

Talbot, Edith Armstrong, Samuel Chapman Armstrong: A Biographical Study. New York: Doubleday, Page, 1904.

Williams College routine, student, 47ff
War is all the talk, 51-52
Williams students drilling, governor Andrews, 54-55
New York's demoralizing influences, 59
Commissioned a captain, 64, 68-69
Motivations for enlistment, 64-65
Troop transport by railroad, 67
Harpers' Ferry, retreating troops, pp. 70-71
Maryland campaign, surrender of Harpers Ferry, 71ff
Prisoner, 73ff
Stonewall Jackson, 74
Treated well by rebels, bounties, uncertain what Union soldiers fighting for, 75
Camp Douglas, 78-79
Railroad trip to Washington, 80-81
Women visit hospitals, enlistment motives, 83
Emancipation Proclamation and cause of war, 84-85
Gettysburg, 89-95
Black troops, 98-99, 101
Burial of a black soldiers, struggle for freedom, 102-3
Christmas, 103--4
Neatness in camp, 105-6
Women teaching the black soldiers, 109-10
Duty, human liberty, 110-11
Petersburg, 112ff
Fraternization, slavery and Union, burial truce, 116-17
Fort Gilmer, 118-19
Black troops, 118-19
Appomattox, 120-21