

McKelvey, Blake, ed. Rochester in the Civil War. Rochester, N.Y.: Rochester Historical Society, 1944.

“Civil War Letters of Samuel S. Partridge of the “Rochester Regiment”

13th New York Infantry

Orderly sergeant duties, 77-78

Women watching men undress, 78

First Bull Run, 79-82

Promises broken on enlistment, uniforms, shoddy, medical stores, three month regiment, mutiny, discipline, 82-86

Seven Days, 87

Alcohol, 87-88

General Martindale, 87

Morale, 88

Antietam, 89-90

Wounded men, 89-90

“George Breck’s Civil War Letters from the ‘Reynolds Battery”

Battery L., First New York Light Artillery

Election of 1860, 92-94

Camp life, 95

Letters, 95

Soldiers and religion, swearing, temptation of camp, 95

Officer resignation, 96-97

Removal of Frémont, 97

Sleeping, 97-98

Disease in army, 98

Worried about McClellan’s army, longs for peace, 99

Conscription, 99-100

Typhoid, 100

Little patriotism in Rochester, soldiers sick of the war, 101

Religious conversion of mother, 102-3

Food, 103

Antietam, 103-5

Morale, desire for peace, 105

Emancipation Proclamation, 105

Lack of shelter, tents, 106

McClellan, 106

Possibility of becoming a newspaper editor, 107-8

McClellan, 109

Emancipation Proclamation, abolitionists, 109

McClellan, Burnside, 110-11

Thanksgiving, food, 111-12

Officer promotion, 112-13

Fredericksburg, Burnside, 114-15

Christmas food, 115

Boxes, 116
 Duty, 117
 Morale, doubts that rebellion can be crushed, 117-18
 Burnside, Mud March, Fredericksburg, 118-19
 Slavery, Emancipation Proclamation, Lincoln, abolitionists, 119-20
 Marriage, unmarried women in Buffalo, 121
 Emancipation Proclamation, 122
 Accused to writing treasonable letters to newspapers, 122
 Joint Committee on the Conduct of the War, 123
 Visit of Lincoln to the army, Mary Lincoln, 123
 Chancellorsville, Hooker, 124-25
 Gettysburg, 127-33
 Rain, 133-34
 Dead and wounded at Gettysburg, 134-35
 Talking with Confederate wounded, 134
 Chaplain, sermon, religious service, 135-36
 Kilpatrick raid, 136
 Grant, election of 1864, Lincoln, 137-38
 War and the Constitution, 138-39
 Military situation, fate of the republic, 139
 Petersburg, 140ff
 Election of 1864, army, McClellan votes, proscription, Christian Commission and Sanitary Commission 140-41
 Election of 1864, Lincoln, laments Horatio Seymour's defeat, 143
 Need to enlist Republicans, 144
 Thanksgiving, food, 145-46
 Brevet promotion, officer, 146
 George Thomas and John B. Hood, 146-47
 Conscription, Copperhead, 149

"Civil War Letters of Francis Edwin Pierce of the 108th New York Volunteer Infantry
 Marching, food, 150-51
 Washing, lice, 151-52
 Antietam, 153-55
 Corduroying roads, 157
 Fredericksburg, 158-64
 Sacking Fredericksburg, 160
 Disease, 165
 Gettysburg, wife requests information on missing husband, reply that he was a straggler, 166-67
 Union, Emancipation Proclamation, 167-68
 Burnside, Mud March, 168
 Gettysburg, wounded, 169-72

August Seiser's Civil War Diary
 German 48er
 Co. B, 140th New York

Soldier pay, 176
Bristoe Station, 176-77
Bull Run graves, 178
Sleeping on the ground, 180
Rappahannock Station, 181-82
Mine Run campaign, 182-88
Wilderness campaign, 188-92
Talking with women, 193
Sight of the dead, 194
Rain, 195
Cold Harbor, 196
James River, 197-98

Porter Farley, "Reminiscences of the 140th New York Volunteer Infantry"
Enlistment, 200
Fredericksburg, 201-207
Deserters, 207-8
Chancellorsville, 208-215
Gettysburg, 215-
Gouverneur Kemble Warren, 220-21
Wounded Confederate, 232
July 6 religious service, 232
Food, 234
Soldier pay, 235
Grant, 235
Overland campaign, Wilderness, 236
General Wadsworth, death, 237
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 246ff