

Moore, George F. From your loving son: Civil War Correspondence and Diaries of Private George F. Moore and His Family. Edited by Mary Ellen Hoover, Elin Williams Neiterman, and E. Dianne James. Bloomington, Ind.: iUniverse, 2011.

Documents from Sudbury Historical Society

35th Massachusetts Infantry

Rumors about desertion, taken prisoner, 15

Antietam, McClellan, 17

Nine-month volunteers mustered in, 18

Emancipation Proclamation, 18

Conscription, 18

Snow, prospect of winter quarters, 20

Food, foraging, forged Confederate money, 20-21

Cavalry skirmish, 21

Thanksgiving, 26

School, teachers, 32

Fredericksburg, 33-34

Lincoln and absent officers, 34

Thanksgiving, 34

Food, 36

Local elections, 38

Vicksburg, 42

Fredericksburg, 46

Conscription, commutation, 51-52, 58

Cumberland Gap, Parson Brownlow, 61, 64

Copperheads, 62

Thanksgiving, religious meeting, 65

Coffin, journalist lecture, 65

Knoxville campaign, 67-70

Brownlow's newspaper, 72

Lincoln call for more troops, 72

Thanksgiving, 72-73

Woman tries to visit soldier deathly ill with diarrhea but arrives too late, 76

Knoxville campaign, 82-83

Reenlistments, 83

Soldier pay, food, 84

Condition of Confederate army, 86

Burnside in Boston, 86

Unionists in East Tennessee, 88-89

1863 Massachusetts elections, 89

Thwarted prisoner escape, 91-92

Burnside, 92

Recruiting, 92

Conscription, recruiting, 92

Lincoln call for troops, 93

Sudbury enlistments, 94

Conscription, commutation, 95

Reenlistments, 97
Kilpatrick raid on Richmond (Dahlgren), 97
Conscription, 97
Smallpox, 98
Conscription quota, foreigners, 100
Burnside, 102
East Tennessee, 102
Overland campaign, 107ff
Wounded soldiers, Philadelphia hospital, 111
Confidence in Grant, 111
Cold Harbor, 113
Conscription, commutation, 116
Petersburg, 117ff
Earthworks, 117
Engineers, work on earthworks, 118-19
Jubal Early's raid, 119-20
July 4, Philadelphia, 120
Apprehensive about fighting at Petersburg, 127
Petersburg mine, 129
Conscription, town quota, 129
Hospital, 130
Poplar Springs church engagement, 132-33
Anticipates George's homecoming, 136
Bounty money, 137
Lincoln reelection, 137-38
Some firing and Confederate artillery at Petersburg, 139
Election day, 140
Burnside and Ninth Corps, 140
Towns and bounty money, 141-42
Richmond Prison, 143
Artillery fire, celebrating Thomas's victory, Hood's defeat, 143-44
Rumor, Sherman and Savannah, 144-45
Argument with a McClellan man, 144
Towns and bounty money, 145
Lincoln should have called for even more men, 146
Edward Everett burial, 153
Peace negotiations, 154-55
Benjamin Butler, 155
Lincoln should call out more troops, 155
Burnside and the Crater, 155
Wild rumor about Lee fighting Sherman, 157
Rumor of a Confederate mine under a fort, 159
Fort Hell, 158-59
Fort Stedman, 160
Lee surrender, 164
Lincoln assassination, Booth, Jefferson Davis, 165, 168

Sherman and Johnston, 165-66

Copperheads and Lincoln assassination, 170

Civilians in Petersburg, 171

Grand Review, 172-73

Fredericksburg, 179

Diary entries are very routine

13th Massachusetts Infantry, bounty payments to Sudbury soldiers, 375-76