

Hess, Frederick. Letters to Tobitha: A Personal History of the Civil War, Letters by Frederick Hess. Edited by David Primrose. New York: iUniverse, 2006.

Perryville campaign, 4ff
Bull Nelson and Jefferson C. Davis, 13
Bible class, 13-14
Stones River, graves, 22
Black workers, 22,
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 23
Guerrillas burn rebel houses, 28
Lieutenant and slaves, 38-39
Daily routine, 40-41
Rain, 51
Optimism about war, 53
Pontoon, 68
Close call, 70
Chickamauga, 72-73
Chattanooga, 75ff
Fraternization, 81, 86-87
Food meat, 84-85
Food, union, 87
Rosecrans, 88
Food, cooking, 88
Lookout Mountain, 99-101
Box, 104, 107
Bread, 113
Cold weather, wife, 116-17
Revival meeting, 120
Religious meeting, 122
Clothing, 148-49
Atlanta campaign, 151ff
Whiskey, 160, 186, 222
Optimism about war, 161
Resaca, 162-63
Preparing to march, 167
Deserters, 167
New Hope Church, 168-71
Hospitals, 183ff
Scurvy, dirty soldiers, 189
Beef, cattle, 195, 207
Women, 209-10
Savannah, 218ff
Slaves, follow army, 219
Jefferson C. Davis, 219
Christmas, 220
Ragged army, shoes, 244

Washing clothes, 250

Raleigh, 254

Lincoln assassination, 255

Grand Review, 260ff