

Hayes, Rutherford Birchard. Diary and Letters of Rutherford Birchard Hayes. 5 vols.
Columbus: Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society, 1922-26.

Vol. 2

excitement of crisis, defend forts, no conquest, 3-4
Lincoln reception in Cincinnati, 4-6
Cincinnati election, Democrats, Know Nothings, 6
Kentucky and secession, 12
Union and slavery agitation, 13
Secession and war, 13-14
Democrats in Ohio, 15
Motives for enlistment, 17-18
Regimental officers, 23rd Ohio, 21-23
Enlistment and first days in camp, 26-28
Rosecrans, 24, 26, 30-31
Daily routine in camp, 28-30
Clothes and various items for camp, 33
Bull Run defeat, 40
Panic at Bull Run 42
John C. Fremont, 43
Western Virginia campaign, 45ff
Warm greeted on the way, 46
Enjoyable, healthy campaign, 48
Accidental shooting, 50
Lee and Henry Wise, 52-53
Shooting practice, 54
Hospital, 54-55
Holds court on various local offenses, 57
Western Virginia strategy, 58
Joseph Holt, 61
Guerrillas, 63-64, 70
War brings out the best and worst in the Virginians, 69
Accidental shooting, 72
Enjoys soldiering, 76-77
Marching, his kit, 81
Thieves drummed out of regiment, 83
Hard marches, 85
Confident of fighting in western Virginia, 92, 94
Calm in battle, 96
Don't give up, analogy of American Revolution, 101
Affection for 23rd Ohio, 101-2
Optimism about war and McClellan, 118

Suffering soldiers, Lincoln, 119-20
Armies and weather, 121-22
Soldier pay, 123
Soldier suffering exaggerated, 124
Disease, 126
McClellan, ambush, 127
Meaning, religion, 127-28
Disease, camp fever, 132
Whiskey, 133
Confederate motivation and morale, Lincoln, 136
Frightening newspaper stories, 140
Disease, typhoid, 141-42
Orderly soldiers, 142-43
Pities the women, 147
Young women, 152-53
Oath, 154
High prices charged by local for food, 156
Oath, food, Unionists, hungry, 159
Sending contrabands, former slaves to Ohio, 163
Mason and Slidell and possible war, 164-65
Birth of son, 165
Runaway slaves, Union men, 173-74
Drunk soldiers, 174
Contraband, black servant, 175
Tales of Cuba and Yankee cruelties to scare slaves, 175-76
Soldier thief, 180
Rebellion will be crushed rapidly, 182
Nat Turner, wartime insurrection, 190
Cameron, Welles, Holt, Stanton, rumors, 190
Burnside expedition, 191
Dreams of wife, 192
Poor people from slave states moving to free states, 196-97
Possibility of speedy end to the war, 200
Soldier marriage, money, 202
Generals' deaths, 203
Evacuation of Manassas, McClellan, 205
Enthusiasm for Fremont, 206
Union escapes from Confederates, 211-12
Guerrillas, Union soldiers burn houses, 212-13
Confederate conscription, evader, 213
McClellan, 213-14
McClellan and Fremont, 214
Food, 216
McClellan, 216
Confederate draft evaders, 217-18
Child curses Yankee, 218

