

Perry, John G. Letters from a Surgeon of the Civil War. Edited by Martha Derby Perry.
Boston: Little, Brown, 1906.

Contract surgeon
Later assistant surgeon, 20th Mass.
Rough surgeon, stabbing and shooting, 4
Confederate surgeon, 4-5
Death in various forms, 6
Singing Methodist hymns, patients, 7
Slaves in Norfolk, 8
Confederate civilians, 9
Death of Confederate patient, 12-13
Slaves, measles, berry pies, 13-14
Seven Days, ragged Union prisoners, released, 14-15
Odd wounded narrow escapes, 15-16
Deaths in Confederate prisons, 16
Conscription, 19
Washington, 21
Morale, fear, 22
Picket duty, 24-26
Chancellorsville, 29ff
Newspaper reports, 41
McClellan, 41
New York Draft Riot, described by Mrs. Perry, 57-73
Homesickness, 76
Whiskey, substitutes, deserters, 77-78
Murder of Captain McKay, 80-98
Demoralization, conscription, substitutes, 100
Execution of soldier, 100
Bristoe Station, 104ff
Food, 107-8
Death of Colonel Mallon, 112-13
Sharpshooters, 114
Horses, 115
Food, hardtack condemned, 120
Man bitten by snake, 121
Meade and Lee, 122
Fire, smoke, pine logs, 123-24
Stoves, fireplaces, ventilation, 126
Food and drink, 129
Thanksgiving, food, 129-30
Mine Run, 132-46
Bounty, furlough, 151
Food, water, 152-53
General Webb, 155
Bathing, 156

Officers, alcohol, crude socializing, fraternizing with enlisted men, 159-60
German soldiers, 161-62
Band music, 162
Grant reviews troops, 163-64
Overland Campaign, 166-67
German soldiers, cowardice, 167
Dead bodies on Wilderness battlefield, 167-68
Soldier on battlefield loudly singing a hymn, 168
Wounded soldier, 169-70
Hancock, 170
Heat stroke, 171
Death of Henry Abbott, 171-72
Dead vs. living officers in 20th Massachusetts, 176
Surgeons captured by Confederate immediately paroles, 176
Letters, 178
Captain Kelliher wounded, 180-83
Inured to death, 185
Morale on each side, 186
Cold Harbor casualties, 187-88
Death of lieutenant, sharpshooters, 190-94
Soldiers and destruction, southern women, Harvard connection, foraging, 196-206
Petersburg, 207ff
Three Union regiments taken prisoner, 207
Confederates starving but women and children not ready to yield, 209
Water shortage, 211
Artillery fire against Petersburg, black troops, 217-18
Petersburg, mine, 220