

Le Grand, Julia. The Journal of Julia Le Grand, New Orleans 1862-1863. Edited by Kate Mason Rowland, and Agnes E. Croxall. Richmond: Everett Wadley Co 1911.

First Manassas, 26-27
Box for soldier, 35-36
Machine to blow up Yankees, torpedo?, 36
Beauregard, 37
New Orleans free market for poor, coffee, tea, 37-38
Mansfield Lovell, 39
Fall of New Orleans, 38ff
Women and resistance, 41-42
Fantastic rumors, 43
Anxiety about her brother, 43-44
People of the New Orleans and the occupying troops, 44
Quarantine, 45-46
Butler and Mayor Monroe, 46
General Shepley, 47-48
Impact of occupation, 52-53
Butler and Banks, 55-56
Runaway slave woman, 56-57
Fredericksburg, 58
Fears of slave insurrection, Yankee soldiers hate blacks 59-60
Christmas, 60
Women and Yankee soldiers, socializing, 61-64
Oath, 63-64
Still have human feelings for suffering, 63-64
Yankees occupy houses, 66-67
General Shepley, demand to punish impudent blacks, slaves, 68-69
Stealing slave servant, punishment, 71-72
Banks speak rudely to women coming with requests, 72-74
Rumors of French recognition, Slidell, 74-75
Stones River, Murfreesboro, 75
Soldiers under Butler and Banks, they feel lonesome, she feels some compassion for them, 76-77
Poor defenses of New Orleans, some living in luxury, Lovell, Davis and Benjamin overconfident, 81-82
Federals and cotton seizures, 82
Suffering of English workers, 83
Lincoln and Fredericksburg, 83
Federals, tax, feed the poor, 85
The Alabama and northern commerce, 84-86
Women and Southern Soldiers, Yankees, 86
Vallandigham, 86-87
Sacrifices for the Confederacy, 87
Political party conflict, North, Radicals, little hope for peace, Copperheads, 87-88
Butler stealing Silver, 89-92
Banks and mutiny of federal troops in Baton Rouge, incite blacks against us, 93-94

Spiritualism, 98-99
 Slave running away, low character of blacks, future progress, science, 99-101
 Some of the Federals are Confederates at heart, spike guns, 104-5
 Confrontation between citizen and one of Butler's soldiers, soldier backs down, 107-8
 Northwest Conspiracy, disaffection in the North, abolitionists as Jacobins, 112
 Vallandigham and Lincoln, 113
 Federal soldiers parade in New Orleans, 113-14
 Passports to go through the lines, food to the sick, 115-17
 Democrats, Seymour, rumors of arsenal seizure, 119
 Banks, treatment of women and ministers, 120
 Episcopal religious service, omission of prayer for the President, Butler, federal officers, 121-25
 Commerce raider Alabama, 124
 Cox speech on Puritans and Yankees, 125-127
 Butler, 126
 Cameron, Senate election, bribery of Pennsylvania legislator, 128
 Pope's proclamations and retaliation, 128-29
 McClellan, 129
 Black, slaves sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree," 130-31
 New Orleans newspapers under Yankee control, 131
 Thieves, speculators, Yankee atrocities, 131-32
 Counterfeit Confederacy currency, slave insurrection, Yankee barbarism, 132
 Deception and blacks, 133-34
 Banks, slave labor, planters, 134
 Spiritualism, 135-36
 Wendell Phillips, incitement of slave insurrection, 136-37
 Confederate prisoners sent out of New Orleans, Battle of Handkerchiefs, 137-46, 174, 176-79, 185
 Yankees steal horses, 146
 Intellectual woman, 146-47
 Jefferson Davis speech at Jackson, Mississippi, 148-49
 Butler and women of New Orleans, 150-51
 Woman arrested, oath, 151-52
 Yankee deserters, Vickburg, 152
 Thackeray, Vanity Fair, 153-54
 Seward, French recognition, mediation, 155-56
 Episcopalians, Catholics, Methodists, 158
 Two women in occupied New Orleans, 161-62
 Deplore sectarianism, will not join a church, 161
 Spiritualism, 162
 Beauregard and wife, 163
 Yankees and Butler, 166
 Officer commanding African American troops behaves badly in bank, depredations 166-68
 McClellan, 170-71
 Vicksburg caves, 172-73
 Wealthy woman lives well and patriotism involved talking harshly to federals, 173-74
 Yankee soldiers forcing blacks to work in brickyard, 174-75

Women searched before leaving the city, 182-83
 Large funeral for a Confederate officer, Banks tries to limit crowd size, 184
 Impending attack on New Orleans, rumors during military occupation, 192
 Hatred, 193-94
 Women prisoners, 194-95
 Oath and border states, 200
 Maryland people, 200-1
 Contempt for Maryland for yielding to the enemy but New Orleans also yields, oath, 201-205
 Port Hudson bet, 206-7
 Sherman, Vicksburg, 208
 Rumor of Stonewall Jackson spy in New Orleans, Jackson in Mississippi and will retake New Orleans, 212-14
 Women and oath, 216-17
 Yankee robbers and barbarians, Confederate flag, 217-18
 Commerce raider Alabama, 218-19
 Butler stealing, even opening graves, painting done of Butler the hyena, 222-23
 Hopes for Confederacy in coming 1863 campaign, 227-28
 Slaves misled by Yankees into rejoicing and crime, now forced by Yankees work on plantations, 228-30
 Farragut, Anaconda, Vicksburg, 231
 Rumors of Federals in Baton Rouge, Vicksburg and Jackson as deserters, low Federal morale, 232
 Federal officers, women, and Bonnie Blue Flag, 233
 Engagements and marriages, 237-38
 Maryland, Democrats, speeches in Congress, 239-40
 Confederate motivation, and morale, Federal lack of morale, 243-44
 Bank, Port Hudson, passim, 245-47
 Slaves, Yankee crimes of various generals, 247
 Lee and respect for property, Gettysburg campaign, 248
 Chambersburg, Fredericksburg, 248-49
 Yankee crimes, confirmed from Yankee sources, 250-51
 Rumor about Banks and Stonewall Jackson, 251, 265
 Alcohol, angry slave, may go to the Yankees, 256-57
 Slave woman and son left them, 261-63, 286-91
 Many slaveholders betrayed by their slaves, the ones treated best, 263
 Blacks will steal, slaves not quite human yet, and Yankees force them to work, 263-64
 Unreliable rumors of Confederate victories, 266
 Jefferson Davis, day of fast, humiliation, and prayer, Catholics bolder celebrating this than Protestants, 269-71
 Slave threatens to run off, 271-72
 Federal occupy houses and steal things, Banks, 272-77
 Rumors about Farragut, 277-79
 Butler and women of New Orleans, 281-82
 Temptation to take the oath and many succumbed, 281-82
 Runaway slaves, 282-83
 Vicksburg, newspaper reports, 295

Rumors exploded, 297
Beauregard cloak worn by young women, 299
Petty tyranny of the Yankees, 303