

Harris, Robert F. and John Niflot, ed. Dear Sister: The Civil War Letters of the Brothers Gould. Westport, Conn.: Praeger, 1998.

Morality, 1
Coward, 3
Camp vice, 3
Barbarous southerners, 3-4
God's punishment, 4
Religion and death, 5-7
War over soon, 7
Disease, 8
Slavery, 10
Burn Charleston, 19
Race, 19
Hunter, soldiers, slaves, 22
Motive and cause, 24
McClellan, 24
Optimistic about campaign, 25
Prayers meetings, 37
Burnside, 41
Southern farms, 41
War is fun, 44
Kill Jefferson Davis, 44
McClellan, Democrats, Copperheads, 53
Traitors, rebels, resolution, 55
Being a soldier, 61
Wicked men and cause, 63
McClellan and Democrats, 65
Fighting and copperheads, 71
Conscription, 73
Course of war and Lincoln, 77
Tennessee refugees, 81
Slavery and southern culture, 81-82
Rioters, copperheads, McClellan, 93
Democrats in regiment, 98
Burnside, 106
Commitment, 112-13
Gratitude to God, 112-14
Officers, 115
War and sin, 118
Heavenly rest, 124
Petersburg, 130ff
Fraternization, 133
Casualties, 134
McClellan, 135
Lord on our side, 139

Confederate desertion, 141
Soldier individualism, 142