

Andrews, C. C. History of the Campaign of Mobile. New York: D. Van Nostrand, 1867.

CHAPTER I. MOBILE.

Military Importance of Mobile — Its Fortifications — By whom Constructed — Gov. Johnston's Opinion of the Fortifications — Harbor Defences — Forts Gaines and Morgan — Confederate Navy. ... 9

CHAPTER II. EARLIER OPERATIONS AGAINST MOBILE.

Bombardment, Siege, and Capture of Forts Morgan and Gaines — Land Forces engaged — Heroic Conduct of Farragut — Brilliant Achievements of the Navy — Fall of Fort Powell — Limited Garrison of Mobile 13

CHAPTER III. CONCENTRATION, ORGANIZATION, AND EQUIPMENT OF THE ARMY.

Canby's Movable Forces — Brigade of Reserve Corps sent to Barrancas — Camp at Barrancas — Organization of Thirteenth Corps — Sixteenth Corps moves down the Mississippi — Canby's Orders to perfect Organization — Forces collected at Fort Gaines 21

CHAPTER IV. PLAN OF OPERATIONS.

Mobile to be flanked by Movement from Eastern Shore — Railroad Communications with Montgomery to be destroyed — Column to move out from Pensacola 31

CHAPTER V. THIRTEENTH AND SIXTEENTH CORPS MOVE TO INLET'S ON FISH RIVER.

Difficult March of the Thirteenth Corps— Demonstration on Western Shore of Mobile Bay— Attack on the Wagon Train— Movement of the Sixteenth Corps on Transports 33

CHAPTER VI. THREE DAYS AT FISH RIVER.

Drill — Skirmish — Scenes in Camp — Forward Movement— Plans and Activity of the Confederates — Experience of their troops — Order of Battle — Confederates Retire into their Works — Thirteenth Corps on D'Olieve's Creek — Sixteenth Corps at C. Sibley's — Skirmish 38

CHAPTER VII. SPANISH FORT — ITS INVESTMENT.

Description of the Ground — Attack on Federal Pickets— Sixteenth Corps turns Back on Spanish Fort — Skirmish at Minette Bridge— Thirteenth and Sixteenth Corps in Line of Battle — Spirited Action — Confederates driven Behind their Works — Canby's Headquarters at Wilson's 48

CHAPTER VIII. SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT— SECOND DAY,

Garrison of Spanish Fort — " Shooting to Kill" — Operations in the Sixteenth Corps' Front — In Thirteenth Corps' Front — Attack on Capt. Noble's Working Party — Operations of the Navy — Sinking of the Milwaukee — Spirited Conduct of her Crew 60

CHAPTER IX. SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT— THIRD DAY.

Operations of Navy — Sinking of the Osage — Position of the Confederate Artillery — Batteries Huger and Tracy — their Armament — Operations along the Line — Capt. Myers' Adventure on Skirmish-Line — Progress of the Trenches — Casualties light 69

CHAPTER X. SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT— FOURTH DAY.

Progress of the Siege — ^Withdrawal of Veatch's Division — Change of Garrison Troops— Their Casualties 78

CHAPTER XI. SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT— FIFTH DAY.

Sunken Battery constructed by Besiegers on Shore of Bay Minette — Thirty-Pounders of First Indiana Heavy Artillery in Position — The New York Light Batteries — Gallant Exploit of Some of the Ninety -Fourth Illinois Men — Sortie and Ca^jtture of Detachment of the Seventh Vermont — What the Prisoners saw in Spanish Fort — Supper with the commander of the Garrison 81

CHAPTER XII SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT— SIXTH DAY.

Feeling in Mobile — The Garrison's Economy of Ammunition — Holtzclaw's Brigade — It relieves the Alabama Reserves — Operation of the Besiegers— Expert Practice of Grayson's 'Battery Brilliant Shots by Seventh Massachusetts Light Guns — Sinking of the Rodolph . 88

CHAPTER XIII. OPERATIONS OF STEELE'S COLUMN FROM PENSACOLA BAY.

Composition of his Forces — Second Division marches to Pensacola — Condition of Pensacola— Confederate Scouts around— Repairing Wharves— Difficult March of Steele's Column— Exaggerated Idea of his Forces — Arrival at Pine Barren — Construction of Bridge — Crossing of the Pine Barren 95

CHAPTER XIV. CONTINUATION OF STEELE'S MARCH.

Expectations of a Fight — Combat of Pringle's Creek — Gen. Clanton severely wounded — Victory of Lucas' Cavalry — Pursuit to the Escambia — Entry of Pollard — Spurling's Cavalry Operations— Spurling " a Live Yankee" — His Capture of a Staff Officer — Steele turns toward Blakely — Bad Roads — Corduroying — Scarcity of Rations— Capture of an Outpost — Veatch's Movement with Supplies 107

CHAPTER XV. INVESTMENT AND SIEGE OF" BLAKELY.

