

Trimmler, Theodore G. Letters for Mary from Her Confederate Soldier Husband. Edited by Hayse Boyd. Northport, Ala.: Hayse Boyd, 2014.

Corinth, 31-32
Morale, 31-32
Children's education, 33
Disease, hospitals, 48-49
Conscription, volunteers, 49
Food, 49
Shiloh, 50, 60
Disaffection in the company, some of the troops wish to go home, 60
Bounty money, 68, 84
Tuscaloosa prison camp, 77
Duty, drill, routine, 83
Smallpox, 84
Soldier's wife, 84
Health of regiment, 90
Money from home, 90
Camp regulations not rigidly enforced, 91
Camp meeting, gambling, 91
Kirby Smith, 95
Sending money home, 107
Knoxville, 111
Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 115-23
Marching, 116, 120
Breckinridge, Forrest, 126
March to Cumberland gap, 127
Murfreesboro, 130-31
Forrest captures Crittenden, 131
John Hunt Morgan, 131
Breckinridge, 137
Yankee destruction in Nashville, 137
People loyal to Confederacy and suffer at hands of Yankees, 141
Food, 143
Furlough, 145
Slave purchase, 145-46
Drilling regiment, 151-52
Johnston and Breckinridge, 151-52
Soldier pay, home, 154, 157-58, 160
Slave misbehavior, 158
Slow letters, 159
Vicksburg, 161
Stragglers, arrest, 161
Wife needs to cheer up and persevere, 168
Duty of every man to whip Lincoln cutthroats, 171
Change in water, illness, Jackson, Miss., 173-74

Vicksburg, Pemberton, Johnston, optimism, 174
Trouble with slave, sale, 179
Yankee losses at Vicksburg, 180
Soldier swearing vengeance against men at home, 180
Officers, appointment of a captain, dissatisfaction, 184-85
Fall of Vicksburg, 187
Johnston plans, 191
Furlough, 193
Selling slaves, 194
Morale, desertion, defeatism in Alabama, 194
Deserters from Sipse Guards, 197
Johnston, 197-98
Sell slaves, 198
Federal destruction, slaves taken, 203
Deserters trial, 203-4
Loneliness at home and trouble with children, 204
Trouble with slaves, selling, 210-11
Diarrhea, 216
Chattanooga, 221ff
Regiment in good condition and drills each day, 225
Winter quarters, 225
Knoxville campaign, 231ff
Bean Station battle, 232-33
Regiment worn down, shoes, 235
Christmas, 241-42
Winter quarters, 242
Furloughs, 246-47
Little news, rumor of French landing in Savannah, 247
Bragg, Missionary Ridge, failure at Knoxville, 247
Selling a slave, 252, 265
Shortage of horses and transportation, 272
Overland campaign, 286ff
Petersburg, 288ff
Confident in Lee keeping the enemy from Richmond, 289
Grant bombardment of Petersburg not doing much damage, 293
Early move on Washington, 293
Worried about army in Georgia, Johnston, 293
Lincoln and slaves and slaughter at Petersburg, 302
Dead, remains, 306
Postwar plans, 319
Wounded soldier, hospital, 321
Lee, men deserting infantry and joining cavalry, 330
Hampton Roads conference, 336
Consolidation of companies and regiments, 342-3
Slave soldiers, giving up slavery, 343
Morale and western army, 348