

French, Samuel G. Two Wars: An Autobiography. Nashville, Tenn.: Confederate Veteran, 1901.

CHAPTER I. Ancestry— Thomas French— Military Aspiration Important Document— Appointment to West Point New Jersey Farm Life— Great Changes— A Real Yankee — Pennsylvania Hall— The Fashions— Capture of a Hessian Soldier — Rufus Choate and Bishop Wainwright- West Point— Cadet Life — Senator Wall— John F. Reynolds— The Boycott— Rufus Ingalls— Requisites of a Commander 1

CHAPTER II. Graduation — Commissioned Brevet Second Lieutenant, U. S. A. — Ordered to Fort Macon, X. C. — Goldsboro— Journey to Beaufort — Officers at the Fort— Life in a Casemate— Stormy Atlantic— That Oyster Supper The Wandering < lot— Adieu to Fort Macon — Journey to Washington— Lieuts. George H. Thomas and John Pope— Weldon, X. C— Go to West Point— Prof. Morse— First Dispatch- Hope Club, Washington— Dinner Given by Surgeon General Lawson— Appointed Aid to Gen. Scott— British Gold— Col. S. Churchill — Integrity of Old Army Officers— Leave Washington for Fort McHenry— Society in Baltimore — Chief Justice Taney 20

CHAPTER III. Death of Hon. A. P. Upshur. Secretary of State— Calhoun Appointed — Treaty of Annexation of Texas— Declaration of the State of Massachusetts— Texas Accepts the Resolution of Annexation— Formation of Army of Occupation — Transferred to Maj. S. Ringgold's Battery of Horse Artillery— Officers Sail for Aransas Pass — The Wicked Captain — Becalmed — Cross Bahama Banks — Key West — Out of Drinking Water — Fare on Board Ship — Storm — Aransas Pass— St. Joseph's Island— Maj. Ringgold's Cook— Embark for Corpus Christi— Game and Fish — Horse Racing— White Horse of the Prairies- Trip to San Antonio — The Town— Incidents of the Trip 30

CHAPTER IV. President of Mexico Resigns, and Paredes Is Elected— Mexican Troops Concentrating at Matamoras— Taylor Marches to the Rio Grande-Rattlesnakes— Mirage— Wild Horses — Taylor Concentrates His Troops at Arroyo, Colo.— Bull Fight— Mexicans Flee— Taylor Goes to Point Isabel— Join Gen. Worth— Field Works— Arrival of Gen. Ampudia— Orders Taylor to Leave— Taylor Declines— Col. Cross Murdered— Lieut. Porter Killed— Gen. Arista Arrives— Declares Hostilities Commenced— Cpts. Thornton and Hardee Captured. . . . 41

CHAPTER V. Arista and His Cavalry— United States Excited — Two Hundred Thousand Men Offer Their Services— Congress Declares "••War Existed by the Acts of the Mexican Republic" — Taylor Marches to Point Isabel — Bombardment of Fort Brown -Cpts. May and Walker — Taylor Marches for Matamoras— Battle of Palo Alto — Victory — Arista Falls Back to Resaca — Battle of Resaca — Capture of Enemies' Batteries — Cpts. May and Ridgely — Gen. ha Vega Captured — His Sword Presented to Taylor — Duncan and Ridgely Pursue the Enemy — I Capture La Vega's Aid— Col. McIntosh — Hide over the Field of Palo Alto— Death of Lieuts. Chadburne and Stevens — We Take Possession of Matamoras — (Ten. Twiggs Appointed Governor — Twiggs and Jesus Maria — Arrival of Gens. W. O. Butler. Robert Patterson, Pillow, and Others — Promoted to Second Lieutenant — Officers of the Company — March to Camargo — Thence to Monterey — Seralvo — Arrival at Monterey 47

CHAPTER VI. Monterey — Population — Gen. Ampudia — Gen. Worth— Captures Fort Battery in a Hot Place — Bragg's Order Countermanded — Two Long-Haired Texans— Capture the Bishop's Palace — Our Battery Ordered to the East End of the City — Gens. Taylor and Quitman — Street Fighting — Gen. Ampudia Surrenders — Gen. Worth, Gov.

