

Maury, Betty Herndon. "The Civil War Diary of Betty Herndon Maury." Edited by Carolyn Carpenter. Fredericksburg History of Biography 9 (2010): 9-121.

Little girl singing Dixie, 10-11
Federal pass, 11
Poor women sending of soldiers, 12
Runaway slave, 12, 40
Jefferson Davis and military commissions, 13
Henry A. Wise, 13
Big Bethel, John Magruder, 14, 16
Sermon on patriotism, 14
Richmond newspapers report too much military information, 15
Sickness, hospital, soldiers, 17-18
Women devoted to nursing the sick, 18
Rumors and false news, 23
Lincoln message to Congress, 23
Father critical of Confederate government, 25-26
Soldier cooking, 25-26
Western Virginia, 27
Confederate victory at Manassas, 28-31, 33
Casualties, 29
Lincoln declares medicines contraband of war, neglect of wounded, 31
McClellan, 32
Slave woman, 32
Confederate flag, 35
Seeking a husband, 37
Prices, 38
Leroy P. Walker, 40
Burnside, 48
Ball's Bluff, 48-49
Winfield Scott, 51-52
Jefferson Davis, message, 53
Mason and Slidell, 54-56
Death of slave, 56-57
Husband enlist, 59-60
Fort Donelson, 60
Reenlistment, 60
Lingering affection for the Union, 62
Davis, Johnston, and Holmes, 63
Jubal Early, 64
Prices, butter, Confederate prospects, 65
Shiloh, 65-66
Union occupation of Fredericksburg, 68ff
Yankee band music, 69
Slaves running off, 70
Fall of New Orleans, 71, 73

Prayer for president, 72
Insolent slaves, 72
Peninsula campaign, 70ff
Discipline of Union soldiers, 74
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 74
Insolent, running away slaves, 74-75
Jackson in the Valley, 79
Runaway slaves, 80
Yankees in Fredericksburg, 80
Confederate and union money, 80
Seven Days, McClellan, 83
McClellan a liar, 83-84
Noble women of Richmond, 84-5
Children and slaves, 86
Second Manassas, 88
Union retreat from Fredericksburg, soldier and women, 88
Antietam campaign, 89ff
Vicksburg, women and cartridge bags, 91
Yankees in Fredericksburg, 93