

Halsey, Edmund. Brother Against Brother: The Lost Civil War Diary of Lt. Edmund Halsey.
Edited by Bruce Chadwick. Secaucus, N.J.: Birth Lane Press, 1997.

Clothing, appearance of soldiers, 68
Soldier pay, 70
Shooting accident, 71
Emancipation Proclamation, 74
Antietam, 75, 77
Army of the Potomac, 81
Food, 83
March, 85
Court houses, destruction, 86
Fredericksburg, 88ff
Chaplain, 92
Religion, 98
Christmas, 97
Letters, 97
Camp death, 102
Food, 103
Sanitary Commission, 104
Food, 106
Woman in camp, 108
Hooker, 117, 123
New Jersey peace resolutions, 117-18
Lincoln, review of troops, 122
Chancellorsville, 125ff
Gettysburg, 143ff
Lee's army, 151
Meade timid, 155
Warrenton, 156ff, 166
New York draft riots, 156
Fast, humiliation, and prayer, 158
Cholera, 164
Deserter, execution, 166
Accidental death, 169
Reenlistment, 179-80
Food, 185-86
Mosby, 186
Farming, 187-89
Court martial, 196, 198
Medical condition of recruits, 196
Clothing, 201
Overland campaign, 207
Religious conversion, 213
Torbert speech to troops, 213
Wilderness, 214ff

Spotsylvania, 223ff
Sedgwick death, 225
Cold Harbor, 231ff
Soldier badly wounded, 231-32
Regimental casualties, 236-37
Alcohol, soldiers, 253
Capturing prisoner, 258
Winchester, 264ff
Fisher's Hill, 266-67
Cedar Creek, 276ff
Flag, color bearer, 283
Funeral service, 283-85