Henderson, and Col. Jefferson Davis Commissioners — Enter the City— Dine with a Mexican Gentleman — Death of Ridgely — Hot Springs — Santa Anna President — Victoria Surrenders Gen. Scott — Vera Cruz -Return to Monterey — Death of Lieut. Richey — Investigation of Richey's Death— Monterey — Saltillo — Agua Nueva — Gen. Wool - Santa Anna Advances Majs. Borland and Gaines Captured Taylor Falls Back to Buena Vista Mexican Army — Am Wounded— The Hacienda — Cavalry Fight with Mexican Lancers— Flag of Truce — Victory Carried to Saltillo 01

CHAPTER VII. Drs. T. C. Madison. V. S. A., and G. M. Provost — Surgical Operation — Courtesy of a Mexican Woman — Leave Saltillo — Paltry Escort Safe at Monterey— The Rio Grande— Maj. W. W. H. Davis- New Orleans — Gen. Pillow — Col. McIntosh — Bailey Peyton and Sergeant S. Prentiss — Drunk by Absorption — Steamer for Louisville — Racing on the River — Trip to Pittsburg, Pa. — By Canal Boat to Harrisburg — Home — Report to the Adjutant General — Go to Trenton. N. J. — Presentation of a Sword — Go to Washington— John W. Forney's Bargain with Secretary Buchanan— Cap . A.W. Reynolds — Sent to Troy, N.Y. — Gen. Wool — Leave Buffalo— Toledo— To Cincinnati by Canal— Society in Cincinnati — Appointed Captain and Assistant Quartermaster — Start for Washington— Cross the Alleghany Mountains by stage— Six Commissions in United States Army — Reception by Gen. Jesup—Capt. Rufus Ingalls 85

CHAPTER VIII. Ordered to New Orleans— Baton Rouge— Col. W. \Y. S. Bliss— Maj. J. H. Eaton— Maj. R. S. Garnett — Taylor Nominated for President — Return to New Orleans— Ordered to Vicksburg— "Gen." McMacken, the Prince of Landlords— Bishop Polk — Sent to Mobile — Regular Army at East Pascagoula, Miss.— Gen. Twiggs and His Fiancée — Sail for Galveston — Galveston — Houston — Austin — Troops Sent to Establish Posts, now Cities— San Antonio— Death of Gen. Worth — El Paso— Return to San Antonio— New Orleans—Call on Gen. Twiggs — Twiggs and Tree — Sword Presented to Mi — Dine at the President's — Death of President Taylor— Fillmore President Capt. Ringgold. U. S. X.— Ordered to Louisville — Return to Washington—Col. Joseph Taylor— Gen. W. O. Butler— Maj. Gaines Cincinnati — Salmon P. Chase 96

CHAPTER IX. January. 1851, Ordered to El Paso— Capt. Sitgreaves — Sail for Havana — Barnum and Jennie Land — Sail for New < Orleans By Steamer to Galveston — On the Gulf for Indianola — San Antonio Report of Expedition — Unprecedented March without Water Indians— With Gen. Jesup— Hartford Convention — Battles on the Canadian Frontier— Gov. W. P. Duval (Ralph Ringwood) United States Senators — Clay's Magnetism — His Duel with John Randolph— Lieut. R. F. Stockton. United States Navy, Duel with English Officers at Gibraltar — John Howard Payne Commodore Van Rensselaer Morgan — My Marriage Assigned to Fort Smith, Ark.— Trips to Washita. Fort Gibson. And Towson — Choctaws and Cherokees— John Ross — Journey from Fort Smith to Natchez, Miss.— A Misanthrope — Gen. John A. Quitman— Death of Mrs. Roberts — Tender My Resignation — Go to My Plantation — Go to San Antonio — Death of Mrs. French — Sail for Europe — John Brown's Raid 107

CHAPTER X. Canada, Boston, Rye Beach — Antislavery Party Nominates Lincoln for President — His Election Evidence of Hostility to the South — Mississippi Secedes — Gov. Pettus — Appointed Colonel and Chief of Ordnance in the Army of the State of Mississippi — State Had No Arms — Governor Sends an Agent to Europe to Purchase Arms — Laboratory for Making Ammunition — Flannel and Paper to Make Cartridges—Cartridges and Horse Collars — Only Old Flint Muskets — Old Shotguns — Governor Objects to the State Troops Going out of the State — Visit Home— Am Offered the Appointment of Brigadier General, Confederate States of America 135

