

Author Surname Beginning with “E”

Collection created by Dr. George C. Rable

Documents added as of August 2021

Eberhart, James W. "Diary of Salisbury Prison by James W. Eberhart." Edited by Florence C.

McLaughlin. Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine 56 (July 1973): 211-51.

Sergeant, Co. G, 8th Pennsylvania Reserves, Co. G, 191st Pennsylvania Infantry
Weldon Railroad, Petersburg, taken prisoner, 213-15

Richmond, Libby prison, food, 216

Salisbury Prison, 216ff

Rations, food, 217ff

Tent, 218

Prisoner shot, 218

Prisoners counted, 218

Prisoner exchange, 220

War news, 221

Rumors, 224

Disease and mortality, 230

Religious service, 230-31

Diarrhea, dysentery, 231

Oath, Confederate army, 233

Election of 1864, 233-35

Minister and woman, religious service, 237

Deaths, 240

Christmas, 245

Parole, exchange, rations, 247

Edwards, Mary Roy Dawson. "I Saw Him First in Lexington, Va." Civil War Times 47

(October 2008): electronic, no pagination.

Clement Daniels Fishburne on Stonewall Jackson

First met Jackson at a bookstore in Lexington, Virginia

Jackson socially stiff

Winchester

General Patterson

Joseph E. Johnston

Bull Run, Manassas

Speedy marching

Elliott, Fergus. "Fergus Elliott's Savannah." Civil War Times Illustrated 14 (June 1975): 10-16.

109th Pennsylvania Infantry, Co. G., sergeant

New Year's Savannah, 11

Food prices, 12

Troops reviews, 13

Wilmington, Fort Fisher, 14
Lecture on pluck, John W. Geary, 14-15
Prostitutes, black and white soldiers alike, 15
Black woman, 16
Sabbath, 16

Ely, Robert B. "This Filthy Ironpot." American Heritage 19 (February 1968): 46-51, 108-111.

Lieutenant, Manhattan
Discomfort on the ironclad, 47ff
Key West, 49
July 4, 50
No drill, 50
Alcohol, 108
Mobile, Fort Morgan, 108
Battle of Mobile, 108
Fort Gaines surrender, 110

Ettinger, Amos A. "An Allentonian in Florida during the Civil War." Lehigh County Historical Society Proceedings 12 (1939): 50-80.

1st Pennsylvania Infantry, 50
Lutheran war sermon, 51
Trains with soldiers and horses, 53
Soldiers return, speeches, 53
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 54
Election, Democrat of doubtful loyalty, 55
New York, 56
47th Pennsylvania Infantry, 57
Beaufort, picket duty, 57
Food, prices, 57-58
Key West, 58ff
Accusation that regiment opposed Lincoln, 62
David Hunter and black soldiers, 62
Conscription, bounties, 64
Conscription, 66
Black soldiers, 67
Lieutenant, 2nd Florida Cavalry, 69
Major, alcohol, murdered a sentinel, 70
Election of 1864, soldier vote, 70-71
Still in Florida at war's end, mustering out, 73ff

Documents added as of August 2019

English, William L. "On Lookout Mountain." Knickerbocker 63 (January 1864): 49-51.

101st Illinois Infantry
Left behind ill, visit to Lookout Mountain, 49ff
Largely geographical

Documents added as of July 2019

Early, Jubal Anderson. "The Advance Upon Washington in July 1864." Southern Magazine 8 (1871): 750-63.

Criticizes John Esten Cooke's account of the campaign toward Washington, 751ff
Defends pace of his march toward Washington, 752
Advanced to Lynchburg to stop David Hunter, 753
Pursued Hunter for three days, 754
Many soldiers without shoes, 754
Lee gave him discretion on crossing Potomac, 754-55
Monocacy, 755-56
Heat and dust on march, 756
Learned of troops reaching Washington from Grant's army, 758
Federals had frightened by his force, 758
Includes documents on Federal strength, 758
Blasts critics who know nothing, 762-63

Documents added as of June 2019

Early, Jubal Anderson. "Popular Errors in Regard to the Battles of the War." Land We Love 6
(February 1869): 265-77.

Manassas, errors of various writers 265ff
Why Confederates could not advance on Washington, 273ff

Edwards, Elisha J. "Before Grant Won His Stars." McClure's Magazine 5 (June 1895): 38-44.

