

Murray, R. L. New Yorkers in the Civil War: A Historic Journal, Volume 5. Wolcott, N. Y.: Benedum Books, 2005.

Many quotations in this volume about slavery, abolition, and black troops

Officer, 33rd New York, opposed to abolition, 69-70

Lewis Douglass, attack on Fort Wagner, 71-72

Charles Douglass, battle near Petersburg, 73-76

Petersburg, 76-83

21st USCT, South Carolina, 84-90

114th New York Infantry, Soldier voting bill, 91-93

Election of 1864, letter from 148th New York, opposing Lincoln and abolition, 94-98

Bounty, Democrats, McClellan. 95-96

Butler and Grant, 97

Soldiers in 126th New York, 111th New York, expresses support for Lincoln and his policies,

McClellan and Chicago platform, 99-101

Mortally wounded soldier, last letter home, 111

Soldier mortally wounded Gettysburg, religion, 111-12