

White, Robert H., ed. Messages of the Governors of Tennessee. 8 Vols. Nashville: Tennessee Historical Commission, 1952-1990.
Vol. 5

April 25, 1861 1861 message on crisis of the Union, Harris recommends secession, 279-87
Convention between Tennessee and Confederacy, 292-94
Legislative Address to People of Tennessee, Lincoln's false assurances, arming the state, voting on secession, 294-300
Harris military appointments, 301
Harris certifies vote for secession with election returns, 303-6
Harris message on secession and the vote, 306-310
Harris recommends a law defining treason, 308
Bonds and currency, 309
East Tennessee resolutions, Greeneville convention, legislative response, 312-20
Southern rights convention, 320-21
1861 governor's election, 321-332
Harris reviews secession crisis, 333-39
Tennessee military preparations, 340-43
Monopoly and extortion, 343-44
Confederate elections, 344-45, 356-57
Depreciating property values and need for retrenchment, 346-47
Banks, 347-48
Railroads, 348-50
Speculation and extortion, resolutions in legislature, 353-356
Harris summons Tennessee assembly to meet at Memphis after fall of Nashville, 365