

Nichols, George Ward. The Story of the Great March from the Diary of a Staff Officer. New York: Harper & Brothers, 1865.

Opening campaign, Atlanta, Sherman, 15ff
Transporting citizens going south, railroad, 16-20
Conversation with Confederate woman, hatred, 21-23
Sherman said he would talk with Governor Brown, 24
Defense of Atlanta, 24-26
Removal of Atlanta citizens, 26
Pursuit of Hood, Allatoona, Gayesville, 27-33
Sherman preparations for march, Sherman described, 34-36
Thomas, 36-37
Burning of Atlanta, John Brown Song, 37
Organization of Sherman's army, wings, Sherman, 42-47
Breaking camp, marching, foraging, day's march, 48-55
Capture of Milledgeville, Slocum, Sherman in governor's mansion, 56-58
Howell Cobb's plantation, slaves, Sherman, 58-62
Food, 66
Unionists, 67
Planter, older slaves, 68-69
Railroad destruction, 69
Kilpatrick, 70, 73
Sight of arming winding through the woods, 70-71
Black women, former slaves following the troops, 71-72
Sherman strategy, 72-73
Railroad depot masters, secession, war, 74-76
Camp pets, raccoon, donkey, dog, cat, roosters, cock fighting, 76-77
Millen, 78ff
Flank movements, 79-80
Railroad, destruction, 80
Cornfields, destruction of cotton, 81
Kilpatrick, 82
Mansion, destruction, Confederate cavalry, slaves, 82-83
Little destruction of private homes, 83
Army kills dogs used to track slaves, 84
Millen prison pen, Jefferson Davis, 84-85
Nearing Savannah, 85ff
General Howard, 85-86
Strong Confederate works, 87
Fort McAllister, navy, General Hazen, 89-93
Savannah captured, 93-94
Savannah occupation, 94-108
Christmas, 96
Blair's Corps, 97-98
General Geary, 98-99
Sherman plans, 100

Sherman and slaves, 101
 Stanton and Black clergy, Sherman, 101-2
 Black in Savannah, 102
 Northern cotton speculators, 104-5
 Review of the Georgia campaign, errors, 109-112
 Soldier digging for concealed valuables, 112-15
 William T. Sherman, character, 117-24
 Movement in South Carolina, 125-27
 Beaufort, foraging, 127-28
 Pocotaligo, 128
 Limits on transportation and baggage, 129
 Tents, 129-30
 Advance to the Salkahatchie, swamps, destruction, 131-32
 Poor whites left behind, slaves, 132-35
 White women, 135-36
 Crossing the Salkahatchie, 136-37
 Beaufort Bridge, 138
 Women in abandoned, dismantled homes, fire, 140-41
 General Howard, 142-43
 Augusta and Charleston railroad, destruction, 144-45
 Crossing the South Edisto, 146-48
 Orangeburg, 147-49
 Plantation, destruction by black soldiers, 149
 Women, 149
 Foraging and railroad destruction, 150-51
 Columbia, Saluda factory, workers, slaves, John A. Logan, 152-59
 Occupation of Columbia, fire, slaves, 160-73
 Railroad destruction, Winnsboro, 174
 Defiant minister, 175
 Music, band, 175-76
 Movement of Sherman's troops, 177ff
 Foragers murdered, Catawba River, 181
 Rain, 184
 Light-skinned slave, 185-86
 Evacuation of Charleston, 186
 Cheraw, 187
 River crossing, 187-88
 Chesterfield, skirmishing, 191
 Wounded slave woman, 192-93
 Lazy people, horrors of slavery, 193-94
 Sherman and slaves, 195-97
 Joseph Johnston, 197, 201
 Capture of Cheraw, destruction of artillery, 198
 Foolish of Confederates to destroy bridges and do not know why don't put up resistance, 200
 Destruction of Confederate powder and ammunition, 202-3
 Mulatto woman, 203

Soldiers often preserved private property, gifts?, joke, 204-5
 Unionist refugees, Howard, immigrant train, Hazen, 206-13
 Conversation with Confederate woman about the war, Revolution, 213-14
 Crossing Pedee river, 215
 Army movements, 215-217
 North Carolina, 217ff
 Slave children singing, 218
 North Carolina newspapers, 221
 Differences between North and South Carolina, 222
 Soldier conduct changed, 222
 Bethel Church, 224
 Bridges, rain, 225
 Horse, 227-230
 Army morale, 230-34
 Capture of Fayetteville, arsenal, 235-
 Slaves, 237-39
 Confederate inhumanity, prisoners, Hampton, Hardee, 239-40
 Bummer, 240-43
 Kilpatrick and Hampton, 247-49
 General Terry, Wilmington, 249
 Rumors, 251
 Destruction of Fayetteville arsenal, 251-52
 Cape Fear River, 252
 Few Unionists in North Carolina, 252-53
 Capture of Robert Barnwell Rhett's son, 254
 Battle of Averysboro, 255-59
 Flank march, 261
 Bentonville, Johnston's retreat, 261-73
 Slocum, 271-72
 Jefferson C. Davis, 272
 General Charles Wood, 272-73
 Goldsboro, 274-
 Healthy conditions of army, mental strain, 274-75
 Shoes, 276
 Accomplishment of Sherman's army, Johnston, 276-84
 Quartermaster General Meigs, 284
 Little jealousy among the officers, 286
 General Mower, 286-87
 General Williams, 287-88
 General Schofield, 288-89
 Smithfield, 291-92
 Raleigh, Lee's surrender, Zebulon Vance, 293-300
 Slavery question, 300
 Conversation with Confederate colonel, causes of the war, slaves, 301-4
 Construction corps of the army, 305-7
 Pursuit of Johnston, Sherman-Johnston conference, 308-16

Wade Hampton, Joseph Johnston, 311-312
Lincoln assassination, 316
Sherman and Johnston agreement, end of the war, 317-321
Going home, 322
Sherman report on the Georgia campaign, 323-36
Report on the campaign in the Carolinas, 336-349
Sherman testimony before the JCCW, 350-54, 367-82
Sherman report of operations in North Carolina and surrender of Johnston's army, 354-367
Major General Barry's Report of Carolinas campaign, 382-85
Report of Engineer's Department, 385-86
Colonel Poe's reports of operations in the Carolinas, 386-88
Quartermaster reports, 388-92
Commissary stores furnished the army, 392-93
General Sherman's staff, 394