

Lee, Elizabeth Blair. Wartime Washington: The Civil War Letters of Elizabeth Blair Lee. Edited by Virginia Jeans Laas. Urbana: University of Illinois Press, 1991.

Secession speeches in Congress, Iverson, 14-15
Social ostracism of Republicans, 14
Christians and civil war, 15-16
Middle states, Republicans, 16
Benjamin F. Wade speech, 18
Buchanan, 18
Robert Anderson, 18
South Carolina secession, 19
Lincoln's possible cabinet, Seward, 19
Anderson, Buchanan, Slidell, Jefferson Davis, Moutrie, Pickens, 20
Secession, Douglas, Crittenden, 22-23
Virginia convention, 24-25
Young women and Washington society, 25
Seward peace overture, 25
Southern senators leaving, 27
Rumors about the forts, 28
Corwin's peace proposition, 28
Missouri politics, 28
Kentucky, 29
Missouri politics, secession, 31-33
Davis and Stephens, turn against secession, 33
Tennessee and secession, 36
Bad men leading secession, father expects peace, 37
Peace congress, 37
South Carolina discontent with Jefferson Davis election, 38
England and the war, blockade, 40-41
Black deportation, 41
Raw soldiers, campaign plans, 43
Simon Cameron, 44
Joseph Holt, Kentucky, 44
Missouri, Claiborne Jackson, 48
Harpers Ferry, 48
Frank Blair candidacy for speaker of the House, 52, 56
Secessionist violence in Baltimore, 53
John C. Frémont, Jessie, 53-54
Simon Cameron, 54
Naval officers, blockade, 58
Congress and military delay, 60
Western Virginia, McClellan, 61, 63
Seward, European powers, England, 62
John C. Breckinridge attack on Lincoln, 63
Maryland, 64
Bull Run, 65

Philadelphia, 68
 General Patterson, 69
 Bull Run, 69-70
 Criticism of Blair family, 70
 Wilson's Creek, 71
 Washington defenses, 72
 Confederates moving, additional Union soldiers drilling, 72
 Church service, love feast, 74-75
 McClellan, 75
 Strong business in Philadelphia, 76, 82
 Kentucky, 77
 Jessie Frémont, John C. Frémont, 78-79, 81
 Jessie Frémont, 85
 McClellan, 86
 Frank Blair and John C. Frémont, 86
 Impending advance of McClellan, 87
 Southerners would give up if they could see northern prosperity, 88
 Frémont, Sigel, Sturgis, Hunter, Sterling Price, Missouri, 89
 Thaddeus Stevens accused Frank Blair, Jr. of deserting the Republican party, 91
 Shooting of a deserter, 91
 Senator Doolittle, 91
 Radical in Congress, Frank Blair, Jr., 93
 Christmas, White House, 93
 Trent affair, England and France, 93-94
 Regiments into Missouri, Frémont, 94
 Prayer, 96-97
 Nathaniel Banks 97
 General Lander, 98
 General Stone's arrest, McClellan, Stanton, 100, 102
 Chase, turn states into territories, 100
 Captain Goldsborough, 101
 Hitchcock and Halleck, 102
 Kentucky and Tennessee, 103-4
 Mary Lincoln and Willie Lincoln, 104
 Frank Blair pessimistic, 104
 General Lander's death, 105
 Frank Blair, Lincoln, Chase, Frémont, 105-6
 Frank Blair making Frémont speech in Congress, George Washington Julian, 107
 10th Massachusetts foray against Confederates, foraging, destruction, 107-8
 Frémont in mountain division, McClellan, 109
 Frémont appointment, Chase and Lincoln, 109
 Start of Peninsula campaign, 110
 Varina Davis, 110
 Confederates retreating everywhere, 111
 False rumor about removal of McClellan, 111
 Slow movement of troops to Washington, 112