Lincoln and gradual emancipation, 218-19
Confederate prisoners, 219
Drilling, scouts, 221
West Virginia election, constitution, 222
Whiskey, sutler, 225
Confederate harried by impressment welcome approaching Federals, 225
Shiloh, Ohio regiments, 227-28, 231-32, 234
Poker, 231
Rain and soldiers good humor, 232
John Letcher, 233
Princeton, Western Virginia, 238-48
Guerrillas, 241
Foraging, meat, 248
Hayes reports to Scammon in OR
Giles Court House battle, 262ff
Chaplain appointment, 268-69
Food shortage, 270
Number of troops and threat in western Virginia, Cox, 273-74
Will come out of the war safely, excitement of fighting, 280
Rifled muskets, 284
McClellan and Fair Oaks, 284
Cox, Garfield letter about army officers very critical of cabinet and government, slavery, 286
Chaplain, 287
Daily routine, 288-89
Davis message and Confederate efforts, 291
Doctor, 292
Absence of guerrillas, 292
Untrained soldiers, 293
General Cox, 293
Fremont, Pope, 294
Rumors about fighting near Richmond, 295
Defeat on Peninsula, foreign intervention, 295-96
Various rumors about Richmond and McClellan, 296-97
McClellan change of base, 299
Chaplain, 301
Problems in the southwest, 305-6
John Hunt Morgan raid in Kentucky, possible impact, stimulate recruiting 306-7
Arrest of secessionists,, 314-15
Conscription, militia draft, 320
Guerrillas, 321
Good prospects, speedy end to rebellion, 328
Washington, food, military police, 330
Second Bull Run, 332-36
Washington, 333
McDowell, 334-35
McClellan back, 339

Bragg's success in Kentucky, 339-40
Sigel, McClellan, McDowell, Pope, Union moral, 340-41
Confederates in Kentucky threatening Ohio, 342-43
Danger, Union Morale, 343-44
McClellan, 344
General Reno, men taking fence rails for cooking, 346-48
Antietam campaign, 349ff
Burnside, 350
Joking with civilians in Maryland, 350-51
Maryland Unionists, 352
Confederates moving in great force, a defeat would be disastrous to them, 353
Wounded at Antietam, 356ff, 370
McClellan, 361
Removal of McClellan, Burnside, 363-64
Western Virginia, on the Kanawha, Gauley Bridge, 366ff
Antietam stories, 366-67, 369-70
South Mountain, 72
Burnside, Fredericksburg, McClellan, 376-78
Wounded men, 378
Dead of South Mountain and Antietam, 380
Christmas, 381
Recalls year of 23rd Ohio, 385
Officer appointments, 389-90
Lucy and Children in camp with Hayes, 391ff
Reaction against Copperheads, food shortages among Confederates, conscription, habeas corpus suspension give government strength, 397
War will go on for some time, 403
Sermon, Presbyterian for soldiers, 405-6
Army of the Potomac, Hooker, 410-11
Vicksburg, 412-13, 417
Death of infant son, 414-15
Gettysburg campaign, 415
John Hunt Morgan raid, 419ff
Deserters and Confederate morale, 430
Wants his wife to come to camp in western Virginia, 433-34
Reenlistment, 437
Ohio elections, 441-42
Chaplain sermon, 443-44
George Crook, 455
Cloyd's Mountain, 461-62
George Crook, 466
Hunter in the Valley, 471, 474
Hunter, burning of Mrs. John Letcher's house, disgust, General Crook, 478-79
Ill in barroom of German saloon, 482-83
Winchester, battle, 485-86
Deserter, 492

Possible McClellan nomination, 493, 496, 500, 504
Winchester, 495
Possible congressional candidate, 497
Army discipline, 498
Praises Sherman's army, 504
McClellan, 504-5
McClellan letter accepting Democratic nomination, 506-7
Fisher's Hill, 514-18
Confederate diary, 520
Crook and Sheridan, 521
Election, soldier vote, 524, 526
Cedar Creek, 527-29
Confederate morale, 529
Voting for Lincoln, Sheridan, Crook, 536
Food, 540
Thanksgiving, 540-41
Food, 544
Chaplains, religious meetings, 544
Promoted to general, 547
Glad to have Chase as Chief Justice, 547
West Point applicants, 547
Christmas, 552
Chaplain, 558
General Crook and General Kelley captured, 560-64
Sheridan, 564-65
Andrew Johnston drunk at inauguration, 566
Jubal Early, 567
Gold prices falling, 568
Grant, Crook, and Stanton, 569
Grant, Sheridan, Warren, 572
Lincoln assassination, 575-77