

Salter, William. The Life of James W. Grimes, Governor of Iowa, 1854-1858; A Senator of the United States, 1859-1869. New York: D. Appleton and Company, 1876.

Secession, 131ff
Wants Chase to become Secretary of the Treasury, 133
Crittenden compromise proposal, worries about northern compromise sentiment, 133
Tariff, 138
Lincoln's action on calling up troops and blockade unconstitutional but necessary; will oppose
Lincoln's remodeling of the army, 140-41
People excited and ask when a battle will take place, 141
Simon Cameron, 141-43
Coast survey, 143
Navy, 144
Rely on volunteers rather than an expanded regular army, 144-45
Navy, ironclads, 145-46
Bull Run, 146-47
Investigate loss of navy yards and Harpers Ferry, 147
Speech at Burlington, Iowa, August 17, 1863, public debt, national impatience, 148-50
Breckinridge, habeas corpus, problem of retrospectively approving Lincoln's actions, 150-52
Fessenden, finance, Frémont suspended, 152-53
Frémont and Cameron, 154-55
Fessenden, removal of Frémont, 155-56
Chase and the treasury, 156
Port Royal expedition, Samuel F. DuPont, 157-59, 168-70
Committee on the conduct of the war, investigation, 160
Inquiry about drunken officer at Bull Run, 160-61
Navy, 161-63
Senate responsible for delays in prosecuting the war, 163
Jefferson Davis and West Point, 163
Washington jail, 164-68
Ironclad steamboats, 170-71
Cumberland, Hampton Roads, Monitor, Merrimac, 171-73
Achievements of western navy, 173-83
Fort Donelson, General Charles F. Smith, 183-84
Grimes speech on surrender of slaves by the army, need to use slaves in the army, 184-93
Parker Pillsbury applauds Grimes speech, 193-94
Grimes says government needs a war policy, taxes, 194
Favors confiscation, 195
Wanted government to use black troops, 195
Alcohol, get rid of grog ration in the navy, 195-97
Channing sermon, Washington, 196
Welles and enlistment of blacks in the navy, 196
Robert Smalls, 196
Lincoln and the Hunter proclamation, 196-97
Stanton and danger to Washington, militia, 197
Admiral Foote, ordnance bureau, armory, Rock Island, 197-98

Navy, admiral rank, Marine Corps, 199
Senate, naval officers, alcohol, 200-203
Appointments of generals, need to limit number of generals, 203-5
Would approve more men but wanted to watch over management of the war, 205-6
Hospitals, brutish medical officers, 206
Army at the polls in Delaware, 207
Aid to Missouri to emancipate slaves, 207
Emancipation Proclamation, 208
West Point, 209-10
Naval academy, 210-12
Removal of naval yard from Philadelphia, 214-15
Specie, national banks, 214
National debt, 214-15
People in advance of administration for vigorous prosecution of the war, writes to Chase, Lincoln, summer of 1862 as a critical time, 215-16
Emancipation Proclamation, 217
Election, disgusted with generals and the administration, 217
1862 election results in Iowa, 217
Du Pont and Charleston, 218-19
Naval academy, 219-20
Letter of marque, 220-25
Investigating transport vessels on Banks expedition, Commodore Vanderbilt, 225-31
Opposed pay increase for civil officers, 232
Naval warfare, fortifications, 232
Pacific Railroad, gauge, 232-33
Institution of education of black youth in Washington, 233-34
Naval attack on Charleston, 235-37
Campaigning, 1863 elections, 238-39
Black troops, 240-43
Grimes opposed revising the rank of lieutenant general, 243-44
Wary of more pay for employees or Congress and any kind of government extravagance, 244
Subsidy for an international telegraph, 244-45
Frauds in Navy Department, 245-48
Naval academy, 249-51
Loss of gunboat Baron de Kalb, 251-52
Corruption, contracts, naval supplies, 252-54
Navy yard at Cairo, 254
Pacific Railroad bill, stock, 254-55
Cotton trade with Confederates, 255-57
Filling up the ranks in the army, commutation, substitutes, 257
Freedmen's Bureau, Sumner, 257-60
Accommodations in Washington, 260
Banks, Red River campaign, 260-61
Overland campaign, Wilderness, 261
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 262
Fear Army of the Potomac has not strategy, 262

Fessenden as Secretary of the Treasury, get rid of Chase's agents, 265-66
Defense of the northern frontier, 266-67
Military arrest of two Kentuckians, 267
Grimes speech on Wade motion to create a board of admiralty, 268-72
Prize law, naval committee, 272-73
Bill on enlarging Nevada boundaries, 273
Stone fortifications and ironclads, 273-76
Lincoln assassination, 278-79
Andrew Johnson, 279