Chetlain's recollections of Grant in Galena, 38
Clerk in father's leather and hardware store, 38-39
Grant's enlistment, 39-40
Grant chairs war meeting, 40
Showed executive ability in his getting men equipped, 40-41
Governor Yates, 41-42
Grant as a clerk under the adjutant general, 42
Grant's services refused by four states, 43
Colonel and promotion to general, 43-44

Elam, W. C. "A Sign in the Heavens." Blue and Gray 3 (1894): 264.

Chancellorsville, 264
Woolfolk's Battery, 264
Sky lighted in presence of Jackson and other generals, 264
Wounding of Jackson recalled the sky, 264

Ellis, Hiram. "A Terrible Night on the Picket Line." Maine Bugle 2 (1895): 204-7.

2nd United States Cavalry
Sent into Maryland for supplies, 204
Bombproof, 204-5
Picket duty, 205ff
Mistaken picket firing, 205-7

"An Escape from Johnston's [sic] Island." Southern Magazine 11 (1872): 535-44.

Bribing sentinels, 535
Tunnels, 535
Climbing over a wall, ladder, 536
Frostbite, 537
Stolen horses, 537
Warmed up, food, 538
One prisoner caught on train to Detroit, 539
Many people turned them away, 539
Trying to escape to Canada on the ice, 541
Had reached Canada in four days, 542
Vallandigham, 543
Returned home to North Carolina on a blockade runner, 544

Documents added as of February 2019

Eagleton, Ethie M. Foute. "'Stray Thoughts': The Civil War Diary of Ethie M. Foute Eagleton." Edited by Elvie Eagleton Skipper and Ruth Gove. East Tennessee Historical Society's Publications 40-41 (1968, 1969): 132-37, 116-28.

Christmas, 132
Soldiers comes home, 133
Peaching, 135
Kill Lincoln, 133-34
Andrew Johnston, 135
Yankees, black funeral, 136
Stonewall Jackson, 116
Yankees, closed churches, 117

Yankees seize church, 119
Husband beaten, 119
Unionists, 120
Women and separated families, 124
William G. Brownlow, she is accused of being a spy, 125

Earle, Charles Warrington. "Libby Prison Life and Escape." Maine Bugle Campaign 3 (1896):
128-53.

96th New York Infantry
Chickamauga, 128
Taken prisoner, 130
Marching, Confederate soldier treatment, 130
Railroad journey, food, 130-31
Libby Prison, 131ff
Prison described, 132ff
Religious meetings, McCabe, 133
Neal Dow, 133
Slaves work in prison, 134
Roll call, deception, 134-35
Food, boxes, 135
Amusements, 136
Food prices, 136
Prison minstrels, 136-37
Discipline, disloyalty, 137-38
Christmas, 138
Sleeping accommodation, 138-39
Little boys fall through ice and drown in James River, 139
Letters, 140
Exchange rumors, 140
Escape, tunnel, 140-153
John Hunt Morgan and Neal Dow, 141-42

Early, Jubal Anderson. "Stonewall Jackson at Fredericksburg, a Letter from Jubal A. Early."
Historical Magazine ser. 2, vol. 8 (Morrisania 1870): 32-35.

Jubal Early, Fredericksburg, Jackson, night attack, denies that Jackson favored it Eberhart, James W. "Diary of a Salisbury Prison by James W. Eberhart." Edited by Florence C.

McLaughlin. Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine 56 (July 1973): 211-51.

191st Pennsylvania Infantry
Petersburg, 213ff

Taken prisoner, Confederate steals his rubber blanket, 215
Libby Prison, 216ff
Food, 217
Exchange rumors, 220
Diarrhea, 223
Food, rations, 223
Escape from railroad car, 227
Salisbury prison, 227ff
Food, ration, 229, 234
Lice, 229
Prisoner shot by guard, 230
Oath and volunteering for Confederate army, 233
Election of 1864, 233
Religious service, hymn singing, 237
Fight, 240
Bones painful, very thin, 241
Washing, lice, 245
Paroled, black soldiers, 248

Eddy, Valora D. "Diary of Valora D. Eddy, 4th Corporal Company A, Forty-Fourth Regiment

N.Y.S.V." Fifth Annual Report of the New York Bureau of Military Statistics (1868):

631-61.

