

McCarthy, Carlton. Detailed Minutiae of Soldier Life in the Army of Northern Virginia, 1861-1865. Richmond: Carlton McCarthy and Company, 1882.

Richmond Howitzers, Private

Offers a voice from the ranks, 1-2

Nature of the Confederate soldier, 2-3

Obstacles for the Confederate soldier, disadvantages, 3-8

Characteristics of the Confederate soldier, 8-10

Father's letter, a defensive war, health, obedience, Christianity, associate with good men, pray before going into battle, win others to Christ, 10-15

Books, clothing, 16-17

Haversack, 17-18, 23

Mess, 18-19

Soldiers overequipped early on, threw many things away, 19-20

Clothing, uniform, 20-22

Washing, 22-23

Arms, revolvers, 23-24

Gloves, 24

Tents, 25

Camp slaves, 25-26

Wagon trains, 26-27

Important to serve as a private early in the war, officers, 29-30

Romantic suffering, expected frequent combat, 30-32

Romance about a Confederate whipping several Yankees, 32

Wounds, 32-33

Short war, 33-34

Weakness of Yankees as fighters, 34-35

Fear that would be over before being in a battle, 35

Bond of brotherhood with officers weakened, 36-37

Despising conscripts, 37

Election of officers ended, appointment, 38

Soldier rather fight than submit to discipline, 39

Marching, discomfort, shoes, 41

Straggler, 54

Rations, cooking, food, 56-

Foraging, 59-62

Sutlers, 63

Muskrat, 71

Sources of comfort, food, pork, beef, coffee, tobacco, 74-76

Sleep, 76-77

Bathing, 77-78

Mail, letters, 78

Winter quarters, houses, bunks, chimney, 80-85

Fire, wood, 85-86

Food sent to camp, 88

Barber, shave, 89

Family visits, 90
Preaching in camp, 91
Furlough, 92
Soldier sees little of a battlefield, 94
Skirmishers, wounded men, 96-97
Experience of battle, 98ff
Wilderness battle, 104-5, 107-8
March from Petersburg to Appomattox, 105-6
Gettysburg, 106-7
Fredericksburg, 107
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 109-11
Fort Harrison, 111-114
Fisher's Hill, 114
Sailor's Creek, 115
April 2, 1865 line, huts, 116-17
Picket firing, 118-21
Guardhouse, 118
Fort Clifton, 116ff
March to Appomattox, 125-55
Sailor's Creek, 135-42
March home after the war, 159-76
Robert E. Lee, 166
Soldiers and slaves after the war, 177-193
Memories of campfires, various characters and kinds of talk, 194ff
Young men and older men, character, 209
Religion in the army, 215-16