Description of Blakely — Its Garrison — Investment of Blakely — Bivouac of the Colored Division — Its Engagement — Good Behavior of — Casualties in — ^The Second Division moves early from Hall's — Takes Position before Blakely — Engagement of Skirmishers — Rifle-Pits commenced 121

CHAPTER XVI. SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT— SEVENTH AND EIGHTH DAYS.

Engagement of Artillery — Sweeping for Torpedoes by the Squadron — Incident showing the Soldiers' Magnanimity — Toil of the Besiegers — Their Bomb-Proofs 130

CHAPTER XVII. SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT— NINTH DAY.

Progress of the Trenches — Notice of the Batteries — General Bombardment — Enthusiasm among Besiegers 136

CHAPTER XVIII SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT — TENTH, ELEVEKTH, AND T\VELFTH DATS.

Firing at Night — Footway to Conway's Bayou — News of Fall of Selma— Enterprise of a Lieutenant — ^Engagement of the Octorara — Strength of the Garrison — The Hospital ' 141

CHAPTER XIX. SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT — THIRTEENTH AND LAST DAT.

Consultation about Evacuation — State of the Siege — Grand Bombardment — Assault in Carr's Front — Gallant Conduct of the Eighth Iowa — Lodgment effected--Secret Withdrawal of the Garrison— The Retreat — Occupation of Spanish Fort by Besiegers 148

CHAPTER XX. OBSERVATIONS ON THE SIEGE OF SPANISH FORT.

Beauregard's Opinion — Object of Spanish Fort — Importance of its Reduction — ^Propriety of Assault — The Garrison Commander — Instance of Neglect by Garrison — Their Activity — Importance of Enfilading Fire and Secure Approaches 163

CHAPTER XXI. SIEGE OF BLAKELY CONTINUED— SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH DATS.

Nature of the Ground between Combatants — Operations in Hawkins' Front — In Second Division — Position of Veatch's and Garrard's Divisions — First Gun of Besiegers in Position — Observations by Lieut. -Col. Whittlesey — Two more of Second Connecticut Ten -Pounders open — Change of Position by Rinaker's Brigade — Condition of the Garrison 168

CHAPTER XXII SIEGE OF BLAKELY— FIFTH, SIXTH, AND SEVENTH DATS.

Sortie — Advance of Line on the Left— Conduct of Maj. Hutchinson — Action before Day — Engagement of the Fifteenth Massachusetts Battery — Operations of the Cavalry — Operations of the Garrison — Communications between the Skirmishers — Second Divisicin ordered in Readiness to March — Engagement of First Indiana Thirty-Pounders with Gunboats 178

CHAPTER XXIII SIEGE OF BLAKELY— EIGHTH AND LAST DAY.

Reinforcement of Besiegers' Artillery — Stage of the Works — Suspicion that the Garrison was evacuating — Feelings of the Garrison — Preliminary Advance by Colored Troops — The Assault — Description of the Assault in Each Division — The Works of Blakely triumphantly carried — Capture of Three Thousand Prisoners 189

CHAPTER XXIV. OBSERVATIONS ON THE SIEGE AND ASSAULT OF BLAKELY.

Immediate Effect of the Fall of Blakely — Conduct of the Garrison — ^Marshes — Favorable Time for Assault — Work Done by Besiegers 223

CHAPTER XXV. REDUCTION OF FOKTS HUGER AND TRACY.

Splendid Firing of the Octorara — Engagement of Foust's Light Battery, and Sixth Michigan Heavy Artillery with the Forts — ^The Forts hastily evacuated — Gen. A. J. Smith's Preparations for Assault 227

CHAPTER XXVI ADVENTURES AND INCIDENTS.

Gen. Bailey's Trip to Spanish Fort — Incidents of the Siege — Humor of Confederate Soldiers 233

CHAPTER XXVII. FURTHER OPERATIONS OF LUCAS' CAVALRY.

March to Claiborne — Combat of Mount Pleasant , 239

CHAPTER XXVIII OPERATIONS OF WILSON'S CAVALRY IN ALABAMA.

Condition of Confederates in Central Alabama — Organization of Wilson's Cavalry at Gravelly Springs — Preparations for a Movement — Routes of the Three Divisions — Croxton's Brigade Detached at Ely ton — Skirmish near Montevallo — Capture of Despatches at Randolph — Battle of Ebenezer Church 242

CHAPTER XXIX. CAVALRY OPERATIONS CONTINUED— BATTLE OF SELMA

Description of the Defences of Selma — Rattle of Selma — ^Victorious Assault by Dismounted Cavalry — Plans of the Confederates — Destruction of Property — Gen. Wilson moves to Montgomery. . . 252

CHAPTER XXX. OPERATIONS OF CROXTON'S BRIGADE.

Skirmish at Trion — Capture of Tuscaloosa — Combat at Pleasant Ridge — Gallant Conduct of Second Michigan Cavalry — Hard Marching — Swimming Rivers — Skirmish near Jacksonville — White Flag on the Bank of the Chattahoochee — Observations : 260