Naval building, ironclads, 114
 Valley, attack on Shields, Keyes, Sumner, Wadsworth, McDowell, Banks, 116
 Blockade of the Potomac, McClellan, Francis Preston Blair, 117
 Rumor about Kentucky regiment refusing to enlist and being slaughtered by Confederates, 117-18
 Fanny Kemble reading, 118
 Social calls, 121
 Mrs. Trumbull said the Joint Committee on the conduct of the war was down on McClellan, 121
 Military developments in Virginia, 123
 Emancipation bill senate, 125
 Shiloh, 125-26
 McClellan, siege of Yorktown, 125
 Optimism, 125-26
 Still see southerners as her countrymen, 126
 Yorktown, Confederate numbers, McClellan needs more troops, Stanton, 127
 Letter from McClellan, Francis Preston Blair, Lincoln, 129-30
 Baltimore, Washington emancipation bill, 130-31
 Owen Lovejoy, 130-31
 Shiloh, 131
 Slavery, emancipation, colonization, 132
 Surrender of New Orleans, 134, 138
 Orphan asylum board, 138
 Zachariah Chandler, McClellan, Trumbull, 138-39
 Lincoln and Yorktown, 139
 New Orleans, 140
 Lincoln at Old Point, 140
 Williamsburg, 141
 McClellan and Halleck, 144
 Francis Preston Blair, English and French intervention, 145
 Confederate women, Winchester hospitals, 146
 Farragut, prayer orders, 146
 Fleet on James River retreats, 147
 Van Buren, 147-48
 McDowell and Stanton, 150
 McClellan, McDowell, Banks, 151
 Valley campaign, 151-52
 Preston King, Wendell Phillips, Doolittle, 152
 New Orleans has stopped talk of foreign intervention, 153
 Beauregard, Halleck, Corinth, 153-54
 New Orleans, 154
 Wool and Goldsborough have hampered McClellan, 154
 Silas Casey undisciplined soldiers, 154
 Fair Oaks, Seven Pines, Casey, 155
 Defeat of French in Mexico, 155
 Missouri, Governor Gamble, Home Guards, Sterling Price, 156

Rumor of Beauregard in Richmond, intrigue against McClellan, Shields, Frémont, Banks, McDowell, McClellan, 159
 July 4, day of mourning for heavy losses, 160
 Halleck, Beauregard, excuses for not reinforcing McClellan, 161
 Rumors of Vicksburg's capture, 162
 Dinner, 162
 Francis Preston Blair, Halleck, McClellan, 166
 Joseph Holt, emancipation, James F. Speed, John Hunt Morgan, 168
 Death of Van Buren, 170
 Arrest of secessionists, 171
 McClellan and Army of the Potomac. 177
 Railroad cut in Baltimore, 177
 Army reception for McClellan, McDowell, 178-79
 Ironclads, 179
 McClellan reception in Maryland, 181
 Assessment of McClellan, 181
 Confederates have left Maryland, election, 183-84
 Still fears McClellan is too slow, Stanton, 184-85
 Bragg, Bull Nelson, 186
 McClellan, 186
 Lincoln and Emancipation Proclamation, 186
 General Stone, McClellan, Stanton, 188
 Expects move by McClellan, Halleck, Buell, 189-90
 Charles Sumner, 190
 Elections, Democratic generals, Seymour, Wadsworth, 194-94
 Pleasonton, Stoneman, Stuart, 194-95
 Buell, McClellan, cavalry, 196
 Frank Blair, Jr., election 196
 Confederate cavalry at Gordonsville, 200
 Frank Blair, Jr. election results, abolitionists, 202
 Removal of McClellan, Burnside, 202
 Mrs. McClellan and Mrs. Franklin, 203-4
 McClellan, Burnside, anxiety about battles to be fought, 204
 McClellan, Fitz John Porter, Franklin, Baldy Smith, 206
 John Van Buren, Democrats, 206-7
 Mrs. Trumbull, McClellan, 208
 Dennison, Sumner, discontent with Lincoln's annual message, 211
 McDowell court, Pope, 214
 Fredericksburg, 214, 216
 Cabinet crisis, Stanton, Seward, 217
 Congressional reports, doubts about generals, 219
 Christmas, 220
 Montgomery Blair, Seward, Emancipation Proclamation, 225
 Sherman, Vicksburg, Frank, 225-26
 Montgomery Blair, post office appointments, 226
 Frank Blair, Vicksburg, 226

