

Hazelton, William Cross. Army of the Potomac: The Civil War Letters of William Cross Hazelton of the Eighth Illinois Cavalry Regiment. Edited by Peter G. Beidler. Seattle, Wash.: Coffeetown Press, 2013.

*Enlistment, duty, 17-18
Christian officers, 18
Women, flag presentation, 20-21
Chaplain, religious services, 27
Skirmishers, 28
Eager for battle, 30
Shooting incident, 33
McClellan, 47, 46
Hatred, Union victory, 48
Heaven, Yankees, 49
*Corruption, 51
Peninsula campaign, 58
Fair Oaks, Seven Pines, 62-63
Food, 66
Morale, 69
Heat and illness, 70-71
Chaplain, sermon, 71-72, 83-84
Fraternization, music, 75
Antietam, 76-81
Lincoln, 81-82
Maryland Unionists, 78-79
Lincoln administration, 88
Fredericksburg, 90ff
McClellan, home front complainers, 91
Food, foraging, 94
Slave, camp servant, 95
Slaves, emancipation, helpless slaveholders, 76
Box, 105-6
Guerrillas, 108-9
Chancellorsville, 116-17
Conversation with a Confederate slaveholder, 119-20
Brandy Station, 123-24
Retreat from Gettysburg, wounded Confederates, 131-32
News, 133-34
Copperheads, conscription, 134-35
Gettysburg, 134-35
Love, 136-37
Furloughs, reenlistment, 140-41, 153-54
Conscription, substitutes, 150-51
Edwin V. Sumner, 150-51
Ambulances, wounded, 155
Accidental shooting, 159-60

Soldiers, slavery and God, abolition, 167-68
Scouting, 181
Mosby, 181, 184
Women, riding horses in pantaloons, 189
Alcohol, 190
Guerrillas, 191-92
Lincoln assassination and pursuit of Booth, 193-98