44th New York Infantry, Co. 4, Fourth Corporal
Confederate deserters, 631
Smithsonian, 634
Overland Campaign, 636ff
Wilderness, casualties, 637
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 637-38
Cold Harbor, 641
Picket duty, 642
Taken prisoner, 642
Transported, 642ff
Rumors of prisoner exchange, 645
Andersonville, 644ff
Trading food, 645
Raiders, 646ff
July 4, 647
Lawrence, South Carolina, 653
Oath, 654
Soap, 654
Florence, South Carolina, 655
Election of 1864, 655
Thanksgiving, 656

Andersonville, 658-661

Edgcomb, George. "'Dear Brother Isaac...'" Letters from George Edgcomb, 15th New York

Engineers." Edited by Edmund Raus. Military Images 8 (May-June 1987): 14-15.

15th New York Engineers

Pontoon bridges across the James River, 14-15

Grant, 14

Enlistment, conscription, 14-15

Election of 1864, Lincoln, Fremont, McClellan, 15

Edrington, John Catesby. "Letters of John C. Edrington." Northern Neck Historical Magazine

11 (1961): 1019-22.

9th Virginia Cavalry, Sergeant

Chancellorsville, 1019

Soldier life, food, 1019

Slaves and Yankees, 1021

Edrington, William E. "True Glory." Blue & Gray Magazine 7 (April 1990): 45.

54th Massachusetts Infantry

Attack on Fort Wagner, 45

Robert Gould Shaw, 45

Edwards, William L. "Civil War Letters of William L. Edwards, A Soldier in Hood's Texas

Brigade." Edited by Ann Lee (Clark) Dempster and Homer L. Kerr. Texas Military History 7 (Spring 1968): 5-26.

Co. K, 4th Texas Infantry

New Orleans, 7-8

Praises men in his company, 8

Yankee prisoners, 11

Disease, hospital, 13

Peninsula campaign, 15ff

Asks for prayers, needs Christian strength, 17

Death, Gaines Mill, amputation, 21-22

Egan, Patrick. "Chief [Patrick] Egan's War Record Written for State Archives." Journal of the American Irish Historical Society 8 (1909): 17-82.

3rd Rhode Island Artillery (Heavy)
Enlistment, 177
Voyage to Port Royal, seasickness, 178
Olustee, 179-80
Foraging a cow, 181-82

Eggleston, E. T. "Excerpts from the Diary of E. T. Eggleston." Edited by Edward Noyes.

Tennessee Historical Quarterly 17 (December 1958): 336-58.

Co. G., 1st Mississippi Artillery
Atlanta campaign, 340ff
Hardee, Resca, 341
Race between Johnston and Sherman for Atlanta, 342
Battery shelling and killing Yankees, 345
Allatoona, 351
Disastrous 1864, 358

Eidson, William G. and Vincent Akers, eds. "Democratic Attitudes in Johnson County during the Civil War Era: A Look at the Demaree Papers." Indiana Magazine of History 70

(March 1974): 44-69.

Kentucky, 54
Wild Cat battle, 56-57
Conscription, substitutes, 60
Election of 1864, Lincoln, McClellan, 60
End of the Civil war, 61
Lincoln assassination, Booth, 61-63

Elby, Robert B. "this filthy ironpot." American Heritage 19 (February 1968): 46-51, 108-111.

No pagination in digitized version
Lieutenant, USS Manhattan
Mobile Bay
June 30, 1864 Sea sickness, uncomfortable ship
July 1—dirty ship, heat
July 2 ff Key West
July 3, Fort Taylor, yellow fever
July 12-13—fire on the ship
July 15, alcohol
July 17 homesickness
July 20 Mobile, Fort Morgan
August 4-5—battle of Mobile Bay
August 7-8—surrender of Fort Gaines

August 8-25 Fort Morgan, torpedoes, surrender of the fort

Eldridge, Daniel. "The Military History of Daniel Eldridge, Written by Himself." Edited by

John H. Lindenbusch. Historical New Hampshire 19 (Winter 1964): 3-49.

