

Williams, James M. From That Terrible Field: Civil War Letters of James M. Williams, Twenty-first Alabama Volunteers. Edited John Kent Folmar. Tuscaloosa: University of Alabama Press, 1981.

Layout of camp, 1-3
Water, 4
Fort Gaines, 4ff
Patriotism and love of wife, 5
Bathing, 5
Objections to religious psalm singers, 13
Box with food, 15
Christmas, food, 15-16
Sentry and picket duty, 17-21
Complaints about officers and guard duty, 26
Whiskey, practical joke, 27
Commitment for the war, desire to go up in rank, duty, home, 30-31
Valentine's Day, 35
Women, Unionists in Memphis, 45
Fort Pillow, 43-46
Clothing, 49-50
Election, officers, 51-52, 56
Shiloh campaign, 52-55
Casualties, Shiloh, 53-54, 57, 62
Calm and danger, 57
Conscription, 58
Soldier pay, 59
Illness, disease, 61
P. G. T. Beauregard, 62
Medical discharged trumped up reasons, malingerers, 63, 71, 84
Clothes, 64-65, 72
Military appointments and elections, 67
Corinth, 70ff
Beauregard battle address, 77
Ill soldiers at train depot, 81
Food, 85
Burning cotton, 85-86
Letters, 91
Camp duties, routine, 92
Officers, his position based on merit, 93
Costs of victory, 94
Tooth, 97
Marching, whiskey, 98
Food, 100
Fort Morgan, 101-24
Fishing, 106
Fort Morgan, Battle of Mobile Bay, 136-41

Soldier vs. extortioner, 145-46

Mobile, building being searched for cotton, to be kept from Yankees, destruction, 155

Spanish Fort, 156-59