

Brown, John A. and Isa Brown. Dear Isa, Dear Johna: The Civil War Correspondence of One of Ohio's Hundred Days' Men, First Sergeant John A. Brown, 148th Ohio National Guard. Edited by Natalie H. Lee. Dallas, Tex.: Natalie H. Lee, 1998.

148th Ohio National Guard

Soldier deaths, 27

West Virginia scenery, 27

Harpers Ferry, 37

News of family at home, 44

Washington, capitol, 49

Very down on his colonel, 57

Soldiers' rest, food, 57

Farm problems, 64

Overland campaign, 69ff

Fears of her brother falling in battle, 81

Petersburg, 83ff

Letters, 93, 99

Soldier life, idleness, 93

Food, 94

Measles, 103

Bermuda Hundred, 111ff

Thoughts of home, 111

Vallandigham, 112

Alcohol, 112

Food, 112-13

Ill soldiers, 113

Blackberries, black camp servant, 117

Food, 123

Benjamin Butler, Confederate deserters, 128

Illness, 133

Letters, 134

Soldier, good death, 135

Election of 1864, Lincoln, blacks, 144

Death at home, 149

Horse sold, 163

Soldier death, body sent home, 173

False news about health sent home, 177

Explosion at City Point, deaths, 193

History of the regiment, 201-4