Private, 3rd New Hampshire
Enlistment, 7
Food, 8-9
Soldier pay and reviews, 9-10
Guard duty, 10
Washington, 14ff
Rain, flooding in camp, 15-16
Selling things, 16 et passim
Fight in camp, hot coffee, 17
Guard house, 17-18
Port Royal, 22ff
Slaves sold them food, 25-26
Wells, water, 26
Sutlers, trading goods, 28
Letters, 28
Carved pipes, 29
Major reading newspapers aloud for troops, 32
Sabbath, 32-33
Letter, hair, 37
Savannah, 36ff
Complaint by slave woman, dance, 38-39
Counterfeit Confederate money, 42

Ellen. "My Darling Charlie." By Monte Akers. North-South Trader's Civil War 18 (1991): 18-25.

Travel for a woman, partying, 18
Love letter, 19
Photograph, 20
Wedding, 20

Elliot, Charles D. "Port Hudson." Historical Leaves 7 (October 1908): 49-61.

New York Light Artillery, 17th Battery
Algiers, Louisiana, 52
Mapping Mississippi River, 53
Port Hudson campaign, 54ff
Advance on Confederates and their disorderly flight, 55-56
Pneumonia, 57

Battle of Plains Store, 58
Grierson, 59
Siege of Port Hudson, 59ff

Elliott, Francis Marion. "Dear Friends": The Civil War Letters of Francis Marion Elliott, A

Pennsylvania Country Boy." Edited by Peter C. Boag. Pittsburgh History 72 (Holiday 1989): 193-98.

Pope orders in Virginia, 193
Desertion, 193ff
Conscription, 194
Wounded, 195
Ream's Station, 195-96
McClellan, election of 1864, abolition, 196
Boynton Plank Road, Petersburg, sight of dead, 196

Elliott, John. "Civil War Letters of Lieutenant John Elliott." Edited by John Barnwell. Georgia

Historical Quarterly 65 (Fall 1981): 203-39.

1st Georgia Infantry
Joseph E. Brown, New York, South Carolina, 205
Jefferson Davis, 205
Bloodless revolution, 205
College student, 206ff
Savannah is safe, 207
Flag presentation, 208
Death, funeral, burial, 209
Secessionville, 210
Fort Boggs and Fort Brown, 212
Yellow Fever, 216
Books, 218
Hardee, evacuation of Savannah, artillery, infantry, 223-24
Sherman in South Carolina, still has hope, Johnston, Lee, Jefferson Davis, 225-26
Morale, 226-27
England, European intervention, 227
Apocalyptic analysis, Bible dates and numbers, 227-28
Positions of Sherman's corps, 229
Charleston to be held, 230
Reading, books, 231

Elliott, Robert Gaston. "A Look at Early Lawrence: Letters from Robert Gaston Elliott."

Edited by Carolyn Berneking. Kansas Historical Quarterly 43 (Autumn 1977): 282-96.

No copperheads in Kansas, 290
Recruiting soldiers, black and white, 290
Rumors of guerrilla invasion and attack on Lawrence, 290
Quantrill and sack of Lawrence, 291-92
Kansas politics, legislature, James Lane, 292-93

Ellis, E. John. "A Louisiana Prisoner-of-War on Johnson's Island, 1863-1865." Edited by Martina Buck. Louisiana History 4 (Summer 1963): 233-42.

16th Louisiana Infantry, Captain
Secession, 234
Johnson's Island, 235ff
Letters of various family members 236
Washing day, 237
Cooking, 237
Cooked cat, 237-38
Lice? 238
Tobacco, 238
Rumors, 239
Devastation of war, 240
Lincoln, second inauguration, 241
Lincoln assassination, 241
Oath, 242

Ellis, Richard N., ed. "The Civil War Letters of an Iowa Family," Annals of Iowa 39 (Spring 1969): 561-86.

15th Iowa Infantry
Cooking, food, 563
Shiloh, 567ff
Soldier pay, 569
Corinth, 569
Father should not enlist, too old, 570-71, 577
Soldier duties, 571-72
Graves, 574
Food, 575
Soldier wife, 575
Death of husband, 578-79
Lorenzo Thomas, black troops, 582
Straving people in Vicksburg, 583
Duty, Grant, Sherman, copperheads, 585

Ellis, Volney. “‘An Experience in Soldier’s Life’: The Civil War Letters of Volney Ellis, Adjutant, Twelfth Texas Infantry Walker’s Texas Division, C.S.A.” Edited by Thomas

