

Young, J. P. The Seventh Tennessee Cavalry. Dayton, Oh.: Press of Morningside Bookshop, 1976.

7th Tennessee Cavalry, Co. A, Confederate
Secession in West Tennessee, 7
Forrest cavalry, officers, companies, 8-17
Officer elections, 17-18
Alarm over a few Iowa infantry, 18-19
Paducah, 20
Battle of Belmont, 21-22
Burning camps, 23
Union City, surprised by Federals, 24-26
Paducah, destruction of army stores, 27
Lockridge Mill, 28-29
Regimental reorganization and officers, 30-38
Derailing a train, prisoners, 40-41
Another attack on train guard, 41-43
Fight at Boliver, Tennessee, 43-47
Hatchie River, 47
Bridge over Coldwater burned, 48-49
Davis Bridge, 49
Fighting to save army wagon trains, 51
Federals shoot a Confederate prisoner, 51-53
Fight at Old Lamar, men taken prisoner, 53-55
Holly Springs, Coffeerville, 55-59
Fight at Davis's Mills, 59-60
Death of chaplain, 64-65
Drilling and scouting, 67-68
Coldwater, Lockhart's Mills, 68
Collierville, Sherman, 69-72
Nathan Bedford Forrest, 74ff
West Point, Mississippi, 75-76
Okolona, Prairie Mound, 77-81
West Tennessee, 82
Clash with Federal scouts, 83
Union City, 83-86
Tishomingo Creek, 89-93
A. J. Smith raid, 93-96
Harrisburg, 97-101
Capture of Athens, 103-5
Burned railroad bridge over Elk River, 105-6
Pulaski, 106-7
Columbia, captured blockhouses, 109
Crossing Tennessee River, 110-111
Johnsonville raid, gunboats, black soldiers, 113
Hood's Tennessee campaign, 117ff

Columbia, Spring Hill, 118
Franklin, 120
Nashville, 121-25
Retreat, 125ff
Greatly reduced condition of regiment, 130
Furlough, 130-32
Patriotic resolutions, 132-35
Tuscaloosa, Centreville, 135-36
Gainesville surrender, paroles, 136-39
Co. A., detached service, W. H. Jackson, Hood's Tennessee campaign, Spring Hill, 140ff
Murfreesboro, 146
Duck River, 147
Richland Creek, 148
Wilson's raid and surrender, 150-51
Roll of 7th Tennessee Cavalry, companies, 152