

Merritt, Lucius Manlius. Kiss the Children for Father: Letters from a Prisoner at Fort Pickens. Pensacola, Fla.: Pensacola Historical Society, 1975.

Businessman

Alabama troops, 8

What do with their furniture, 9-11

Prisoner, doing well, recommends Christian fortitude, 12-13

Faith in wife as a Christian woman, 13, 15

Advice on her conduct in New Orleans, 17

Send clothing, 18

Fears for children in schools in New Orleans, 19

Faith in his wife's strength to endure trials, 22

He could become a sick and die in prison, 22

Mess and regulations, 24

Passing the time, amusements, 24

Not that hard a life in prison, 24-25

Washing clothes, 28

Letters, 29

Moral lessons in life, 32

Grateful for his wife, 33

Expects to be paroled, too old to be a soldier, 34

Christmas, 36

Coming home to New Orleans, 39-40

Trip to England, 40-42