

Lee, Lawrence Singellton. Your Affectionate Brother: Letters of Confederate Soldier. Edited by Evelyn Nix Perry Burgin and Michele Evans Burnette. Alexander, N.C.: Blue/Gray Books, 2002.

Food, prices, 31

Victory at Ball's Bluff, 31

Soldier pay, needs money, 36

James Island, housing and insects, 38

God preserved life in battle, 39

Prayer meeting, 41

Little hope for foreign recognition, 43

Wounded in Valley of Virginia, 46

Chaplain Porter preaches often, sermon interrupted by dress parade, 47

Wilmington, North Carolina, 51-54

Chaplain Winkler good, 53, 55

Charleston, attacks by Federals, 56-

Food, 61

Clothing, shoes, prices, 63

Religious services, distribution of tracts, 63-65

Religious society, those professing religion, 64-65

Yankee shelling of Charleston, 70

Confederate bank stocks, Columbia, South Carolina, 72

Fort Sumter, killed, 72-82