

Custer, Elizabeth Bacon. The Civil War Memories of Elizabeth Bacon Custer. Edited by Arlene Reynolds. Austin: University of Texas Press, 1994.

Custer marriage proposal, marriage, 3, 6-8
Young and could not at first realize how awful the war was, 4
Deep grief of her father over the war, 4-5
Custer, 5
Her very limited domestic skills, 6
Custer family background, West Point, John A. Bingham, Benny Havens, 9-24
Furlough, 25
Assessment of Major Washington, Confederate officer, Washington memorabilia, later photograph, 25-31
Graduation to firing on Sumter, 27-28
General Rosser, 31-34
West Point, honeymoon trip, 35-43
Stevensburg in an ambulance, 44
Black camp cook, pampered by her, 45-48
Kilpatrick, 49-52
Horse, 51
Custer's command of troops, 53
Stevensburg headquarters, 54
Custer's staff, 54
Union prisoner, 55
Discipline, 56
Scouts, 57
Orders and military speech, 58
Much teasing from the officers, 59
Custer had trouble describing the great charges, 60
Writing reports, 60
Battle reports, 62
Camps, chimneys, 63
Dogs, 63-64
Contraband camp, 64
Slave loyalty, 65-66
Conversation with soldiers, 67
Winter quarters, 67
Music, bugler, band, 68
Dancing, 69-70
Officers wives, 72
On question of widows remarrying, 73
McClellan, 73-74
McClellan, Custer, reconnaissance for a ford, 75-76
Mary Ellen McClellan and daughter, 77
Arguments about McClellan. 78
Sherman, permissions to visit Custer, 79
Custer's wife, parting and reuniting, 80

Soldier dress, 82-84
White House reception, 85-86
Cavalry early in the war, 86-87
Lincoln and the soldiers, 87-88
Washington a sad city in Summer of 1864, 89
Wounded soldiers, 89-90
Armory Square Hospital, Surgeon, 91
Nurses, 91
Officers on the streets, 92-93
Women applying for government jobs, 93
Gloomy processions, 94
Women importuning congressmen, 95-96
Had to leave lodging because of disreputable reputation of the house, 96
Trip to the front, 98-99
Harpers Ferry, 100-1
Martinsburg, 101
Winchester, swollen dead horses, 101-2
German family in Virginia in 1864
Cedar Creek, Custer congratulatory order, 102-4
Custer surprises her in Newark, 104-6
Lincoln, 106-7
Horseback riding, officers' horses, pontoon bridges, 108-116
Custer's sense of humor, 116-17
Bugles, 119
Flag, 119-20
Winter camp, southern home, 123
Prisoners in the cellar, 124
Deserter executions, 124-25
Vanity of officers, 126
Troops review, 127
General Schoomacher, 128-29
General Pleasanton, 128-29
Lincoln second inauguration, inaugural ball, Lincoln, Mary Lincoln, 130-34
Stanton, 135
Flag, 135-36
Pursuit of Lee's army, 136-39
Appomattox, 140-45
City Point, Richmond, Sheridan, 147-53
Varina Davis, 147-49
Destruction of property in Virginia, marching to Washington, Sheridan, 154-58
Grant Review, 159-64
Impact of war, alcohol, Sanitary Commission, 165-69