CHAPTER XI. Leave for Richmond — Ordered to Evansport, Va., to Blockade the Potomac — Worthless Ammunition — Forces on the Maryland Shore — Constant Firing AH Winter — Orders to Fall Back to Fredericksburg — " Come to Richmond Immediately " — Orders from Gen. Lee — New Berne Falls — Relieve Branch at Kinston Ordered to Wilmington—Build Defenses — Fort Fisher Constructed — Col. William Lamb in Command -Running the Blockade — Whitworth (inns — July 17, 1862, Placed in Command of the Department of North Carolina and Southern Virginia— Defend a Fine from the Appomattox to Cape Fear- July 31, Shell Gen. McClellan's Army — Constructed Defenses of Petersburg Battle of Fredericksburg — Pelham-President Calls for Me Gen. Lee's Considerate Conduct — Gen. Foster al Tarboro, N C. — He Interviews an Old Darky — Railroad Bridge at Goldsboro, N. C. Burned Weak Defense Made— How I Got Supplies from Suffolk — Mrs. Johnston and Gen. Viele Was Fannie Cooper a Spy? Martial Law Sidney Lanier -Flag of Truce Boats — Exchange of Prisoners 140

CHAPTER XII. Telegram from Secretary of War — (G to Richmond Declined Going to Vicksburg Gen. Longstreet — He starts for Suffolk--Suffolk —Capture of a Fort and Garrison — No Report Made of the Capture — Statement of Lieut. George Reese — Longstreet Ordered to, Join Lee Dispatches -Battle of Chancellorsville— Withdraw from Suffolk An impertinent Note — Court of Inquiry Asked for and Refused — Possible Result Had Longstreet Obeyed Orders— Two Dispatches to Longstreet — Orders to Report to Gen. Johnston 159

CHAPTER XIII. Leave Petersburg for Jackson, Miss. — Visit Home — My Division Composed of the Brigades of Gens. Maxey, Evans, and McNair — Extraordinary Correspondence between Gen. Johnston and President Davis — Movements to Attack Grant at Vicksburg Fall of Vicksburg— Retreat to Jackson —Siege of Jackson Visit Home Negro Troops Surround the House — Narrow Escape -Vandalism — Johnston takes command of the Army of Tennessee Polk in command of Army of Mississippi — A Court of Inquiry That Was Not Held -My Division at Meridian — President Davis Jackson Burned -Sherman's Advance on Meridian — Ordered to Mobile— Polk Crossing Tombigbee River He is Slow to Move Go to Demopolis— Mr. Founier — Sent to Lauderdale — Tuscaloosa — Montevallo--Reach Rome — Fight at Rome Join Gen. Johnston at Cassville L78

CHAPTER XIV. Cassville The Line of Battlw — Hood's Line Not Enfiladed History of That Confederenc — Two Lieutenant Generals Invite Their Commander to a Council of War — Johnston obliged to Fall Back -We cross the Etowah River Dallas New Hope Church Constant Fighting — Rain. Rain Death of Lieut. Gen. Polk Battle of the Latimer House -My Division Occupies Little and Big Kennesaw Mountains The Battle Incidents of the Battle Confederates Save Wounded Union Soldiers from Burning Kennesaw During Night Bombardment- Col. Martin's Noble Conduct— The Irony of Fate -Maj. Poten and French Soldier 196

CHAPTER XV. Our Army Falls Hark from Kennesaw Confederate "Rebel Yell" Occupy Works on the Chattahoochee River A. I. Stewart Appointed Lieutenant General— Assumes Command of the Army of Mississippi Texas Brigade Fight to Obtain Tools We Cross the Chattahoochee Arrival of Gen. B. Bragg Gen. Johnston Relieved — President Davis's Remark about Relieving Johnston from Command Johnston's Policy versus Hood's Battle of Peachtree Creek We Occupy Atlanta Battle of Atlanta S. D. Lee Assigned to Command of Hoods Corps— Gen. Ector Wounded Capt. Ward Killed— Battle of July 28, L864 I Apply to Be Relieved from Serving with Hood Gen. M. Jeff Thompson Condition of the Camps of United States Troops— Evidence of the Terrible Fire of Small Arms— Evacuation of Atlanta Jonesboro and Lovejoy's Station. . 212

CHAPTER XVI. From Lovejoy's to Lost Mountain Big Shanty Acworth Destroying Railroad— In the Rear of Sherman situation of the Two Armies- Orders to Destroy the Etowah River Bridge — To Fill Up the Railroad Cut at Allatoona Hood Not Aware that Allatoona Was Fortified and Garrisoned March to Allatoona Summons to Surrender No Answer— Gen. Corse's Report Erroneous The Fortifications- Strength of Forces Equalization of Forces Some Federal Dispatches The Battle Corse's Account Col. Ludlow's Description—Desperate Fighting The .Main Line Captured— Enemy Driven into an Interior Fort — Dispatches from Gen. Armstrong Respecting Movements of the Enemy at Big Shanty— Withdraw to Avoid Being Surrounded by Converging Forces— Corse's Dispatch to Sherman — Provisions— Confederates Three Days and Nights without Rest or Sleep — Pass by the Enemy— Evangelist P. V. Bliss Writes the (Gospel) Hymn. "Hold the Fort "- Hood and His Erroneous Publications in His Book — His Admirations for Corse— My Admirations for the Confederates— -The Soldier's Grave— The Lone Grave—Lieut. (Jen. A. P. Stewart's Note in Regard to This Account of the Battle 223

