

Fulton, James. Civil War Medicine: A Surgeon's Diary. Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 2019.

143rd Pennsylvania Infantry
Appointed assistant surgeon, 49
Men marching, 50
Sworn into United States service, 50-51
Examination of soldiers, 51
Washington, typhoid, 51
Fort Slocum, 52
Stones River, 53
Copperheads, Vallyandigham, 54-55
Soldier pay, 55
Belle Plain, 57ff
Typhoid pneumonia, 58-59
Poor whites, slaves, 60
Snow, 62
Cold, stove, 63
Picket duty, 64
Disrepair of a grave, 64
Chancellorsville campaign, 66
Pontoons, 66
Women and food, 67
Hospital duty, 68ff
Wounded Confederate, 69
Sabbath, 70
Camp at White Oak church, 71
Retreat from Chancellorsville, 72
Typhoid, malaria, 72
Accidental shooting, saving leg but patient died, amputation would have been better, 73
Colonel dies of fever, 73-74
White Oak Church, 74ff
Gettysburg campaign, 76ff
Brandy Station, 77
Bull Run battlefield, remains of the dead, 78-80
Confederate deaths, typhoid, 80
Poor farming around Centreville, 80
Bathing, 83
Foraging sheep, bees, 83
Soldiers grabbing horses, 84
Crossing Potomac, 86
Virginia farmhouse ravaged by disease, 87
Schoolhouse, 87
Searching for food, 88
Frederick, Maryland, 93
Meade and Hooker, 97-98

Carl Schurz, 100
Marching, heat, stragglings, 101
Battle of Gettysburg, 102ff
Meade, Hooker, Reynolds, 102-3
Wounded men, taken prisoner, operations, 103-28
Gettysburg after the battle, 131ff
Reports of Confederates crossing the Potomac, 131
Wounded brought in from farm houses, 131-32
Treating amputations, 132
Bealton, 133
Rapidan, 134
Bristoe Station, 136-39
Appearance of Confederate soldiers, prisoners, 141
Disgrace of seven Union soldiers being captured by the Confederates, 142
God and the war, 143
More Confederate prisons, tide in Union favor, 144
Meade report on Gettysburg, 145
Stoves, 145
Leaving quarters to build new ones, 146
Gettysburg cemetery, 147
Warrenton, Manassas, 148
Winter quarters, 149
Mine Run, 150, 152-53
Chattanooga and East Tennessee, 150-51
Fireplace, chimneys, food, 151
Winter quarters, 153-54
Brandy Station, supplies, 155
Burned home of a colonel, 156
Small sick list, 157
Board of surgeons examining men for discharge, 158-59
March to Culpeper Courthouse, destruction, 162-63
Christmas, 163
Cavalry officers ball, women, 164
Camp on widow Graves' farm, 168
Building a chimney, 170
New Year's in camp, alcohol, 172
Smallpox, 175-76
Emancipation Proclamation, 177
Varioloid vaccine, 180
Gettysburg, 183
Summary for 1863, 185-88
Medical recipes, 188-93
Several essays on the diary by medical historians and other scholars
Rules for the examination of assistant surgeon candidates, 361-64
Gettysburg reminiscence, 365-73

