

Peyton, John William. Eyewitness to War in Virginia, 1861-1865: The Civil War Diary of John William Peyton. Edited by Walbrook D. Swank. Shippensburg, Pa.: Burd Street Press, 2003.

A civilian in Orange County, Va.—daily reports on military activity in the area; barebones reporting; much on railroad

Yankee theft, 15

Yankee arrests, 15-16

Picket firing, 17

Fredericksburg, 38

Federal conscription, 49

Skirmishing, fighting, 55

Capturing Yankees, 60

Chancellorsville, 64

Death of Stonewall Jackson, 66

Female spy, Mrs. Allen arrested in Richmond, 78

Bombardment of Charleston, 83

Deserter shot, 89

News and rumors of Chickamauga, 90

New York gold price, 130

Reading habits, 139

Death of John Hunt Morgan, 161

Yankee destruction and burning, 163

General Lee's surrender and God, 199