

LeConte, Joseph. 'Ware Sherman: A Journal of Three Months' Personal Experience in the Last Days of the Confederacy. Edited by William Blair. Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University Press, 1999.

Much about a long railroad journey
Much on loyalty of slaves

Charleston, accommodations, shelling, 1-2
Breakfast, coffee, 2
Beautiful woman described, 2-5
Savannah refugees, 6-7
Railroad journey to Charleston and stop with wealthy woman for food, 10
Damage in Charleston, 11
Sherman, railroads in Georgia torn up, wagon transportation, 13
Andersonville prison, 14-15
Disorderly Georgia militia looking for liquor, 18
Refugees, Confederate soldiers, rumors, 20
Yankees have not insulted the women, 21
Doubt and despair about Confederate cause, 22-23
Women describe physical losses and mental anguish from Yankees, 30-31
Varnedoe, commissary for Andersonville prison, threat by Yankees, 32-33
Varnedoe, commissary for Andersonville prison, threat by Yankees, 32-33
Yankees killing livestock, 34
Dodging squads of Yankees, 40ff
Refugees in wagons, 45ff
Mules, 61-62
Yankee advance in South Carolina, 81-82
Removing chemical laboratory to Richmond, 82-83
Hardee arrival expected, 83
Prospects for Columbia, 82-
Columbia refugees, 89
Yankees destroy wagons, 97-98
Back to Columbia, 140-44