

Campbell, John Quincy Adams. Union Must Stand: The Civil War Diary of John Quincy Adams Campbell, Fifth Iowa Volunteer Infantry. Edited by Mark Grimsley and Todd D. Miller. Knoxville: University of Tennessee Press, 2000.

Enlistment, duty, slavery, 2-3
Religious service, 4-5
Athens, Missouri, 6
Missouri, 6ff
Quinine, blue mass, 14
Halleck, fugitive slaves, 17
Thanksgiving, 17
Christmas, 19-20
Trent affair, Mason and Slidell, 19-20
Stanton, 21
Stolen pig, 26
Horse accident, 27-28
Food, 29
Marching, 30
Island No. 10, 34ff
Corinth, 44
Poor south, 45
July 4, 48
Rumors, McClellan, 48
Lincoln confiscation, 50
Officereleciton, 53, 64
Iuka Price, Rosecrans, 54ff
Casualties, 59-60
Corinth, 61ff
Chaplain, services, 67
Poor white, unionists, 70
Bragg, 71
Marching, 72
Christmas, 72
*Morale, patriotism, 77
Vicksburg, 66ff
Slaves, 91
Plantations, 91
Champion Hill, 95ff
Fraternization, burial truce, 103
Entrenchments, 106-7
Officer elecitons, 107-10
July 4, Vicksburg, surrender, 110
Fraternization, 113
Lincoln, Thanksgiving, 117
Alcohol, 122
Food, foraging, 122-23

Grant, Providence, 131
Hooker, 133
Chattanooga, 133ff
Huntsville, 147
Presbyterian sermon, 147
Unionist meeting, 151
Alcohol, 152
*Lincoln, McClellan election of 1864, 165-66
Guerrillas, 171ff
James B. McPherson, 172-73
Murfreesboro, 178-79
Atlanta, 182
Sheridan, 183
Election, McClellan, 183
Mammoth Cave, 191
*Election of 1864 and the war, 193
Slaves, 207-8
Iuka, 209-12
Slaves, intelligence, 214
Poor whites, 215-16
*slaves and freedom, 217-18
Huntsville, Unionists, Jeremiah Clemens, 227-30