

Lewis, John H. Recollections from 1860 to 1865. Washington: Peake & Company, 1895.

Lieutenant, Huger's, Anderson's and Pickett's Division, Army of Northern Virginia

Savannah, secession, election of 1860, 17ff

Sumter, Virginia secession, war, 20-21

Confederate inflation, 22-23

Manassas, Bull Run, 26

Abandonment of Norfolk, 27-29

Even local troops willing to abandon homes and families, 28-29

Monitor and Virginia, 29-32

Thoughts on going into battle, 33

Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, 33-36

Robert E. Lee, 37

Soldier killed handling live shell, 37-38

One man refused to be a color sergeant after seeing previous one killed at Seven Pines, 38

Confederate soldiers courage and confidence, 39

Seven Days, 40-41

Hardships, 42

Pope, Cedar Mountain, 42-44

Righteous cause, hardship, 45

Second Manassas, Bull Run, 46-48

Baltimore, 50-51

Antietam, 51-56

McClellan and Burnside, 60-61

Marching, cold, 61-62

Fredericksburg, 62ff

Fredericksburg refugees, 62-67

Suffolk, desertions, 68-69

Army of Northern Virginia reorganization, 71

Belle Boyd, 71

March to Gettysburg, 72-75

Battle of Gettysburg, 75-86

Prisoner, bad mental state, 87

Fort McHenry, abusive guards, 87

Johnson's Island, 88-89

Pickett's Charge poem, 90-91

Fort Delaware, return home, 92