Asylum board, 228
General French, Fredericksburg, 229
Alexander McCook, 230
England, France, possible intervention, cotton, 231
Pictures of Jefferson and Varina Davis, Judah Benjamin, 232
Deserters, soldiers and blacks, 234
Thomas Hicks, General French, 234
Admirals, Dahlgren, 235
Fitz John Porter and McClellan, Francis Preston Blair, 235
Hooker, Sumner, Franklin, Burnside, McClellan, religion, 236
Black soldiers, 237
Preston King, Edwin Morgan, race question, 237
Senators, 243
Gideon Welles, 243
Democrats and Frank Blair, 246=47
Dennison, assessment of Democratic senators and Confederate strength, 247
Gustavus Fox, Welles, admirals, 247, 249-50
Vicksburg rumors, 248
DuPont and Indianola, 248
Frank Blair, generalship, politics, 250
Frank Blair and Frémont, 251
Senate opposition to Frank Blair, 252
Washington, poor people and Virginia refugees, 253
Frémont and black soldiers, 254
On Richmond, Lincoln reviewing troops, Benjamin F. Wade, 256
Samuel F. DuPont, Gustavus Fox, 256
John Key, Stanton, 259
Hooker and McClellan, 260
Monitors, 261
Dislikes black race, 262
Fox, Dix, Foote, gunboats, 263
Halleck, 264
Chancellorsville, Hooker, Stoneman, 264-68
Kate Chase, Governor Sprague, Hooker, Meade, Birney, Sedgwick, 269
Grant, Rosecrans, 270
Lincoln, McClellan, Hooker, 276
McClellan, Hooker, 276
38th Ohio, 277
Hooker, Meade, 278
Washington defenses, 278
Meade and discipline, 281
Lee, Hooker, Davis, Meade, Lincoln, 283
Army of the Potomac, rations after Gettysburg, Lincoln, Baldy Smith, 284
July 4, Gettysburg, Vicksburg, 285
Dix, Hooker, Milroy, 286
Navy, David Porter, 287

Missouri, emancipation, 289
 Vicksburg, 290
 DuPont, Dahlgren, Gilmore, 290-91
 General Griffin, Lincoln, 291
 Fall campaign plans, 291-92
 John Hunt Morgan, 292
 John J. Crittenden death, 292
 Texas, Frank Blair, prospect of war with France, 293
 Robert E. Lee correspondence, 293
 Expected pursuit of Lee, 293
 Germans, Gettysburg, Schurz, 293
 Bishop, prayer, 294-95
 Vallandigham, Morgan, Ohio election, 295
 Conflict between Lee and Jefferson Davis, Halleck, 296, 298
 Fox, DuPont, Dahlgren, Charleston, 297
 Demoralization and revolt in Confederacy, French commerce, 298-99
 Grant, Sherman, Vicksburg, 299
 Joseph Johnston, Frank Blair, John C. Breckinridge, 300
 Charleston, Blockade, Wilmington, Fox, Gilmore, DuPont, 302-4
 Panic, removal of cattle above us, 305
 Rumors about Charleston and Army of the Potomac, 307
 Conscription, 307
 European powers and Confederacy, 307
 Washington society, 309
 Emancipation, Maryland, Francis Preston Blair, compensated emancipation, Chase, Sumner, 310
 Dennison, Wade, Chase, 311
 Home repairs, 312, 314
 Reports of battle, sounds of fire, 313
 Uncertain news about Meade Lee, 315
 Henry T. Blow, Frank Blair, Chase, 316
 Frank Blair, corps command, Chase, 320
 Philadelphia, Thanksgiving, 321-22
 Social life, 323
 East Tennessee, 325
 Radicals and House of Representatives, Lincoln message, 325-26
 Cotton, gold prices, 326
 General Ames, 328
 Family conflicts, 330-31 et passim
 Chattanooga, Grant, Sherman, Logan, 332-33
 Frank Blair will return to the army in the spring, 336-37
 Fox, Grimes, naval promotions, 339
 Presidential election, Lincoln, 349
 Wilmington, 341
 Changing composition of Congress, 343
 Orphan asylum, 344
 White House, Mary Lincoln, 346

