

Clark, Walter. The Papers of Walter Clark. edited by Aubrey Lee Brooks and Hugh Talmage Lefler. 2 vols. Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 1948.

Volume 1

Religion, 8-9

Election of 1860, 41-42

North Carolina secession convention election, 44

Southern flag, 44

Yankee prisoners in Richmond, 54-55

Guns, 56-57

Peace prospects, 57

Prayer meeting, religion, 58

Drunken officers, 58-59

North Carolina state convention, 60

Civilian morale, 65

Thomas J. Stonewall Jackson, 65

Zebulon Vance, 66

Seven Pines battle, 71-72

Drewry's Bluff, Seven Days, 73-74

Death, religion, conversion, 72-73

Uniform, 75

School, duty, war, army, 77

Antietam, 79-81

Mother, duty, religion, 81-82

Small Pox, 84

Adjutant duty, routine, 85-87

Prices, 89

Health, 91

Deprivation, 93

Wartime destruction, 93

Slaves, Yankees, runaway, 94

Yankee depredations, 97

Fredericksburg, 98

Conscription of overseer, 101

Religion and morals, 101-2

Shoes, 102-3

Soldiers and exposure, damp, hard condition, 103

Class resentment, 106

*Army and character, 106-7

Alcohol, 107

Theophilus Holmes, 114

Food and cooking, 116, 117, 120-21

Vance, Holden, and 1864 governor's election, 118

Women and marriage, 123-24

Religion, prayer, morale, 123

Women, 123-24

Immigration, 123

Peace rumors, Britain and U.S. going to war rumors, 133
Religion, 134
Morale, religion, prayers, 135
Bentonville, 136
Enemy depredations, 137
*Speculators, 138
*Slavery, 138
*Morale, 139-40
*Black troops, 140