

Parramore, Thomas C., ed. When the Rebel Flag Fell. Murfreesboro, N.C.: Johnson Publishing, 1968.

Annie B. Darden's Diary

Sad state of country, North Carolina convention election, E

Lincoln inauguration, G

Northern fanatics, G

War, J

Secession election, Kenneth Rayner, K

Sabbath, fasting, humiliation, and prayer, N

Hertford Volunteers, 1

Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 1

Sabbath, vacant seats in church, 1

Sewing uniforms for soldiers, 2

July 4, 2

Food for departing volunteers, 2-3

Soldier death, 3

Manassas, Bull Run, many unfounded reports about who was on the battlefield, 4-5

Poem about Confederate volunteers, 5-6

Sewing for the soldiers, 6-7

Typhoid, 7, 10

Richard T. Barnes Diary, Hertford Volunteers,

Departure of troops, women, 11-12

Thomas D. Boone, History of Co. F., 1st North Carolina Infantry, Murfreesboro (N.C.) Index

January 11—April 26, 1895

Drill, 19-20

Fredericksburg hospital, women, 22

Food, 22-23

Cold railroad ride, 23-24

Guard duty, 24-25

Women in Richmond, 26

Artillery accident, 26-27

Seven Days, 27ff

Disease, 30-31

Conscription, 32-33

Antietam campaign, 35-44

Throwing knapsacks away in the heat, 44

Cold, blanket, 45

Death of a lieutenant, 45

View of Jackson's corps in the mountains, 46

D. H. Hill, 47

Fredericksburg refugees, 47-48

Battle of Fredericksburg, 48-49

Chancellorsville, 53-62

Allegheny Johnson, 65

Winchester, commissary stores, Ewell, 66

Gettysburg, 67-69
Mine Run, 71-74
Winter quarters, 74
Zebulon Vance, 75
Snowball fight, 76
Overland campaign, 77ff
Wilderness, 78-80
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 80-82
Jubal Early, 83-84
Wounded soldiers, Fisher's Hill, 88
Cedar Creek, 88-89
Petersburg, desertion, 90
Fraternization, 91
Appomattox, Lee surrender, 94-96
Media Evans, 4th North Carolina Infantry, War Recollections
Enlistment, 109
Union artillery fire, 111-12
Campaign in Shenandoah Valley, 1863, 116-21
Companies from Hertford County, North Carolina, 123-32