

Bates, James C. A Texas Cavalry Officer's Civil War: The Diary and Letters of James C. Bates.
Edited by Richard Lowe. Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University, 1999.

Home, 1-12
Religion, Bible, 2-3
Election of officers, 6-7, 9
Humor, sadness, 14
Indians, 24ff
Food, 34-35
Food, pies, 36
Indians, 51-52
Food, 64
Death, drunk, 69
Pea Ridge, 76ff
Women, 87
Religion, 88
Stay at home, neutrals, 94
Religion, Sabbath, 94-95
Whiskey, 96
Women, 104, 107
Shiloh, 107-8
*honor, subjugation, morale, 111
Corinth, 111ff
Conscription, election of officers, 116-17, 120
*Subjugation, abolition, 119-20
Fighting, death, 121
Deception, killing Yankees, 122
Morale, slavery, abolition, 123
Destruction as policy, 123
Conscription, 124-25
Morale, American Revolution, 132-33
*Subjugation, 133-34
Food, prices, 135, 162
Religion, 140-41
Braxton Bragg, 144
Sterling Price, 144
Seven days, morale, 145
Morale, foreign intervention, 154
*Subjugation, 154
Confederate strategy, 154-55
Union soldier and slave, 157
Death of a comrade, 158
Missouri, 166
Hindman, 167
Rumors, Cincinnati, 173
Corinth, 180ff

Prospects of war, 193
Daring courage, 195-96
British and French recognition, 202-3
Women, marriage, 205
Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 206
Earl Van Dorn, Lincoln, emancipation, 206-7
Holly Springs, 216ff
Fredericksburg, 222-223
Peace, northern newspapers, 232
Mississippi people, food, 233-34
Length of war, peace, Lincoln, arrests, 234
Women, 235
Prices, 240
Clothing, 252
Vicksburg, 253-55
*Yankee cruelty, 254, 259-60
Pemberton, Johnston, 260
Gettysburg, 261
Hard trip, good humor, 264-65
Morale, rumor, 267
Blockade, speculators, 268
British and French intervention, 268
*Black soldiers, prisoner exchange, 270, 273
Stephen D. Lee, 271
William J. Hardee, 271-72
Destruction, 272
Mobile, war news, 280-82
Copperhead, Kentucky, Lincoln, 286
Ulysses S. Grant, 286-87
Overland campaign, 290-91
Wound, 296-300
Atlanta, Johnson, 299
Atlanta, 301-2, 305
Election of 1864, 303-4
Vallandigham, McClellan, 303-4
Women hospital, 306-7
Fall of Atlanta, 316
Atlanta, Hood, Sherman, 318
McClellan, 318
Davis, Hood, Sherman, Beauregard, 320-25
Deaths, continuance of war, 321
Election of 1864, Lincoln, McClellan, 325-26
Slave wedding, 330-31