White House, fire, loss of Mrs. Lincoln's horses, 346-47
 Preston King, 347
 Frank Blair, Henry Winter Davis, Navy Department, 353
 Orphan asylum, 354
 Frank Blair, committee, provost marshal business, 354-55
 Grant, 355
 Blockade, cotton ship, 355
 Frank Blair, bill on naval rank, 357
 Fraud charges against Frank Blair, 358
 Frémont, 359
 Francis Preston Blair, Gideon Welles, 368
 General Stone, 369
 Schuyler Colfax, 369
 Frank Blair talk with Lincoln, 370-71
 Henry Dawes, Massachusetts gubernatorial election, Chase, 371
 Orphan asylum Sunday School, 371
 Sherman and Frank Blair, 372
 Robert Schenck, Lincoln, Garfield, Chase, 375
 Frank Blair, Chase, Lincoln, 376
 Frank Blair and committee on elections, 377
 Schuyler Colfax, Benjamin F. Wade, 378
 Grant, 379
 Grant being reinforced, 381-82
 Grant, repulse of Butler, 383
 Trumbull, Frank Blair, Chase, 384
 Conflict among the Radicals, Sprague, Wade, 385
 Ambulances and wounded in Washington, 386
 Baltimore convention, Lincoln, Dennison, Preston King, 389
 Missouri politics, Frank Blair, Grant, 391
 Radicals opposed Frank Blair—could not be both general congressman, 392
 Benjamin F. Butler, 396
 Fox and Grant, obstructions on James River, 397
 Chase resignation, 398-99
 Jessie Frémont, John C. Frémont, Democrats, 399
 Fessenden, 399-400
 Burning of Silver Spring, 402
 Cape May, 403ff
 Mary Lincoln, 408
 Atlanta, 409
 Montgomery Blair and Halleck, 416
 Frank Blair, Atlanta, 418-19
 Grant, 420
 Butler, burning of Seddon home, 420
 Albion Howe, Sigel, 420
 Welles, promotion, 422
 Montgomery Blair resignation, Lincoln, Frémont, McClellan, Copperheads, 432

Frank Blair, St. Confederate invasion, 436
Lincoln, 439
Edward Bates, Sherman, 443
Newspapers, people's war, 450
Rumor about Forney becoming secretary of war, 451
Defeat of Hood, Thomas, 451-52
13th amendment vote, 453
Sumner, Butler, Fort Fisher, 454
Hood, Thomas, Fort Fisher, 457
White House, Lincoln, 462
Francis Preston Blair in Richmond, Mrs. Stannard, Varina Davis, 463, 470
Fort Fisher, 465
Husband not an admiral, 465
Debate on Butler, Brooks, Boutwell, Stevens, 468
Thirteenth amendment, Doolittle, 469
Lincoln on Thirteenth Amendment, 471
Peace commissioners, 472
Food prices, 472
Seward, 473
Orphan asylum, 474
Death of Governor Hicks of Maryland, 476
Frémont, 476
Peace prospects, 477
Mary Lincoln, 479
Blairs, Schenck, 479
Grant, Sherman, Johnston, Beauregard, Schofield, 481
Doolittle, Andrew Johnson, 481-82
Andrew Johnson, 483-84
French, Maximilian, 485
Lincoln visit to the army, 487
Deserters, 487
Fort Stedman, 488
Andrew Johnson, 488-90
Fall of Richmond, 489
John Sherman, Frank Blair, 489
Seward injury, 491
Mary Lincoln, 491
Good news, Lee surrender, 492-93
Lump on breast, doctor, Chloroform, turned out to be only a bruise, 493-95
Lincoln assassination, Seward, 494
Reconciliation between Chase and Francis Preston Blair, 495
Mary Lincoln, 496-99
Andrew Johnston, 496
Sherman, Doolittle, 500