CHAPTER XVII. Return from Allatoona — Hood's Department— Cross the Coosa River — Devastation around Rome— Rome Burned — Garrison of Resaca Refuses to Surrender— Capture of the Seventeenth Iowa Regiment at Tilton — Dalton Taken — Dug Gap — Dinner of Roasting Ears— Supper— Captured Officers are Jolly Good Fellows — Gadsden — Encampment at Mrs. Sanson's — Her Daughter a Guide for Gen. Forrest when He Captured Gen. Streight — Cross the Black Warrior River and Sand Mountains — Decatur — Some Fighting at Decatur — Gen. Beauregard with Hood — Beautiful Valley of the Tennessee made Desolate by War — Tuscumbia — Dreary March to Columbia, Rain and Snow — Stewart's and Cheatham's Corps Cross Duck River en Route to Spring Hill — Hood Slept — Schofield Passed By — Pursue Schofield to Franklin — Battle of Franklin — Incidents — Remarkable Order for a Second Assault at Night — Losses in My Two Brigades — Exchange of Prisoners Stopped 285

CHAPTER XVIII. March to Nashville — Cold Weather — Partial Investment of the City- Leave of Absence — Turn the Command Over to Brig. Gen. C. W. Sears — Battle of Nashville — Hood Not Physically Able for the Duties of a Commander in Want of All Supplies — Marshal Saxe — Mulai Malek — Going to Nashville a Failure: Could Not Be Otherwise Leave for Columbus, Ga. — Marriage to Mary Fontaine Abercrombie — Go to Meriwether County to Avoid Wilson's Raid — Robbing in Columbus — Adventures of My Orderly — Yankees Raid the Houses Gen. A. Had No Pies — Gens. Lee and Johnston Surrender — Terms Thereof— War with the Musket Ends 302

CHAPTER XIX. Aspect of the Country at Termination of the War — The Returned Confederate Soldier — Carobaggers — Lincoln's Vow — His Proclamation Concerning Confiscation of Slaves — How the Slaves Were Legally Liberated — Lincoln Murdered — Johnson President — His Thirst for Vengeance —"Treason" to Be Made Odious — Grant Declared That the Paroles Must Not Be Violated— Cost of a Bill of Dry Goods in Confederate Money in 1864— Leave Columbus for Greenville, Miss. —Desolate Home — The Good Israelite — Return to Columbus — I Go with Mrs. French to Mississippi — Traveling Incognito a Failure — Journey to New York in 1865 — Incidents of My Mother and Child When They Went North — Home Confiscated — Edward Couper's Kind Ad No One Would Touch Mother's Trunks — Copy of a Contract in 1865, Whereby I Obtained Funds— People under Espionage at the North Return to the Plantation — Northern Plan to Terminate the War 310

CHAPTER XX. Freedmen's Bureau — Gen. O. O. Howard. Commissioner— Platform for Reconstruction — Ironclad Oath — Natural Rights of Man — Civil Rights — Negroes Made Citizens — Persecution — Agents of Freedmen's Bureau — Personal Experience — Negro Justices Some Trials — Judge Shackelford— Secret Societies— William A. Sharkey— Gov. Adelbert Ames— Sheriff Webber — Taxes — Board of Levee Commissioners Dismissed — Religious Negroes — Bishop Wilmer — Prayers for the President — Shotgun Election — Hegira — Carpetbaggers — Indissoluble Union — Indestructible States— We Were a Conquered Nation — Reconstruction Only a Definition for Deeds Done — Strength of Respective Armies 328

APPENDIX.

Some Statistics of the War 353
Percentage Killed and Wounded in Late Wars 355
Slave Owners in the Confederate Army 355
Prison Deaths and Prisoners 357
The Authority to Tax 358
Cost of the War 359
Naval Power of the United States 359
Names, Rank, and Positions of Officers on My Staff 359
Government in Louisiana, 1875-76 360
Violation of Paroles 365
Cassville 367
Slavery Proclamation and Confiscation Act 383
Indenture 385
Our Unknown Dead 402