W. Curtrier. Military History of the Southwest 22 (Fall 1992): 109-72.

12th Texas Infantry, Captain

Not eager for battle, 117

Soldier pay, bounty, 119

Court martial, 120

Fears dying away from home, 121

Arkansas Post, 121-23

Snow, 123

Emancipation Proclamation, 124

Wife at home, loneliness,, trouble, mistreatment by relatives, debts, 125-26

Duty, battle for liberty, 127

Officers, 127

Food prices, 128-29

Course of the war, 129

Soldier pay, 130

Letters, 132

Fall of Vicksburg, 133-134

Possible abandonment of Louisiana, speculation in slaves, 135

Rumors, 136

Reading material, 136

Morals in the army, 136

Soldier pay, 138

Furlough, duty, 139-40

Does not want wife to become a refugee, slave danger, 144

Has faith in ability of Texans through back the Federals, 144

Food, war news, 145

Fate of Confederate will be decided this year, 147

Anticipates spring campaign, 149

Red River campaign, 150ff

Mansfield and Pleasant Hill, 153-56

Casualties, 157

Deserter, 159

Confederate money, 160-61

Measles, 162

Destruction in Louisiana, women and corruption, 163

Confidence, morale, Lee, 163

Election of 1864, Lincoln, 171

Ellison, Joseph M. "Joseph M. Ellision: War Letters (1862)." Edited by Calvin J. Billman.

Georgia Historical Quarterly 48 (June 1964): 229-38.

15th Alabama Infantry
Jackson's Valley campaign, 229-33
Seven Days campaign, Yankee demoralization, 233-34
Second Bull Run, wife's brother had a finger shot off, 235
Physical and mental breakdown, 235ff

Endicott, William. "Reminiscences of Seventy-Five Years." Proceedings of the Massachusetts

Historical Society Third Series 46 (November 1912): 208-33.

Lincoln, 225
Antietam, 225
Vicksburg, Lincoln, Grant, 225-26
National currency, money, greenbacks, Jay Cooke, gold, Fessenden, 226-230
Lincoln reelection, 1864, 232

Erwin, Edward Jones. "Fatherly Advice on Secession: Edward Jones Erwin to His Son at Davidson College, 1860-61." Edited by John Inscoe. American Presbyterians 69

(Summer 1991): 97-109.

Morgantown, North Carolina, banker
Support for Constitutional Union ticket, Bell and Everett, on campus, 99
Election of Lincoln and secession, 101
Bell, Breckinridge, Democrats, need for southern unity, Presbyterian, 101
Stay in school, secession, 102-3
Secession, war prospects, coercion, subjugation, 103
Secession prospects in North Carolina, convention, 103-4
Washington peace conference, 103-4
Enlistment, becoming an officer, 104

Evans, Thomas H. "All Was Complete Chaos." Civil War Times Illustrated 6 (January 1968):

32-41.

12th United States Infantry
Pontoon bridge, 34
Second Bull Run, Manassas, 34
Fitz John Porter, 34
Pope, McDowell, 35-36
Bees, 37-38

Milroy, 38
Abandoning supplies, 41

Evans, Thomas H. "At Malvern Hill." Civil War Times Illustrated 6 (December 1967): 38-43.

12th United States Infantry
Seven Days, 38ff
Dead and wounded, horrors of battlefield, 41
July 4, 43

Evans, Thomas H. "'The Cries of the Wounded Were Piercing and Horrible!'" Civil War Times Illustrated 7 (July 1968):28-38.

12th United States Infantry
Fredericksburg campaign, 28ff
March to Fredericksburg, 28
Removal of McClellan, 29
Fitz John Porter, 29
Snow, cold, 30
Shell of Fredericksburg, 30
Sack of Fredericksburg, 35

Evans, Thomas H. "The enemy sullenly held on to the city." Civil War Times Illustrated 7 (April 1968): 32-40.

12th United States Infantry
Antietam campaign, 32ff
March, straggling, 32
Burial, 33
Appearance of the dead, 33
Picket duty, 38-39
Picket firing, 39

Evans, Thomas H. "'There is no use saying to dodge shot.'" Civil War Times Illustrated 6 (August 1967): 40-45.

12th United States Infantry
Careless soldiers, 41-42
Seven Days, 42ff
Zouaves, 43
Gaines' Mill, 42ff
Whiskey, 45

Ewing, Charles. "Sherman's March Through Georgia: Letters from Charles Ewing to His Father." Edited by George C. Osborn. Georgia Historical Quarterly 42 (September 1958): 323-27.

Casualties, 324