, 142
Conscription, 142
Northern sloth and Confederate confidence, 143
Not sure why Confederates do not attack, 143
Should use blacks as pioneers, 144-45
Still complains of being ignored and cheated by McClellan, 145-46
Porter, Sumner, Heintzelman, Franklin, 146
Assessment of corps commanders, 146-47
Defeat of McClellan ended mild war and possibility of compromise with rebels, 148-49
Still complaining about McClellan not publishing reports of battle of giving him credit, 152
Conscription and use of blacks, 152
Bad Cameron and McClellan selection of generals, 153
Confederates have many men and fears Pope does not have enough, 155
Hooker, 158
Pope, Second Bull Run, says he does all the hardest fighting as usual, 162-71
Chantilly, Death of Kearny, 172-199