

Remley, George and Lycurgus. Southern Sons, Northern Soldiers: The Civil War Letters of the Remley Brothers, 22nd Iowa. Edited by Julie Holcomb. DeKalb: Northern Illinois University Press, 2004.

Food, 4
Camp Pope, 4ff
Bible, religion, 5
Religious service, 5-6
Marching, knapsack, 7
Rumors, 8-9
Diarrhea, morphine, 9-10
Christianity, temptations of camp life, 10-11
Winter tent scene, religion, swearing, 11
Officers, 12
Morality, war, 14
Hospital, food, 15
Chaplain, 16
Guard duty, row in camp, 16
Alcohol, cards, Irish, arrests, 16
Duty, 18
God, preservation, 18
Guarding Unionist property, 21
Thanksgiving, 22
Confederate prisoners, 22
Food, bread, 25
Christmas, alcohol, 27
Clothes, 26
Christmas, 28
Missouri Confederates, 29
Christmas food, 30
Sleeping conditions, 31
Fighting at Rolla, Missouri, 31-32
Jaundice, 33
Missouri Confederates, 33
Sending excess clothing item, home, 35-36
Food, concentration of troops, 39
Foraging, meat, 40
Soldier pay, 42
Religion in army, revivals at home, chaplain, 43
Marauding and thievery, 44
Does not fear death, faith in God, 46
Vicksburg, rumors, 46-47
Soldiers and stealing, 49-50
Belmont, Island No. 10, 52
Plantation, 53
Milliken's Bend, 54ff

Chaplain, 55
Slaves, 57
Vicksburg, 61ff
Gunboats, engagement, 61
Port Gibson, 61-65
22nd Iowa casualties, 65
Black River, 66
Water, 66
Raymond, Mississippi, 66-67
Wounded men, surgery, amputations, 67-68
Burials, 68
Burial truce, fraternization, 69-70
Diarrhea, fever, depression, 70-71
Typhoid, 71-72
In hospital keeping flies off his brother Lycurgus and writing a letter, 73-74
Death of his brother Lycurgus, religious hope, 74-75, 82
Duty, danger, rifle pits, 77
Water, 77
Missouri guerrillas, 78
Enemies and hatred, 78-79
War and death, 80
July 4, 81
Surrender of Vicksburg, 81
Christian faith, chastening of God, 82
Railroad, 84
Music, steamboat organ, 89
Furlough, 90
Water, 92
Camp accommodations described, 92
Bayous, 93
Soldier pay, 95
1863 elections, 96-97
Banks, eastern vs. western troops, protecting Confederate property, 98-99
Foraging, 99
Letters, 102, 107
Confederate money, 103
Hateful Confederate civilians, 104
Chaplain, 105
Texas, 106ff
Christmas, 110
Cooking, food in camp, wood, 110-11
Union League, treason, 112
Christmas, 113
Letters, delays in news, 115
Weather, hot, 115
Chaplain, 117

Texas morale and opinion, Confederate deserters, 120
Letters, 121
Duties, nature of soldiering, 122
Reenlistment, Confederate morale, 123
Sabbath, Sunday School, 126
Nature of Texas, 128
War at home, peace, Texas Unionists, oath, 131-32
Tarantula, 135
Soldier pay, 136-37
Conscription, 137
Fire in a Texas town, 142
Christian Commission and Sanitary Commission, 143
Banks and McClelland, 143
New Orleans, 142ff
Women, southern vs. northern, 143
Sunday School, charity for soldiers, 143-44
Sunday School concert, 145
Letters, 148
Women coming into the lines, 149
1864 Valley Campaign, 152ff
Dead body, dead horses, 157
Election of 1864, McClellan, peace platform, 160
Conscription, Copperheads, 160
Death of George Remley at Battle of Cedar Creek, 161-64